

James Buchanan

We find the following tribute to our distinguished Pennsylvania statesman, in the Trenton Emporium...

his friends must seek new leaders, for the Democracy never will suffer the crime to be soiled by the aspirations of a political Judge...

When the electoral college of Pennsylvania recommended Mr. Buchanan to Col. Polk, he Secretary of State, he believed, undoubtedly, that it was to be permanent...

We understand that a gentleman expresses great indignation that we should have the temerity, after election is over, to refer to him and his course during the campaign...

In the Senate of the United States within the last few years, the Democratic party has had four statesmen of the first class...

J. W. FORNEY.—This gentleman having sometime since, accepted an appointment to a station in Philadelphia, under the General Government...

He not only wields a ready pen, but in the last Presidential campaign, he exhibited talents of a high order as a popular speaker...

Mr. Buchanan is a native of a neighboring state. He was bred a lawyer, worked hard at his profession, and soon acquired a handsome fortune...

RECENT ELECTIONS.—The Whigs have elected their Governor in the State of Georgia by a small majority, and have a majority in the House of Representatives...

MAJORITY FOR THE WHIGS.—Anderson's majority for Governor over all opposition is about 200. The Senate will stand 29 Democrats, to 3 Whigs...

CONGRESS.—Of the town elections as far as heard from, the Democrats have carried 33, and the Federalists 27. Democratic net gain, 4. The New Haven Herald says this affords the most favorable indications of the Democratic success at the next State election...

REMOVAL.—The question of removing the county seat of Columbia County from Danville to Bloomsburg, was determined at the late election by a vote of the people, and was settled in favor of Bloomsburg...

TRANSMIGRATING DATE.—We are rejoiced to see that Gov. SPOONER has issued his official proclamation for the holding a day of thanksgiving and praise, throughout the Commonwealth, Thursday the 27th of November...

REVENUE.—Cassius M. Clay has recommended the publication of his paper, the True American, at Cincinnati. The first number contains a long address, which is an appeal to the people of Kentucky, against the act of the mob at Lexington, in regard to his press...

PENNSYLVANIA LEGISLATURE.—The Democratic majority in the House is 34, in the Senate 3. On joint ballot, 37. Last year the Democratic on joint ballot, was 31.

GOOD NEWS FOR FARMERS.—The recent intelligence from Europe has caused a considerable rise in bread stuff. Flour is selling in New York, at from $5 37 to $5 50. Wheat at 10 to 11 1/2.

THE VOTE.—In Dauphin County the vote for Wm. D. Boas, the democratic candidate, and J. W. Forney, the whig candidate for the office of Prothonotary, is a tie...

CONNECTION.—An error crept into the official return of the election in this county, in our last paper. Our figures made the vote of Monroe township 189 for Mr. Powell for Prothonotary. It should read 106.

Arrival of the Steamship Hibernia. The Hibernia was telegraphed from the station of the Merchants' Exchange, Boston, on Sunday morning, at 45 minutes past 6 o'clock, at which time she was 20 miles east of the lower station, and 30 miles from Boston. She arrived at her wharf in East Boston at 9 o'clock, bringing seven days' later news from Europe, and making her passage in fifteen days. She sailed from Liverpool on the 4th inst. The Hibernia brought out 87 passengers.

Washington Irving had not arrived at Paris on the 30th Sept.

The corn market continues firm, and the fine weather which prevailed last week at the sailing of the steamship, having been followed by repeated and heavy falls of rain, the market in the early part of the present week, acquired additional firmness, and continued so, with a slight drawback, at the present time.

The cotton market, which was dull at the sailing of the Great Britain, still continues in an inactive state. The quotations on most descriptions, except Sea Islands, have receded 1-8d per lb., and at the time of writing the market is heavy, with a downward tendency.

The rate of interest in England is rising, in consequence of the scarcity of money, superinduced by railway speculation. Some of the large discount houses decline to take any more bills at an interest of less than three per cent. English stocks, which had receded about 1 per cent., recovered yesterday their former prices, and console closed at 98 1-8 for money, and 98 1/2 for account. Exchequer bills stand at 45s. to 47s. premium.

The settlement in the share market has passed over tolerably well, speculation has taken a new bound, and the new announcements are grasped at with amazing avidity. There has been little doing in the colonial lines, the rage being continued to the new projects in the British Islands.

The accounts received from the manufacturing districts, since the sailing of the Great Britain, are of a satisfactory nature. In the great woollen marts of Leeds and Huddersfield, the stock of cloths on hand is somewhat small; manufacturers were busily employed, especially in the getting out of goods for the winter season. Prices seem likely to advance.

The harvest.—The reports which have reached us since our last, respecting the progress made with the harvest in the north, are not of a character to allay the excitement previously felt on the subject. The heavy rain which fell up to the 21st instant was succeeded by dry but unusually cold weather. Sharp frosts were experienced on the nights of the 22d and 23d inst., and though the temperature has since risen, the shift of wind to the southward threatens a return of wet.

IRELAND.—The Tipperary Banquet.—At the late banquet, given to O'Connell by the Repealers of Tipperary, that gentleman, in the course of a long speech, made the following observations:—"Let the cycle but come round for England, and it is coming fast; Ireland will have her own again, and England will be obliged to ask for that alliance which we are now ready to make—an alliance of separate States under the one monarch, with our own Parliament to protect us, as the sole source of legislation for the country. Every opposition must shrink before the might and majesty of Ireland. Repeal will give to Ireland the waters of life pure and unalloyed, and unmixed with mephitic vapors. They shall be administered by a resident Parliament acting for the people—protecting and encouraging the industry of the land, and giving peace, liberty and prosperity to old Ireland." O'Connell has emerged from his mountain home, and is again on the wing. He has been lecturing a "Monster Demonstration" at Cashel, and his appearance at the Repeal Association has given a new impetus to the rent.

THE "SUGAR COATED INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS," TRIUMPHANT. AN OBSTINATE CASE. Baltimore, Feb. 13th, 1845. Dr. H. W. Andrews: Sir.—The box of Dr. Smith's "Sugar Coated Indian Vegetable Pills" I purchased of you some months past, I found in my application to my son (of about fifteen years of age) the most happy effects on his system. He had been for some years very delicate in health, and very much subject to Fever and Chills, so much so as to create alarm for his future health, and for two or three years we had to keep him from school most of the time. I am now frank to acknowledge the complete restoration of his health, and a fair prospect of its permanent enjoyment.

The Cincinnati arrived at Aransas bay, from Charleston, on the 25th ult., with two companies of artillery. The ship Aransas had arrived with the 8th regiment of infantry. The ship landed her troops and departed the same day. General Worth, the commander, arrived at Aransas by the Cincinnati. The ship Hermann, with Col. Ringgold's corps of artillery, had also arrived. The United States sloop-of-war Lexington, with seven companies of artillery, from New York, was in sight off Aransas, when the Cincinnati left. The barque Bachelor, from Norfolk, with two companies of artillery, arrived a few days before.

There is no confirmation of the news, as stated by us yesterday, that the army was about moving on the Rio Grande. The Weekly News informs us that the dragons will go up the Nueces for their winter quarters, and perhaps some of the infantry; a majority of the army will remain at Corpus Christi.

There are a number of vessels at Aransas, from New York, Baltimore, N. Orleans, and other parts of the United States. Lumber is in great demand at Corpus Christi; all sorts and kinds of merchandise find a ready sale. Potatoes are in great demand; sweet potatoes are worth $1.75 per bushel.

There are at this time a great many Mexican horses and mules at Corpus Christi, and large numbers are daily arriving. General Taylor has spies constantly ranging the country to the Rio Grande, and is promptly informed of every movement of any importance.

The Gulf squadron is now cruising to the southward, along the Mexican coast. General Taylor has despatched Capt. Fulton of the dragons, with about forty men, accompanied by the lieutenant of engineers, to examine the country above, on the west bank of the Nueces, and on the Agua Dulce, in order to select a suitable place for the encampment. The troops are in excellent health and spirits.

The following extract from a letter from Matamoros shows the state of feeling there: "MATAMOROS, Sept. 18, 1845. "Our latest accounts from the capital are up to the 30th August, and state that it is generally believed that the pending question relative to the annexation of Texas will not lead to a war between Mexico and the United States. In the first place, the first outbreak of the passions has subsided; and now the exhausted state of the Mexican treasury, and the general apathy of the people, are two great impediments. We confidently believe that no war will result; and the proof of it is, that no Mexican troops have as yet moved towards this frontier."
