

to introduce his two million bill, which was lost, says 50, says 100.

On the motion of Mr. Houston the House went into Committee of the Whole, Mr. McLe...

The bill to increase the pay of non-commissioned officers and privates, regulars and volunteers, two dollars per month, and to give a hundred and sixty acres of bounty land, was taken up.

An amendment was offered making the increase of pay three dollars per month, which was adopted.

Other amendments were proposed, and a long discussion ensued. The Committee rose, Mr. Hangerford had leave to introduce a bill...

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19—4 o'clock. SENATE.—Mr. Sevier from the Committee on Foreign Relations, reported a bill placing at the disposal of the President, the sum of three millions of dollars for the purpose of bringing the war to a speedy close, and said he would ask its consideration at an early day.

Mr. Benton, from the Military Committee, reported back the army bill with an amendment, granting land to the non-commissioned officers, musicians and privates serving during twelve months, in the war with Mexico.

Mr. Benton moved to amend by inserting the officers of the volunteers. Mr. Benton said if this amendment in favor of the officers of the volunteers prevailed, he should offer another so as to include the officers of the regular army.

Mr. Benton advocated the claims of the volunteer officers. Mr. Benton opposed the measure and thought the officers of the army better entitled to bounty land than those attached to the volunteers.

A long debate ensued, after which, Mr. Benton's amendment was rejected by a vote of 25 to 26. The Vice President giving the casting vote against it.

Several other amendments were offered and rejected, and the Senate adjourned. HOUSE.—A resolution was adopted to close the debate upon the bill to increase the pay of the regulars and volunteers in service in Mexico, at 2 o'clock to-day.

The bill was then taken up in Committee of the Whole, and addresses were delivered by Messrs. Bell, Starkweather and Boyd, and then on motion of Mr. Boyd, the Committee of the Whole was discharged, and the bill referred to a Select Committee.

Mr. C. J. Ingersoll's resolution for printing 5,000 copies of the report of last session, made by the Committee of Foreign Relations on the Mexican affairs, came up for consideration. Mr. Rathbun opposed the printing.

Mr. Ingersoll replied, defended the administration of the war, and advocated the passage of his resolution. The following communications were received:

From the War Department, giving a statement of certain expenditures during the past year, required by law. From the Adjutant General in reply to the resolution of inquiry calling upon the President for the number of volunteers and officers mustered into service in Mexico for three, six and twelve months, and the number that have died, resigned and been discharged.

From the Treasury Department in relation to Mr. Grant's, of the revenue service. The House then went into committee of the Whole, Mr. Cobb in the chair, on the Indian Appropriation Bill. The bill was read, after which, the committee rose.

A resolution was adopted that the debates last night be printed in the bill. Various motions to adjourn were made, and negatived.

On articles now taxed—to levy a duty on tea and coffee. The amendments were lost, or declared to be not in order. The bill was then reported to the House, and the amendments concurred in and passed by yeas and nays, 168 to 22. A communication was received from the President, relative to Wisconsin. Adjournal.

"WARS AND RUMORS OF WAR."—Last week was prolific with startling events in Mexico, either completed. It was currently reported that Santa Anna had marched to Saltillo with 35,000 men, had surrounded Gen. Worth and placed forces between Gen. Worth and Wool, also between Taylor and Worth. These reports frightened the timid and emboldened the domestic enemies of their government to denounce the President as the cause of all that had happened or might happen from the commencement to the end of the Mexican war. We are deavored to dissipate these fears as groundless, although some seemed determined not to be comforted.

The arrival of Gen. Taylor's letter of the 8th of December last, detailing the position of his forces and the country and roads shows a state of security in their present position. Santa Anna is at the city of San Luis, and from information, said to be reliable, the troops at that place are short of 10,000, badly fed and clothed. If terms are agreed upon between the governments, the only efforts of Santa Anna will be to defend Southern Mexico, and unless our forces are increased, the war will be protracted. Another rumor is that Gen. Taylor will return when Scott arrives—this rests with the War Department, unless he chooses to violate orders and suffer a court martial. General Taylor is not an "aid and comfort" whig to the enemy, he loves his country, he knows that the war is unprovoked on our part, and therefore just in its prosecution—he will not leave the field till necessity compels him.—Upland Un.

VERA CRUZ.—The Washington Union copies some extracts from a letter from Havana, received by the Mississippi, which gives some interesting information respecting Vera Cruz. "The troops in Vera Cruz are badly paid and worse fed, numbering three thousand five hundred, and the castle about eleven hundred, with provisions only for a month at a time."

The information from Tampico, received at Vera Cruz by the packet, in relation to the conduct of our troops, had calmed the feelings before felt towards the volunteers by the Vera Cruzanos, and they speak in the highest terms of the American general for the measures he took to secure private property and persons, and that the excitement against the Americans at Vera Cruz was daily subsiding. Vera Cruz was indignantly against Santa Anna and his government, which was manifested by their late unanimous vote for Herrera.

All the extra defence that has been made about the walls of Vera Cruz are, that holes have been dug near together along the wall, and pikes put into them and covered over with prickly pears, so that in marching up our troops would fall into them; but we could soon lay plank over them."

LATE FROM THE GULF OF MEXICO.—An extra from the New Orleans Times appears as the result of the application of the Campeachians to be considered neutral. A Mexican schooner, bearing a flag of truce, arrived from Campeach on the 21st. She brought the news of a declaration of the independence of that province from the Central Government, and claiming for her ports the privileges of neutrals, which it is believed Com. Conner refused, unless they hoisted the American flag, Merida and the country adjacent had refused to unite in the movement, and proposed to put it down by force of arms. The Campeachians had marched upon Merida with a force of 2500 men, the Meridians having 4000. It was supposed by the captain of the flag of truce, that a decisive battle was fought on the 21st ult., that being the latest date from the army, at which time they were within a few miles of each other. The flag of truce left Antonio with the answer of Commodore Conner, on the 27th.

DEATH OF AN U. S. SENATOR.—The proceedings of Congress of the 11th inst., inform us of the death of the Hon. Isaac Penningback, Senator from Virginia. The deceased has been long and favorably known in his native State, as a man of high talent and unwavering probity. For many years a Judge of the U. S. Circuit Court, in Western Virginia, the laborious functions of which he discharged with high credit and greatly to the satisfaction of all; he was during the past year, elevated to the Senate of the U. S. His career there has been brief but influential, and his death leaves two vacancies in the Senate, to be filled by the Legislature of Va., now in session.

VOLUNTEERS.—The whole number of volunteers received into the service since May, 1846, exclusive of the last ten regiments, is 228 companies, 1071 commissioned officers, 23,699 men; in the aggregate, 24,770. Fifty seven were killed at Monterey, of whom four were commissioned officers, and nineteen died of their wounds. Ordinary deaths, 637; discharged, 2202, nearly all reported for disability; desertion, 331. The strength of the rank and file, according to the latest returns, is 14,551, including sick, which deducted from the regiments at the time they were mustered into the service, shows a loss of 4100, within the period for the most part of sixty and ninety days after joining the army in the field.
