

was right; and that in this case, it was not so...
Court adjourned until 9 o'clock to-morrow morning.

SATURDAY, 9 o'clock, A. M.
JOHN K. KANE, Esq., Attorney General, after a brief address replied to the arguments of the defense, in reference to the law of bribery, and contended that although formerly bribery was not indictable at common law, against public officers, and those who offered bribes to those connected with judicial proceedings, yet the law was now enlarged, and it was well settled, both in this country and in England, that bribery of persons connected, in any way, with civil government, was punishable by indictment. He read Russell on crimes and several other English authorities to sustain his position. He thought that the reason why there were no cases of indictments in the Courts of legislative bribery in England, was found in the abundant corruption in England. He contended, that it made no difference whether money was given to procure a good or bad act; and that if the jury believed that Daniel M'Cook offered or gave money to Victor E. Piolet, to vote for or procure a report in favor of the Lehigh County Bank, whether the charges against the bank were true or false, it was their duty to bring in a verdict of guilty.

He then commented on the evidence, and undertook to vindicate both Mr. Piolet and Mr. Galloway from the seeming inconsistencies of their testimony, and the contradiction of other witnesses. He passed a high eulogy upon Mr. Galloway, and concluded with an appeal to the jury to vindicate the legislative purity of the Commonwealth, and the honor of the State.

Mr. Kane spoke about an hour, and a half, and made an effective speech to the jury, and rather a favorable impression on the audience. When the Attorney General closed, the Court adjourned the jury recess of one hour. JUDGE ELDRED charged the jury. He said it was an important and new question, one which had not before been adjudicated by any Court in Pennsylvania. He quoted Blackstone & Russell on crimes, as containing the definition of bribery, and stated if their definitions were correct, no one could be connected with the administration of Justice. He however read several authorities and adjudicated cases to show, that the law was now extended to persons connected with officers of public trust, and stated that if these authorities could be relied upon, the ground taken by the counsel for the Defendant, that legislative bribery was not indictable at common law, was much too narrow. He remarked, that the legislature had, also, in some cases certain judicial powers. He therefore decided that the case before the court was indictable at common law, and that whatever amounted to a public wrong was the subject of indictment. The judge then reviewed the testimony, and instructed the jury that if they believed Piolet and Galloway, they must bring the Defendant in guilty.

The jury retired; and the Court adjourned till 2 o'clock, P. M., at which time they returned with a verdict of GUILTY.

THE MAIL CONTRACTORS' VISIT TO THE PRESIDENT.—On Thursday, the bids for the western routes, embracing Michigan, Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin, Iowa, Missouri, Kentucky, Tennessee, Alabama, Mississippi, Arkansas and Louisiana, were closed.

The Union says, at 12 o'clock, agreeably to appointment, the mail contractors assembled at the General Post Office, and, in company with the Postmaster General and several of his officers, and Col. Gardner, of the city post-office, waited upon the President of the United States, who received them in the East room. From 100 to 150 attended, and were introduced to the President. The procession on foot was imposing. The contractors were in general remarkable for their manly, robust and dignified appearance. Some of them had been governors, others speakers of the legislatures, and others of military rank. One circumstance struck us—that many, perhaps most of them, were born in one State, and had removed, frequently at an early age, to the States where they now reside. The President received them very cordially, and with very little ceremony. They mixed freely with their fellow-citizens in Washington and strangers who were present. Every one present seemed to enjoy the passing scene. Last night they had a supper at Coleman's, where they entertained their friends, and enjoyed themselves. Among their guests was Col. R. M. Johnson.

At half-past 10 o'clock the President received the joint delegation of the blind pupils from the Massachusetts, New York and Pennsylvania institutions, who are now on a visit to Washington.

COL. KINNEY.—We find, in the Texas correspondence of the Journal of Commerce, an interesting description of this adventurous pioneer, in the settlement of those parts.

"I have had many interesting interviews with a thorough Indian fighter and a Mexican trader (who has been in the country some years) in which I have been easily edified, while listening to his hair breadth escapes. Many of your worthy New Yorkers will remember H. L. Kinney, Esq., formerly a large operator in Illinois. He was rich, and is or will be, for he is one of the few always persevering men of the age. He was and is the intimate friend of Daniel Webster and his family. At this time Col. Kinney is the Senator from Corpus Christi, but left his business much against his will.

"He was in a Mexican prison for twelve months—was sentenced to be shot (on account of the interception of a correspondence which he had the temerity to undertake for the benefit of his government), through his masterly address, escaped—and is now on the road to great wealth (or I am mistaken) and is one of the prominent men of the State. His horsemanship is astonishing—the most skilful part of which he acknowledges himself indebted to the Indians for. I have seen him call a bouquet of flowers from the ground.—I have seen him take a lady in spite of herself from the ground, and place her on his horse in front of him.—I have seen him pick up bats, papers, &c., from the earth, and all this with his horse at full gallop. Men must learn to ride if they fight Indians."

OUTRAGE.—A barbarous outrage was perpetrated in Washington parish, Louisiana, upon the person of a young lady, daughter of Mr. Lewis B. Catter, by a negro man, The Holmesville (Miss) Free Press state that the negro entered the room through a window, while the young lady was asleep, lit a small faggot at the fire-place, and proceeded to his deadly purpose, severely beating and bruising her head, and leaving her there, weltering in her blood, as dead. The negro suspected of the crime is the property of Mr. Alex. Brumfield.

INDIAN CORN AND BUCKWHEAT.—The Liverpool Albion of a late date says: "Large quantities of Indian corn have been released from bond in the course of the past week. Several additional cargoes are expected shortly. The merchants now treat this description of grain, in their transactions, as a free article, the prices mentioned being understood to include the duty. Considerable importations of buckwheat are expected, and preparations are in progress for grinding it at the rice mills."

ARKANSAS DEBT.—The debt of Arkansas is $3,200,000. The Arkansas paper contend that the interest on this debt cannot be paid. One paper, with what it calls "a spirit of self-sacrificing honor," recommends that the Legislature propose "to the creditors of said State of Arkansas, that they cancel their present evidences of liability, and receive in place thereof State bonds, not bearing interest, payable in fifteen years after date."

GRAIN AND FRUIT PROSPECT.—The grain and fruit prospect in Bucks county is unusually rich the present season. Old farmers say that it never looked more healthy or forward. Rye in some places is in full head, and every where its appearance extremely luxuriant. Oats are up finely, and although rather early to judge of the nature of the coming crop, still we would set it down as above the ordinary average. On the grass lands, the late heavy showers have exercised a very beneficial influence.

QUICKSILVER.—The Nashville Orthopolitan says: "We learn that a quicksilver mine has been discovered in the State of Alabama. Already several of our citizens, who are interested in the discovery, are enjoying in anticipation 'glorious fortunes.'"

FOOT.—On Monday evening we had quite a severe visit from Jack Frost, but what damage he did, we have not ascertained.

The fact is well known, that BRANFORD'S PILLS are a certain cure in every form of disease, all having the same root, which is impurity of the circulating fluid, the blood.

In a period of little more than ten years in the United States, they have restored to perfect health and enjoyment over FOUR HUNDRED THOUSAND persons who were given over as incurable by Physicians of the first rank and standing, and in many cases when every other remedy had been resorted to in vain.

The great secret is to have the medicine by you when you are first attacked with sickness; one dose then will have more good effect than twenty, if you put it off until disease has enfeebled the bodily powers; therefore every individual who considers health a blessing, should always keep a box of Brander's Vegetable Universal Pills where they can be sure to lay their hands on them when wanted. Twenty-five cents cannot possibly be better disposed of. A valuable life may be saved, or a long life of sickness prevented.

A FACT WORTH KNOWING.
A gentleman of a serious habit, became afflicted with Ulcers of the Throat and Nose, and a disagreeable and troublesome disease of the skin. Indeed, his whole system bore the marks of being saturated with disease. One hand and wrist were so much affected that he had lost the use of the hand, every part being covered with deep, painful, and offensive Ulcers, and his hand and wrist were as hollow and porous as a honeycomb. It was at this stage of his complaint, when death appeared inevitable from a loathsome disease, that he commenced the use of JAYNE'S ALTERNATIVE, and having taken sixteen bottles, is now perfectly cured.—Public Ledger.

This ALTERNATIVE operates through the circulation and purifies the blood and eradicates diseases from the system, wherever located; and the numerous cures it has performed in diseases of the Skin, Cancer, Scrofula, Gout, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, and other Chronic diseases, is truly astonishing.

Prepared only by Dr. D. J. JAYNE, No. 8 South Third Street, Philadelphia. Sold by A. D. Montanye Towanda, Pa.

Married.
In Herick, Bradford county, on Tuesday, 4th instant, by Rev. Morgan Roper, Addison W. TAYLOR, of Rome, to Miss Mary STEVENS, of the former place.

Died.
In Binghamton, Broome co., N. Y., on the 1st instant, of Consumption, Miss CATHERINE T. MERILL, of the 24th year of her age.

Though the sickness of this estimable young lady was long and painful, she was enabled to bear her sufferings with great patience, and meet the summons of Death with that composure which ever characterizes the devout follower of God. Her early death has cast a deep gloom upon a large circle of friends and acquaintances, to whom she was strongly endeared. Still, they mourn not as those without hope. May her example (so well worthy of imitation) be a guide for her youthful associates, and lead them, in the morning of life, to choose that which insures eternal bliss; that whether called to their account early or late, they may, like their deceased friend, await Death's coming with like serenity and joy.—Iris.

In Troy, on Friday, the 17th ult., of brain fever, in the eighth year of her age, FANNY JANE, daughter of L. B. and Mrs. Elizabeth Moore.

Little Fanny Jane was remarkable for her sweetness of temper and strength of affection. By early discovering these, she greatly endeared herself to her fond parents.

For some time before her last illness, she was inclined to seriousness. She took pleasure in conversing upon the subject of religion. She expressed a desire that her father might become pious and attend to family worship. Not long before her death she told her mother that she was willing to die, if it was the will of God, or to live if He thought best.

It was just as the day was dawning, that she breathed her last. Her soul, when ready to depart, seemed to say, "Let me go, for the day breaketh."

"Cease, here longer to detain me,
Fondlest father, drowned in woe;
Now thy kind caresses pain me,
Morn advances, let me go.

"See you orient streak appearing,
Harbinger of endless day;
Hark! a voice the darkness cherishing,
Calls my willing soul away."

Only 124 Cents a Number! The Penny Magazine.
A new and elegant edition of the revised of the PENNY MAGAZINE.
The success which the cheap edition of the Penny Magazine has met with, induces the Publisher to comply with the earnest request of numerous gentlemen in various parts of the Union, to publish a new edition, on finer paper, and in a more elegant style. The Publisher, therefore, hereby announces, that on the first Saturday of July, 1846, he will issue the first number of the new edition of the PENNY MAGAZINE, and regularly thereafter on the first and fifteenth of every month, continue to publish the succeeding numbers, until the entire work is completed. The entire work will be published in 72 numbers or parts, at the low price of 124 Cents per Number, being at least one third less than the original price, and substantially more useful, more beautiful and large imperial octavo volumes, of permanent value and usefulness.

The London Penny Magazine, issued under the direction of the "Society for the diffusion of useful knowledge," is unquestionably, one of the most entertaining and useful of all the popular works which has appeared in any language. Its pages embrace every subject in the wide field of human knowledge; and as every article, whether on Science, History, Biography, Literature, or the Arts, passes the careful scrutiny and critical ordeal of an able committee of learned men, the work may be placed in the hands of the youth of the country without danger or distrust. The popularity of the work in England may be judged of from the fact, that during the first year of its publication more than 80,000 copies of the monthly parts were disposed of. The whole work consists of about 4,000 large imperial octavo pages, and is illustrated by 2,000 engravings. The original cost of Stereotyping and Engraving, to the London Publishers, was $25,000. It is now published by the undersigned, at the low price of 124 Cents per Number, and is sent by mail to all parts of the United States. Persons wishing to obtain it regularly on its issue, will do well to hand in their names to some Bookseller in their neighborhood, at as early a day as possible. The usual discount to the trade.

Every Postmaster in the United States or the Canada is authorized to procure subscribers for this beautiful and useful work. By remitting to the Publisher ONE DOLLAR, they will receive TEN copies of any number. The postage on each number will be about four cents, so that persons in the country clubbing together and sending on for a dozen or more copies for a time, will get them by the return mail at very little above regular retail price, postage included. Money will be remitted by mail at the risk of the Publisher. Address your orders to J. S. REDFIELD, Clinton Hill, N. Y.
