Mrs. Caudle's Certain Lectures

Mr. Caudle has been at a tavern with a friend.

A pretty time of night to come to bed, Mr. Caudle. Ugh! As cold too, as any ice. Enough to give any woman her death, I'm sure.

"I wonder who'll be so ready to give you a supper when you want one; for want one you will, unless you change your plans. Don't tell me, I know I'm right."

"No indeed, he couldn't be content with my pickled cabbage—and I should like to know who makes better—but the must have walnuts. And you too, like a fool—now, don't you think to stop me, Mr. Caudle; a poor woman may be trampled to death, and never say a word—ou, too, like a fool—I wonder who'd do it for you—to insist upon the girl going for pickled walnuts. And in such a night too! With snow upon the ground. Yes, you're a man of fine feelings, you are, Mr. Caudle! but the world doesn't know you as I know you—fine feelings, indeed! to send the poor girl out, when I told you and told your friend, too—a pretty brute he is, I'm sure—that the poor girl had got a cold and chilblains on her toes. But I know what will be the end of that; she'll be laid up, and we shall have a nice doctor's bill. And you'll pay it, I can tell you—for I won't."

"Oh! yes, that's all very easy, I'm sure I might wish it. Don't swear in that dreadful way! Ain't you afraid that the bed will open and swallow you?—And don't swing about in that way!—That will do no good. That won't bring back the leg of pork—and the brandy you've poured down both your throats. Oh, I know it! I'm sure of it. I only recollected it when I'd got into bed—and if it hadn't been so cold, you'd have seen me down stairs again. I can tell you—I recollected it, and a pretty two hours I've passed, that I left the key in the cupboard—and I knew it—I could see by the manner of you, when you came into the room—I know you've got at the other bottle. However, there's one comfort; you told me to send for the best brandy—the very best—for your other friend, who called last Wednesday. Ha! ha! It was British—the cheapest. Ha! ha! and nice and ill I hope the pair of you will be to-morrow."

"There's only the bare bone of the leg of pork: but you'll get nothing else for dinner, I can tell you. It's a dreadful thing that the poor children should go without—but, if they have such a father, they, poor things, must suffer for it."

"Nearly a whole leg of pork and a pint of brandy! A pint of brandy and a leg of pork. A leg of leg—leg—pint—"

And mumbling the syllables, says Mr. Caudle's MS., she went to sleep.

"OLD SCRATCH."—SATAN.—This old gentleman, although considered rather sharp than otherwise, has been served some very acute tricks. Among the rest, we have heard of a poor cobbler who made a league with him, and after enjoying every earthly blessing, he was wated upon by his brimstone majesty, who demanded his soul. The cobbler took a sharp knife, and ripping off the sole of his shoe, threw it at the feet of his illustrious guest.

Interesting Facts

Why have whites veils a tendency to promote sun burnt and freckles? Because they increase the power of the sun's light.

Why does a bonnet covering keep a man warm in winter, and ice from melting in the summer? Because it both prevents the passage of heat from the man and to the ice.

Why does a person with a cold in the head, catch from the eyes and nose experience more relief on applying to the face a linen or cambric handkerchief than that made of cotton? Because the linen, by conducting readily absorbs the heat and diminishes the inflammation, while, the latter by refusing to give passage to the heat; increases the temperature and the pain.

Why are loose clothing warmer than such as fits close? Because the quantity of imperfectly conducted air thus confined around the body, resists the escape of the animal heat.

Journeyman Printers

From high to low, they are the same careless; well informed, good hearted men—knowing how to act better than they do. Nothing at times, yet everything if occasion requires it: we have one and the same individual of the craft, a minister in Carolina, a boatman in the Erie canals, a sheriff in Ohio, a sailing master on board a privateer, a fiddler in New Orleans, a dandy in Broadway, N. York, a pressman in a garret printing office, and an editor of a country newspaper.

Hints to Young Men

Always have a book within your reach, which you may catch up at your odd minutes.

Resolve to edge in a little reading every day, if it is but a single sentence. If you can gain fifteen minutes a day, it will be felt at the end of the year.

Regulate your thoughts when not at study. A man is thinking even while at work. Why may he not be thinking about something that is useful.

Remember that most of the matchless effusions of Robert Burns were conceived while he was toiling after the plough.

Every thing that tends to emancipate us from external restraints, without adding to our own power of self-government, is mischievous.

Keep out of bad company, for when the devil fires into a flock, he will hit somebody.

ORIGIN OF FASHION.—Grandpa, where do people get the fashions from? "Why from Boston."

"Well, where do the Boston folks get them from?" "From England."

"And where does the English get them?" "From France."

"And where do the France get them?" "Why right strait from h—! There now stop your noise."

A TEXT.—If the clergy should be in want of a text, any time within twelve months, they can do no better than to take it from the book of Hezekiah—Hezekiah Niles we mean—in these words: "Pay the PRINTER, for no man labors so hard to enlighten his fellow creatures. He works day and night, and often gets more kicks than cop pers!"

SYMPATHY.—A good deacon making an official visit to a dying neighbor, who was very churlish, and universally an unpopular man, put the usual question. "Are you willing to go my friend?" "Oh yes, said the sick man I am."

"Well," said the simple minded deacon "I am glad you are, for all the neighbors are willing!"

THE ENGLISH OF IT.—A sporting landlord on the Surrey side of the water, was not long ago asked the meaning of Foigh a-Ballagh:

"It's the Irish for 'Clear the way,' isn't it?" cries the enquirer.

"I know nothing about the Irish," replied Boniface, bitterly, "but the English of it is clear the pockets."

POTATOES.—It is stated that if potatoes are sprinkled with slacked lime as soon as they are cut for seed, and shovelled over it, then immediately planted, it will prevent them from rot either in the ground or in the cellar.

HONEY.—A small portion of honey mixed with lukewarm water, and allowed to cool, makes an excellent wash for sun-burns and chilblains.

ADVERSITY.—When adversity assails you, sink not under it—struggle the more.

TRUTH is mighty and will prevail, as the man said when he knocked his wife down with the Bible.

Wright's Vegetable Indian Pills.

IF, during the continuance of Storms and Floods, the channels of our RIVERS become so obstructed as to afford an insufficient outlet for the superabundant waters, we can expect nothing less than that the surrounding country will be OVERWHELMED WITH THE FLOOD. In a like manner with the human body—if the Skin, Kidneys, and Bowels, (the natural outlets for USELESS AND CORRUPT HUMORS) become so obstructed as to fail in affording a full discharge of those impurities which are in all cases

THE CAUSE OF SICKNESS: we surely can expect no other results than that the whole frame will sooner or later be OVERWHELMED WITH DISEASE. As in the first place, if we would prevent an inundation we must remove all obstructions, to the free discharge of the superabundant waters. So, in the second place, if we would prevent and cure disease, we must open and keep open, all the Natural Drains of the body.

WRIGHT'S INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS, Of the North American College of Health, will be found one of the best if not the very BEST MEDICINE IN THE WORLD for carrying out this beautiful and simple theory; because they completely cleanse the Stomach and Bowels from all Bileous Humors and other impurities, and at the same time promote a healthy discharge from the Lungs, Skin, and Kidneys; consequently, as all the Natural Drains are opened.

Disease of every name is literally driven from the Body.

Caution.—As the great popularity and consequent great demand for Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills has raised up a host of counterfeiters, country agents and storekeepers will be on their guard against the many impostors who are travelling about the country selling to the unsuspecting a spurious article for the genuine. It should be remembered that all authorized agents are provided a Certificate of Agency, signed by WILLIAM WRIGHT, Vice President of the N. A. College of Health. Consequently, those who offer Indian Vegetable Pills and cannot show a Certificate, as above described, will be known as impostors.

The following highly respectable Storekeepers have been appointed Agents for the sale of WRIGHT'S INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS, and of whom it is confidently believed the genuine medicine can with certainty be obtained: BRADFORD COUNTY, PA.

J. D. & E. D. Montanye, Towanda. D. Brink, P. M., Hornbrook. S. W. & D. F. Pomeroy, Troy. Lyman Durley, Smithfield. J. J. & C. Warford, Monroeton. Wm. Gibson, Ulster. Ulysses Moody, Asylum. John Horton Jr., Ferrytown. Coryell & Coe, Burlington corners. Benjamin Coakley, Canton. L. S. Ellisworth & Co., Athens. Allen & Store, Shebequin. Guy Tracy, Milan. A. R. Soper, Columbia Plains.

Agents devoted exclusively to the sale of the medicine wholesale and retail, 228 Greenwiche street, New York, No. 198 Tremont street, Boston, and 169 Race street, Philadelphia.

Beware of Counterfeits.—The public are respectfully informed that medicine purporting to be Indian Pills, made by one V. O. Falck, are not the genuine Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills.

The only security against imposition is to purchase from the regular advertised agents, and in all cases be particular to ask for Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills. [no. 6m]
