Her boats had, in pursuing a loaded essel into the port, come in encounter with some armed boats of the Mexicans, and according to the Mexican accounts, had been driven off; but it seems that they were recalled by signals from the brig. The latter sailed the next day. The inhabitants of Alvarada had turned out en masse, and subscriptions to the amount of $3000 had been made for the erection of fortiticalions. One brigade of the army of teserve had marched to the aid of the army of the North, showing that the outbreaks in Jalisco would be suppressed previous to any movement against the army of General Taylor.
