Dreadful Shiptereck.

Nthe 11th of August inst., was dissolved in con-sequence of mismanagement of the Capt. of that Sup which sailed from this port the 1st of June last— the Mate escaped with his life; the last he saw of the Capt he was stuck on the shoals of selfishness with all raluables left of the wreck on his back. The Mate has concluded to sail on his own hooks; he is ready to do House, Carriage, Sleigh, and Sign painting, Glazing, Paper hanging, &c., on reasonable terms and short no-ure, he thinks all will find it to their advantage to employ those to do their work that do not go on the principle of "I had just as leave work by the day here as any where."
