HAVE the pleasure of announcing to the public, that their unprecedented heavy sales the fall stock of WINTER GOODS, which they are now receiving and offering for cash at wholesale or retail, at much lower prices than they can be found at any other store in Towanda. Cash purchasers of goods can secure the following advantages by calling at our store:—First—The procuring of their goods at the least possible advance from the manufacturers' and importers' prices, as our goods are purchased from first hands, at net cash prices.

Second—Relief from the extra prices, which merchants who give credit must charge to cover losses by bad debts, collecting fees, &c.

Our stock is very heavy, embracing almost everything in the line of Dry Goods, Groceries, (liquors excepted), such as:—Clothing, Hats, Caps, Boots and Shoes, Saddlery Hardware, Carriage Trimmings, &c. And also our stock of goods is much the heaviest in town, they were purchased so very low that they did not cost $25,000, or even $15,000, and our customers can have the benefit of our advantageous purchases, as our motto is, "Small profits and quick sales." Nov. 28, 1845.

LARGE NEW STORE

At Monroe Corners, with full Winter's Supplies, AT LOWEST PRICES.

ROBERTS FOWLER has just filled, by the last trip of the boats for the season, his large and commodious new store-house with a complete and well-assorted lot of Winter Goods, selected carefully by himself in the New York and Philadelphia markets to suit the season, with a special view to the taste and wants of his neighborhood.

He respectfully offers an examination of his extensive stock—which he offers at an invariable cash price—comprising, generally,

Cloths, Caps, Hats, Hosiery, Hardware, Nails and Cutlery, Crockery, Stoneware, Tinware, Etc., Etc., Etc., Stationery, Staple and Fancy Dry Goods, Drugs and Dye Stuffs, De Laines, Alpacaes, Prints, Shawls, Sheetings, Flannels, &c., &c.

In short, every variety of goods required in this market, of the latest styles and of the best qualities according to prices, which shall be sold as low as can be afforded at any other establishment intended for permanent business. Full as his store is, he has room enough to trade in and abundance of light to test the quality of his goods.

LUMBERMEN, in exchange for Boards or Shingles shall have all articles at cash prices, for he has no others; and they will find, at the same rates, in addition to his general assortment, a constant supply of GRAIN, FLOUR, FISH, POKE, SALT, and all the necessaries as well as the conveniences of life.

FARMERS, who wish to test the quality of their goods, and as far as an exchange made for goods as by any dealer in the county.

Persons going to the mine for COAL, can save hauling by leaving their loading here, (several miles this side), at the coal-pits, and taking an order on the mines, which, under his arrangement, will be otherwise to their mutual advantage, by securing to purchase coal at the most favorable prices, and at the same time, and saving to the miners the cost of bringing surplus produce back to market.

R. F. has heard of pigmy souls, near Franklandale corners, the old "yellow corner," whitened over like the sepulchre, and in some other dark corners, which could find no good answer to the question—who is my neighbor? but he has passed that time, and he has learned, and he assures the community which has imposed so many obligations in him by past confidence that he cannot risk its continuance, by stopping to kick off whiffles, or making announcements which he is unprepared to fulfill. Monroe, Dec. 3, 1845.

PROVERB FIRST.

That Lumber for Goods, or Goods for Lumber, cannot be carried on successfully without detriment to Cash Buyers.

PROVERB THIRD.

That G. E. Flynt & Co. buy goods for Cash, and sell them for the "ready."

PROVERB FOURTH.

That G. E. F. & Co. are selling goods cheaper than any other establishment in the borough.

And it is whispered.

and soon will become a proverb (although we have been knowing to the fact for some time) that G. E. F. & Co. are selling better goods and more of them.

Those who doubt the above, will please present themselves at our counter, where Goods are freely shown, and always warranted equal to accommodation. G. E. F. & Co. Look for the Savings Bank.

GIMPS, CORDS, FRINGS, fancy velvet and Ribbons at — MERCURS.

Latest arrival of New Goods!

WELLES & SATTERLEE have been receiving the last three weeks from New York, a large and splendid stock of FALL and WINTER GOODS, selected from the latest importations with unusual care as to style, quality and especially as to prices. They do not pretend to have the largest stock in the county, or to have that any other house but they ask all who wish to buy choices and good goods, to call and examine the quality and prices of their goods, and then judge who sells goods at low prices; all are invited to call and examine their stock which comprises every thing usually kept in country stores.

Athens Pa., September 30, 1845.

LADIES will find nearly as large a stock of Dress Goods, such as Cashmere, De E'Coose, M. De Laine, Alpacaes, Gingham, Prints, &c., at our store as in the county and at low prices. They will please call and examine the stock for themselves.

20 " Saltines, all prices.

Iron, Nails, Steel, any quantity, and Shelf Hardware in abundance. The "people" of Bradford County, have looked long and anxiously for the time to come when goods could be purchased at their real value. For the purpose we have been satisfied the most skeptical, and wish to inform our friends that we are not to be disappointed in the spring, as reported, but shall continue to do battle for the friends of Cheap Goods, as long as it will benefit the county of Bradford. It is told in this way—We have, we can, and we will.

December 17. — GEO. E. FLYNT & CO.

SLEIGH SHOES and Plough Points, (for Wayne Co. Ploughs) at — G. E. FLYNT & CO'S.

APPLEBY'S FINE CUT CAVENDISH TOBACCO, or sale by — B. KINGSBERRY.

IT IS NO WONDER!

THAT the Farmers of Bradford County are all trading at "BAIRD'S STORE," when it is taken into consideration, that in addition to keeping the largest and best stock of Goods in the county, and selling them cheaper than any body else, they have always been ready to assist and encourage that class of community by purchasing their produce of every description at the highest prices. What for instance would they have done with their butter for the last two summers had not "Old No. 3" boldly stood forth in the support of honest industry and dealt out all descriptions of goods, at the lowest cash prices, in exchange for that article? The hard-fisted yeomanry are replying to the above, by coming with a rush! a perfect rush! "en masse!" to the cheapest store in Towanda, where "Bill Baird & Co." are always ready and willing to do the fair thing.

Dec. 23.

sep. 24. — B. KINGSBERRY.

PAINTS & OILS, Dye woods and Dye stuffs, a very large stock, just received at — BAIRD'S.

TOWANDA MERCHANTS

THE SAVINGS BANK.

THIS action was brought for "downright morning," against the Bank of the Towanda Savings Bank, for selling goods too cheap, and thereby bringing business upon the "Merchant Prince" of the borough. But, with all their learned sayings, hired witneses and combinations, together with the principal evidence admitted by us—that goods were sold cheaper at Flynt & Co.'s than any other establishment—we have at last come off with our "capital increased," and obtained a signal victory over these would-be "law" and order combinations, and carried dismay even into the enemy's camp. In addition to our former stock of Fall Goods, we have just received

Another Ark Load of Goods, which will be disposed of as liberally as heretofore. Therefore we have to record the

That George E. Flynt & Co. cannot be put down.

Look for the Savings Bank. Dec. 3.

NOTICE! NOTICE!

I TAKE this opportunity to inform all who are indebted to me, that payment MUST be made by — FEBRUARY COURT. The sum due from each individual, is small, but in the aggregate it amounts to considerable. I trust that a more effectual notice will not be necessary. JOHN N. WESTON. December 24.

NOTICE—Whereas, my wife, MARIAM E. having left me dead and buried, without a sufficient cause, I do hereby caution all persons against harboring or trusting her on my account, as I shall pay no debts of her contracting, after this date.

J. W. CORAH. Bridgewater, Sus. Co., Dec. 15, 1845.

ONE TON OF KIPP & CALF SKINS for sale cheaper than any place in town at — BAIRD'S.

D. C. HALL

BOW TO SHINE!

IN SPITE of what that noble firm is trying, and all the little Pans in town, though they boast to run him down.

The subscriber would announce to the public generally that he is now receiving a very large and well selected assortment of STOVES, such as Cross' patent cylinder oven cooking; Cross' combination of Franklin and cooking; No. 3 and 4, Fulton 4 boiler cooking; No. 2, 3, and 4, premium 4 boiler cooking; with an assortment of six plates, school-house and church stoves; cylinder coal and parlor wood do., all of which will be sold as low as at any other establishment this side of the Rocky Mountains, for wheat, oats, rye, corn, pork, butter, cheese, and cash not refused; TIN-WARE constantly kept on hand, at wholesale and retail, with stovepipes, elbows, stove tubes of clay and tin, patent pipe, stone jugs, Dishes, and every description of tin in the Tin, Copper & Sheet Iron business, done on short notice and in a workmanlike manner.

L. M. NYE & CO.

Towanda, September 1, 1845.

CABINET FURNITURE

MAYBE HAD at our shop much lower than it has ever been sold in Towanda. Goods are cheap, and what are lowered, and that is the reason we can afford all for to do it. All kinds of produce will be received in payment. Also, LUMBER of all kinds, Sept. 1. — L. M. NYE & CO.

COPPERS

WILL be kept on hand a large assortment, and made to order on shorter notice and for less money than can be produced at any other establishment in the land. Those who are under the necessity of procuring that article will and shall be satisfied. A good horse and pail may be had in attendance when desired. September 1, 1845. — L. M. NYE & CO.

BOOT & SHOE MAKING.

WILCOX & SAGE have associated themselves in the Boot and Shoe Making business, in the borough of Towanda, and may be found at the old stand of S. Hathaway, lately occupied by Elkana Smith, and I. H. Stephens' Exchange Hotel, where they solicit a share of public patronage. They intend, by a careful selection of stock, and by attention to the interests of their customers, to make as neat and durable work as can be manufactured in this portion of the country.

They keep constantly on hand, and will manufacture to order, mottoes, calf and coarse boots and shoes; Ladies' Gaiters, shoes and slippers; children's do.; gent's gaiters and pumps, &c., &c.

TOWANDA ACADEMY.

THE next academic year of this institution, will commence on Monday, the first day of September next, under the superintendence and management of —

Mr. J. C. Vandercok, as Principal.

JNO. P. WORTHING, Assistant.

Miss Sarah F. Worthing, Freepriser.

Mr. Vandercok has been successfully engaged in teaching for ten years past; he has much experience in this important and truly elevating department of human enterprise and benevolence, and brings testimonials from various sources of good moral character, and excellent scientific and literary attainments.

Mr. Worthing is a gentleman of very excellent attainments, experience and skill in teaching, and cannot fail to do much for the advancement of the students and the prosperity of the institution.

Miss Worthing, the Freepriser of the Female Department, has attained, by her devotion to literature, and her superior virtues, obtained the unqualified confidence of the community, and the esteem and affection of her numerous pupils. Young ladies will seldom find an instructress better qualified to meet all the wants of a student, not only as a teacher, but as a guardian friend and associate. They cannot but be improved by her example and society, as well as by her engaging instruction.

TUITION will be as follows, in all the departments: Primary and common English studies, with Penmanship, composing and speaking. $2 50 Natural, intellectual and moral science, botany, chemistry, history, astronomy, rhetoric, logic, book-keeping, drawing, painting, &c. 4 00 Mathematics and the languages. 5 00 Incidentals, expenses, per term, during winter. 5 00 No student will be received for less than half a term, and no deduction will be made for absence, except in cases of illness or other unavoidable causes.

The Academic year will be divided into four terms of eleven weeks each. There will be a vacation of one week after the first term; also one week after the third, and a vacation of six weeks after the fourth, including the harvest season.

We desire to make the Towanda Academy as agreeable and desirable resort for students from abroad, as those at home; a place where the purest virtues shall be cultivated, and the germs of science firmly set in the youthful mind. For this great object, no care or labor will be spared on the part of teachers or trustees. The Principal should be consulted before purchasing books, as several changes are contemplated in the text-books of the School.

Students from abroad can find board with the Principal or others, on reasonable terms.

Lectures will be given regularly by the Principal and others, on the most important topics of education, and a society organized for the especial benefit of young men. There will be two examinations and exhibitions during the year, the time to be determined by the teachers and trustees.
