Accident on the Brie Railroad.

A serious and distressing acciden occurred on the Erie Railroad on Friday morning July 24, at abridge known as 'Turner's, and said to be one of the best on the line. Two passengers-Mr. George Stevens, a four merchant of our city, and a son of Dr. Crane, of Goshen-were killed outright. From thirty to forty were more or less wounded .-Mrs. Conklin, of Ousville, had her throat cut, as if by a razor, from ear to ear ; from another the shoulder blade projected several inches through the skin. In the hindermost car were a young ladies' school, with their teacher, on a pleasure excursion to Hoboken. Fortunately they all escaped with but slight wounds-though the teacher was more seriously injured.

The following are the names of the persons injured, some of them seriously :--- Mrs. Conkn of Otisville . Mr. Oliver, of Bloomingham ; Miss Sweet, Mr. Watkins, and Miss Watkins, of Middletown ; Messis. Stroud, Hyatt, D. H. Corwin, Follet, Thompson, milk agent : and Myers, a brakeman, of New York ; and Mr. Charles Monell, of Goshen.

Mr. Newman, bookseller, of this city, was slightly injured.

Immediately on the receipt of the intelligence at Piermont, Mr. Seymour, the agent there, despatched two expresses to this city, one by steamaut and one by land, to procure medical aid, and the president, Mr. Loder, promptly left the city with several physicians.

Several of the wounded were brought to this city on Friday evening. Mr. Oliver, the only sufferer, who lies at the City Hospital, we are happy to learn is doing well. The side of his face and one of his legs above the ancle have been contused. His conduct has been highly spoken of, and it is astonishing he escaped from, at least, a violent fracture of some of his

The train, which consisted of three baggage crates and four passenger cars, when near the orige, and going, it is said, at only usual speed, the wheel of the forward baggage car broke, and this threw the train off the track ; though the engine was promptly reversed, it ran, with the three passengers cars, some forty or fifty yards, and entered upon the bridge, the flanges of the wheels texing up and weakening the cross trees, which was the immediate cause of the accident.

The second passenger car broke through the doming and was precipitated into the ravine over which the bridge passes. The third car followed, falling directly upon the former, crushing in the roof and indeed almost interlapping with it. The marvel us that a single passenger in that car escaped with his life .- N. Y. Glube

THE VOLUNDEER FORCES IN THE ARMY .-The Pennsylvanian says the volunteers now in service will be divided between the two new Major Generals es follows : General Patterson a command those from the States of Tennessee, Georgia, Alabains, Mississiapi and Texas; Gen. Butter to command those from the State of Ohio, Kentucky, Judana, Illinois, Missouri and Louisina. It also stated that many weeks will not elapse before the six regiments of volumeers required from this State by the General Government, will be estled into active service. A disanguished military man thinks that on or about or 1st of next September they will probably be opested to take their places in the main army, ow moving forward to consummate the war.

NATES.-The troubles have not yet ceased etween the Mormons and the anti-Mormons. Each party holds prisoners as hostages ; the annes have only five-each demanding as exchange. The new criticens lack concert of acton, and their identification with the Moresons, for the purpose of protecting life and property, has created an ill feeling against them in the county that it will be difficult to allay. Common cause with the Mormons, made by the new unzens, however commendable in itself, can produce no good feeling towards them among the lynchers of Hancock County.

HAIR-BREADTH ESCAPE OF THE GREAT BTItans!-We learn from gentlemen who came Passengers in the Great Britan, that her trip, hough a quick one, was nevertheless a chapter of accidents. She was once in imminent danof being lest by fre, and three hours aground off Newfoundland ; bat fortunately rolled off just as orders were given to lower the boats .---We merely publish the facts as they are, in order to anticipate the horrible comments of the Boston press .- New York Mirror.

The Treasury of History, omprising a general introductory outline, of Universa History, Ancient and Modern, and a series of se-perate histories of every principal nation that exists, their rise, progress, present con-dition, &c., &c., &c., Author of the "Treasury of Knowledge," "Biographi-cal Treasury," &c. including THE HISTORY OF AMERICA,

THE HISTORY OF AMERICA, EDITED BT JOHN INAX, ESG. The republication of this valuable work has been undertaken partly on account of the high favor with which it has been received in England, but chiefly in consideration of its intrinsic value, arising from the felicitous adaption of the plan to a want that has been iong and generally felt and from the judgment and fidelity manifested in its execution. The idea of giv-ing in a single work, of no very formidable dimensions, a sufficient outline of the world's whole history, and imilar outlines of the history of every nation, is so obvious, judicious and appropriate as to require no eulogium. Every person who cares at all for the acquisition of useful knowledge must desire to posess such a general knowledge of past events, not only in his own country but in all countries, as shall enable him found in almost any course of general reading; because for want of such understanding there is always a serious diminution both of pleasure and profit. even in the perusal of such works as are desired chiefly for amount diminution both of pleasure and profit. for want of such understanding there is always a serious diminution both of pleasure and profit. even in the perusal of such works as are designed chiefly for amuse-ment. For instance, most of Sir Walter Scott's novels are founded upon history, and abound with reference to historal events and personages, a want of some acquain-tance with which detracts articular from the interast and tance with which detracts seriously from the interest and delight they are so well qualified to awaken; and so of delight they are so well qualified to awaken; and so of most other works belonging to the better class of what is called light literature. But the difficulty has been to obtain this general knowledge without going through many books, requiring a greater expenditure of time and money than most persons are able or willing to afford; and to obviate such difficulty has been the purpos of Mr. Manuder. Maunder.

His plan has the merit of completeness, and is un-loubtedly the best that could have been desired. H. gives first a general sketch of ancient and modern hisgives first a general sketch of ancient and modern his-tory—a rapid and comprehensive bird's-eye view, as it were of the rise and progress of nations, the most im-portant incidents of their career, and their relations to each other; and after this he takes up the nations separately, furnishing a concise digest of all that is important or desirable to know concerning each, and thus affording a sort of key to the changes and events that were more briefly indicated, rather by their results than their incidents, in the general sketch or online. Thus the salient points of history are brought within a man-ageable compass; and an excellent foundation is laid for more thorough and extensive reading in reference to any portion of the world or any epech of which a com-

any portion of the works or any epech of which a com-plete knowledge may be desired. In the execution of this plan the author has been very successful. His notices of bistorical events, though brief, are light and satisfactory; and he traces the connection are liced and satisfactory; and he traces the connection of effect and cause with singular acumen and generally with most commendable freedom from partiality or bias; thus supplying a very good idea of the philosophy of history as well as of the facts which history records.... In a word, the work will be found invaluable to the general reader, and a very useful help to the student. Complete in two volumes, large octavo, with engravings, $4. An edition in paper covers, complete, suita-ble for mailing, $3. DANIEL ADEE, Publisher, 107 Fulton-street, New York.
