FEBRUARY 5, 1845. GENTLEMEN,-In accepting the invitation contained in your letter of yesterday, I have to return to you and those you represent iny thanks, my sincere ple: such is HARRY MORGAN. and heart-felt thanks for the kind and friendly sentiments therein expressed.

It gives me much pleasure to reflect that in a long acquaintance and extensive professional intercourse with our bar, the fullest harmony has at all times existed between each member & myself. In retiring from the practice of law it is highly gratifying to know I have their friendship. And I would repeat my gratitude for this manifestation of the confidence and esteem of gentlemen, distinguished for urbanity, intelligence, and high legal attainments.

Cordially yours, D. BULLOCK.
