

Miscellaneous.

The Rich Merchant.

By Mrs. Jane Weaver.

It was night, and the streets were nearly deserted, and more especially as it was snowing fast.

"Please, sir," said she, "if it's only a penny—mother is sick, and we have not anything to-day."

"The first impulse of the moment was to go on; and the second to stop.

"It is too much trouble," said he to himself—"and this wind is very cutting.

"What kept you so long, dear papa?" she said, "if I had known where you were I would have sent the carriage.

"No, my love, I was at my lawyer's—busy, very busy, and all for you," and he kindly patted her cheek.

"The daughter rang the bell and ordered the supper to be served. It was such a one as an epicure would delight in, just the supper for a traveller on a night like that.

"Pa," said the daughter, when it was finished, "I hope you are in good humor, for I have a favor to ask of you," and she threw her arms around his neck, and looked up in his face with that winning smile and those beautiful dark eyes of hers.

"Yes, my darling," he said, fondly kissing her, "the cotton speculation has turned out well. I sold all I had of the article this afternoon, received the money and took it to my lawyer's, telling him to invest it in real estate. I think I shall give up the business."

"Oh! do, papa. But you will give me this ball won't you?" "You little tease," said the father, but he spoke smilingly; and putting his hand in his pocket-book, he took out a note of five hundred dollars and placing it in his child's hand.

"A woman, sir, has been found dead below there," said one of the spectators; "she starved to death, it is said, and they have sent for the coroner. Her daughter has just come back, after being out all night. I believe she was begging. That's her moaning."

"Ah!" said the merchant; "and a pang went through his heart, like an ice-bolt, for he remembered having denied a petitioner the night before. He pushed his way through the crowd, and descended the steps. A girl cowering over an emaciated corpse, that lay on a heap of straw in one corner of the damp apartment. It was the same girl he had feared it would prove. The merchant was horror-struck.

"My poor child!" he cried, laying his hand on her shoulder, you must be cared for; God forgive me for denying you last night. Here, take this," and he put a bill in her hand.

"The girl looked up and gazed vacantly at him. Then she put back the proffered money.

"It will do no good now," she said, "mother is dead," and she burst into hysterical tears.

The merchant at that moment, would have given half his fortune to have recalled her to life.

The lesson thus learned he never forgot.

cr forgot. The merchant personally saw that a decent burial was provided for the mother, and afterwards took the daughter into his house, educated her for a high station in life, and on her marriage presented her with a proper dowry. He lived to hear her children tisp their gratitude.

THE NEW ENGLAND DINNER IN NEW YORK.—One toast was "The Sister Benevolent Societies."

To this a keen Irishman replied with a joke, which we're afraid is not a joke.

Mr. Reymur, of the St. Patrick's Society, responded in one of his admirable little speeches, delivered in the rich and racy patois of his country. He said, "Mr. President, and gentleman of St. Jonathan, (laughter,) I beg pardon, the New England Society; I have heard a great deal of Plymouth Rock, which I am, sorry to say I have never seen. I hope, however, one day to make a pilgrimage to it." (Cheers.) We have also a famous rock or stone in Ireland, which we call the "Blarney Stone."

(Laughter.) But, like his Honor, the Mayor, I don't much like long speeches. So, to come at once to a close, let me give you—

"Plymouth Rock—the Blarney Stone of New England." (Roars of laughter, for several minutes.)—Boston Chronicle.

ANECDOTE OF CYRUS BUTLER.—Witty Rebuke of Millerism.—We were much amused, a few days ago by an anecdote related to us by a gentleman from Providence of Cyrus Butler, one of the wealthiest citizens of Rhode Island, who has lately made a munificent donation of forty thousand dollars towards the establishment of an insane asylum. It appears that a few weeks ago some Millerites called upon Mr. B., to admonish him of the approaching end of the world on the 23d of October, and of the importance of his making a good use of his wealth before it should all be consumed in the general conflagration.

After listening patiently, Mr. B. replied, "Well, gentleman, I am much obliged to you for your good intentions, and the effect of your arguments has been to convince me that I have made the best possible use of it, at least a portion of my property, in founding an Asylum for the Insane—and you are perfectly welcome to the benefit of it. Good morning gentlemen."

A KING'S CASH BOX.—The London Morning Chronicle notices a superb money box, made by one of the most celebrated artificers in the Great Metropolis, and completed for the use of his sable Majesty, the King of Ashantee. It is made of solid silver, and weighs two hundred and seventy-six ounces, the size being seventeen inches deep. The ornaments and chasing, consisting chiefly of lions, tigers, and elephant's heads, are of the richest description; and the box, which is intended to hold his Majesty's gold dust, is secured by one of the detector locks, having a massive gold key. It will no doubt inspire the subjects of his Majesty, with a proper idea of foreign manufactures.

WET FEET.—Some writer remarks that "we often see people tramping about in the mud, with leather soaked through, and how often do such people when they return home, sit down by the fire-side and permit them to dry, without either changing their stockings or shoes. Can we then wonder at the coughing and rheumatism and inflammation, which enable the doctors to ride in their carriages? Wet feet most commonly produce affections of throat and lungs; and when such diseases have taken place "the house is on fire," danger is not far off; therefore let us entreat our readers, no matter how healthy, to guard against wet feet."

A GOOD IDEA.—In what was formerly the Bankrupts' Hall, at Amsterdam, was a group which might, perhaps, be usefully exhibited in America. Above is a strong money-chest burst open, and rats clambering in and out; a man is falling headlong below it; and farther down are sculptured the relics of sumptuous feasts. The fellow fell by living too fast. On the right is a figure of Justice, with sword and scales. It would shake the nerves of the grandest of our defaulters to stand his trial amid such emblems as these, if an inexorable Dutch judge were on the bench before him.—Dr. Durbin's Observations in Europe.

TRUTH AND METAPHYSICS.—The study of Metaphysics has this advantage, at least—it promotes a certain integrity and uprightness of understanding, which is a cure for the spirit of lying. He who has devoted himself to the discovery of truth, feels neither pride nor pleasure in the invention of falsehood, and cannot condescend to any such paltry expedient. If you find a person given to vulgar shifts and rodomontade, and who at the same time tells you he is a metaphysician, do not believe him.

TO PRESERVE HAMS OR OTHER SMOKED MEAT THROUGH THE SUMMER.—Wrap up the meat in tow of either flax or hemp, after shaking out the loose shives, and pack it in a barrel, taking care that there be next the barrel and between the meat a thick layer of tow, packed in as close as possible; then set it away in a dry cellar or upper room. It is enough that the barrel be sufficient to keep the mice out, as no fly or insect will enter the tow.

Persons who are much excited in the pursuit of gold, may be said to have the yellow fever.

Wright's Vegetable Indian Pills.

IT, during during the continuance of Storms and Floods, the channels of our STORMY RIVERS become so obstructed as to afford an insufficient outlet for the superabundant waters, we can expect nothing less than that the surrounding country will be OVERWHELMED WITH THE FLOOD. In a like manner with the human body—if the Skin, Kidneys, and Bowels, (the natural outlets for USELESS AND CORRUPT HUMORS) become so obstructed as to fail in affording a full discharge of those impurities which are in all cases

THE CAUSE OF SICKNESS: we surely can expect no other results than that the whole frame will sooner or later be OVERWHELMED WITH DISEASE. As in the first place, if we would prevent an inundation we must remove all obstructions, to the free discharge of the superabundant waters. So, in the second place, if we would prevent and cure disease, we must open and keep open, all the Natural Drains of the body.

WRIGHT'S INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS, Of the North American College of Health, will be found one of the best if not the very BEST MEDICINE IN THE WORLD for carrying out this beautiful and simple theory; because they completely cleanse the Stomach and Bowels from all Bileous Humors and other impurities, and at the same time promote a healthy discharge from the Lungs, Skin, and Kidneys; consequently, as all the Natural Drains are opened, Disease of every name is literally driven from the Body.

Caution.—As the great popularity and consequent great demand for Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills has raised up a host of counterfeiters, country agents and storekeepers will be on their guard against the many impostors who are travelling about the country selling to the unsuspecting a spurious article for the genuine.

It should be remembered that all authorized agents are provided a Certificate of Agency, signed by WILLIAM WRIGHT, Vice President of the N. A. College of Health. Consequently, those who offer Indian Vegetable Pills, and cannot show a Certificate, as above described, will be known as impostors.

The following highly respectable Storekeepers have been appointed Agents for the sale of WRIGHT'S INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS, and of whom it is confidently believed the genuine medicine can with certainty be obtained: BRADFORD COUNTY, PA.

- J. D. & E. D. Montanye, Towanda. D. Brink, P.M., Hornbrook. S. W. & D. F. Pomeroy, Troy. Lyman Durfee, Smithfield. J. J. & C. Warford, Monroeton. Wm. Gibson, Ulster. Ulysses Moody, Asylum. John Horton Jr., Terrytown. Corryell & Gee, Burlington corners. Benjamin Cooledge, Canton. L. S. Ellsworth & Co., Athens. Allen & Storey, Sheshequin. Guy Tracy, Milan. A. R. Soper, Columbia Falls. Offices devoted exclusively to the sale of the medicine wholesale and retail, 223 Greenwich street, New York, No. 198 Trenton street, Boston, and 169 Race street, Philadelphia. BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.—The public are respectfully informed that medicine purporting to be Indian Pills, made by one V. O. Falck, are not the genuine Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills. The only security against imposture is to purchase from the regular advertised agents, and in all cases be particular to ask for Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills. (not 6m)

IMPORTANT INFORMATION.

IT is a prevailing opinion among the enlightened Physicians of our country, that Cancer is a mass of living animalcules, which have taken up their abode in the human system. No matter how small, or how low in the scale of animated nature, the individual composing Cancer may be, they were so tenacious of existence, that the knife or the most powerful caustic, are the only means by which they can be removed.

When permitted to remain, they never fail to multiply and spread to neighboring parts, committing the most frightful deprivations, until death comes to the relief of their victim. Worms in children, may be considered somewhat analogous. If they are less fatal, they are infinitely more common; and if suffered to remain, produce consequences scarcely less alarming. If the testimony of medical writers is to be relied upon, they often produce mania, apoplexy, epilepsy, palsy, convulsions and many other diseases equally dangerous, and often fatal. But here the parallel stops, Cancer being one of the most obdurate diseases, with which physicians have to contend, while worms are easily dislodged by proper remedies.

MERRICK'S VERMIFUGE, has proved one of the most valuable medicines ever offered to the public for destroying worms in children. Hundreds of cases might be enumerated, where it has produced the happiest results. It is a syrup, and therefore easily administered to children. Price 25 cents per bottle.

THE POCAHONTAS PILL. Is the present age, when "Patent Medicines" are so numerous, and their properties so unblushingly eulogized by their respective proprietors, it becomes necessary for the public (to guard against imposition) to require some authentic evidence of their sanative properties. The Pocahontas Pill is not offered as an antidote for all the diseases to which flesh is heir. We merely purpose to show, by the successive publication of certificates, voluntarily offered, that their present popularity is well founded; and that as a purgative medicine, they have proved pre-eminently beneficial. These Pills are compounded according to the rules of medical science, are entirely vegetable, and may be safely given to cleanse the stomach, purify the blood, remove inflammation, and correct the morbid secretions, without regard to age, sex or condition.

Certificate of Mr. Wm. Follmer, of Turbet, Northumberland county, Pa., says—"For some years past, I have been suffering from a severe and alarming disease of the liver. Several physicians had prescribed for me, and I had taken without any benefit. About twelve months ago, I began using the Pocahontas Pills, and am happy to say, that in a few weeks I found my disease entirely removed; since which I have been free from cough and pain in the side, and consider my malady radically cured." Price 25 cents per box. Agents for the sale of the above medicine in Bradford County: A. D. Montanye, Towanda; J. J. & C. Warford, Monroeton; A. Dewing, Warrenham; Guy Tracy, Milan; George A. Perkins, Athens; Wm. Gibson, Ulster. 12-66
