Another fearful Conflagration in Quebec.

The northern mail brings us an account of nother dreadful fire in Quebec, which has destroyed a third of the city, making two conflagrations in that city, in a few weeks, whereby more than half the city is destroyed. The last fire occured on Sunday, the 28th ult. It was first discovered about 11 o'clock in the night, in the back premises of a Notary, Mr. Texocier, in St. John's Suburbs, and spread with unrelenting fury till 9 the next morning, destroying thirteen hundred dwellings and rendering house less at least six thousand persons, and this in addition to the numbers deprived of a home by the previous conflagration. About thirty streets are in ruins, and the amount of insurances effected is thus stated :- Canada Office £40,000. Quebec Office £15,200, Montreal do. £3,500, Phonix do. £1,075. The fire was stayed sev eral times by the blowing up of houses under the superintendence of the military, who were of the greatest service. The portion destroyed-by this last fire consists of nearly the whole of St. John and part of St. Lewis suburbs, from St. John's Gate and the northwest angle of the walls, along the Caleau St. Genevieve, nearly to the Tower No. 4, and up to a couple of streets below St. Lewis Road. Fortunately, the loss of life has not been very great. One man was killed by the blasting of a house, by his own imprudence. Two others were redured to a shapeless mass of cinders. Four or five persons died on the 30th; two children who were removed while sick with fever, and two grown persons, who, it is said, died from the ef-

A meeting of the General Committee of Relief, appointed by the citizens after the fire of the 28th of May, met yesterday at one o'clock, and ordered distribution of provisions, &c., to the destitute. All public buildings were thrown open to the sufferers, and tents were pitched to the west of the citadel, but many persons remained with their effects along the walls of the town and in the fields. Numbers were sent for by their relations, friends and acquaintances in the surrounding parishes.

The scene of desolation, distress and affliction and the extent of the calamity, are nearly as great as after the former conflagration; the value of property destroyed probably greater. The population of St. John Suburbs was thousand, and the population of St. Rochs had mostly found refuge in St. John Sub-

Quebec is now reduced to the Upper Town within the walls, and the lower Town from the St. Charles, below Hope Gate to Cape Blanc, on the St. Lawrence, the extent which it occupied, but then more sparsely buil after the destruction of the Suburbs during the siege of 1775. The remaining houses in the Suburbs are about as many as there were half a century ago. We have seen them spread out so as to contain about twenty-four thousand inhabitants. many of them wealthy, most of them proprietors of their dwellings, and living comfortably. This was the work of persevering industry and general good conduct; and we trust it will be

There is one truth which the recent misfortunes must have strongly impressed upon the minds of all; it is that every inhabitant has a direct interest in the good and careful conduct of every individual who lives in or Afrequents that same city, particularly in regard to tire.

Quebec formerly might be considered fortunate in exemption from great fires. The total of the fires which have happened during the last seventy years, do not equal one of those occured within a month, and it is remarkable-that no very extensive fire ever before occured in the Suburbs.

Stories approaching to the supernatural have Stories approaching to the supernatural have been in circulation. Several people have declared that they saw the images of angels in the Elison W. air, surrounded by flames, hovering over the devoted Suburb. Singular as this may appear, credence may be placed in the following facts, the probable cause of the story: The air, of course, was highly rarified, and images of objects below-the houses, crosses of steeples. CRIME IN COLUMBIA COUNTY, N. 1. -Thomas Morgan, a Sheriff's officer in Columbia county, or perhaps a town constable, was ried at Hudson last week, on an indictment chargng him with a refusal to aid Deputy Sheriff Sedgwick in the execution of a warrant for the dispossession of a refractory tenant. Morgan imself had a warrant against Sedgwick, and had arrested him, but suspended the arrest, at the instance of Sedgwick, until the latter could get through his own job. Sedgwick met with get through his own job. Sedgwick met with some resistance, and demanded aid from Morgan, which the latter did not render. While returning to Hudson, Sedgwick and his party were fired on several times, and Sedgwick was the public generally, that we are this day receiving from the city of New York a splendid addition to our former stock of goods, which have been pure wounded; an attempt was made to show hat Morgan was co-operating with the men who fired, but this was rather disproved than esabfired, but this was rather disproved than esabished.
