Mrs. Candle's Curtain Lectures.

Mr. Caudle has lent a friend the family Umbrella-Hrs. Candle lectures thereon.

"Bah! That's the third umbrella gone since Christmas. What were you to do? Why let him go home in the rain to be sure. I'm very certain there is nothing about him that could spoil. Take cold, indeed! He doesn't look like one of the sort to take cold. Besides, he had better taken cold than hear the rain? And as I'm alive, if it aint St. Swithin's Day! Do you hear it against the windows? Nonsense: you don't impose upon me. You can't be asleep with such a shower as that. Do you hear it, say? Well you do hear it. Well, that's a pretty flood, I think, to last six weeks; and no stirring all the time out of the house .-Pooh! don't think me a fool, Mr. Caudle. Don't insult me. He return the umbrella! Any body would think you were born yesterday. As if any body ever did return an umbrella! Theredo you hear it? Worse and worse .-Cats and dogs, and for six weeks-always six weeks. And no umbrella.

"I should like to know how the children are to get to school to-morrow. They shan't go through such weather, I'm determined. No; they stop at home and never learn anything-the blessed creatures !--sooner than go and get wet. And when they grow up, I wonder who they'll have to thank for knowing nothing-who, indeed, but for their own children ought never to be

"But I know why you lent the umbrella. Oh, yes ; you know very well: I was going out to tea, at dear mother's to-morrow,-you knew that; and you did it on purpose. Don't tell me; you hate me to go there, and take every mean advantage to hinder me. But don't you think it, Mr. Caudle. No, sir; if it comes down in buckets full, nice high notions at that club of yours! A cab, indeed! Cost me me sixteeneightpence-for there's back again !-Cabs, indeed! I should like to know go on as you do; throwing away your property, and beggaring your children -buying umbrellas.

"Do you hear the rain, Mr. Caudle? I say, do you hear it? But I don't care-I'll go to mother's to morrow; I will; and what's more, I'll walk every step of the way,-and you know that will give me my death. Don't call me a foolish woman-its you that's the foo'ish man. You know I can't wear clogs; and with no umbrella, the wet is sure to give me a cold-it always does. But what do you care for that? other stock, and it is important to be Nothing at all. It will teach you to lend your umbrella again. I shouldn't wonder if I caught my death; yes: and that's what you lent the umbrella for. Of course!

" Nice clothes I shall get, too, trapesing through weather like this. My fore their closing eyes; and, thus canogown and bonnet will be spoilt, quite. Needn't wear them then? Indeed Mr. Hearts beat thickly and fastly in sym-Caudle, I shall wear 'em. No, sir, I'm not going out a dowdy to please vou or any body else. Gracious knows! it isn't often I step over the threshold; indeed, I might as well be a slave at once.-better, I should say. But when I go out, Mr. Caudle, I choose to go as a lady. Oh-that rain-if it isn't enough to break the windows.

" Ugh! I do look forward with dread for to-morrow! How I'm to go to which never hath more scope, or more mother's I'm sure I can't tell. But if indulgence, than under tyrants. Hence may call on him in this branch of business. I die, I'll do it. No, sir; I won't bor- it is, that tyrants are not often offended row an umbrella. The Idolatry of Wealth.

This insane and insatiable passion for accumulation, ever ready, when circumstances favor, to seize upon the public mind, is that love of " money is the root of all evil," that " covetousness which is idolatry." It springs from an undue, an Idolatrous estimate of the value of property. Many are feeling that nothingnothing will do them, or their children. but wealth; not a good character, nor well trained and well exerted faculties, not virtue, not the hope of heaven-nothing but wealth. It is their god, and the god of their families. Their sons are growing up to the worship of it, and to an equally baneful reliance upon it their father? People who can't feel for the future; they are rushing into expenses, which the divided property of their father's house will not enable them to sustain; and they are preparing to be in turn and from necessity, slaves to the same idol. How truly it is written "that they that will be rich, fall into many temptations and a snare, and fall into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition!' There is no need that they should be rich, but they will be rich. All the no-I go all the more. No: and I won't blest functions of life may be discharged have a cab. Where do you think the without wealth, all its highest honors obmoney is to come from? You've got tained, all its purest pleasures enjoyed! yet I repeat it nothing-nothing will do but wealth. Disappoint a man of thispence at least-sixteenpence!-two and and he mourns as if the highest end of life were defeated. Strip him of this, and he is gone, all is gone. Strip him who's to pay for 'em? I shan't pay of this, and I shall point to no unheard for 'em, and I know you can't if you of experience, when I say, he had rather die than live.

Weight's Vegetable Indian Pills.

F, during during the continuance of Storms and Floods, the channels of

OUR MIGHTY RIVERS become so obstructed as to afford an iusufficien outlet for the superabundant waters, we can expect nothing less than that the surrounding country will be ...

OVERWILLNED WITH THE FLOOP. In a like manner with the human body-if the Skin, Kidneys, and Bowels, (the natural outlets for USELESS AND CORRUPT HUMORS) com so obstructed as to fail in affording fall discharge of those impurities which are in

THE CAUSE OF SICKNESS : we surely can expect no other results than that the whole frame will sooner or later be OVERWHELMED WITH DISEASE. As in the first place, if we would prevent an inundation we must remove all obstructions, to the free discharge of the superabundant waters. So, in the second place, if we would prevent and cure disease, we must open and keep open, all the Natural Drains of the body.

WRIGHT'S INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS, Of the North American College of Health, will be found one of the best if not the very BEST MEDICINE IN THE WORLD for carrying out this beautiful and simple theory; because they completely clense the Stomach and Bowels from all Billious Humors and other impurity, and at the same time promote a healthy discharge from the Lungs, Skin, and Kidneys; consequently, as all the Natura Drains are opened,

Disease of every name is literally driven from the Body.

Caution—As the great popularity and consequent great demand for Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills has raised up a host of cuontor feiters, country agents and storekeepers will be on their guard against the many imposters who are travelling about the country selling to the unsuspecting a spurious article for the genuine. It should be remembered that all authorized agents are provided a Certificate of Agency, signed by WILLIAM WRIGHT, Vice President of the N. A. College of Health. Consequently, those who offer Indian Vegetable Pills, and cannot show a Certificate, as above described will be known as imposters.

The following highly respectable Store-keepers have been appointed Agents for the sale

WRIGHT'S INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS, and of whom it is confidently believed the genuine medicine can with certainty be obtained: BRADFORD COUNTY, PA.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS .- The public are respectfully informed that medicine purporting to be Indian Pills, made by one V. O. Falch, are not the genuine Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills.

The only security against imposition is to purchase from the regular advertised agents, and in all cases be particular to ask for Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills.
