er. Sir, contrast Michigan with Arkansas Within the last twenty years, the former has the Union. She exhibits at this day all the elements and resources of a great State ; cities, fourishing towns, and highly cultivated fields.

with a popula ion that outnumbers three or four time that of Arkansas. Yet, Arkansas has even a better soil, and superior natural adrantages. What is the cause of this disparity ? It is slavery, sir, and that alone. Slave labor exhausts, and makes barren the fields it cultirates. That labor is only profitable to the master in the production of staples of cotton. sugar, and tobacco. Crop follows crop, until the fertility of the soil is exhausted, when the old fields are abandoned. new and virgin soil sought out, to be exhausted in the same manner, and in its turn likewise abandoned. Thus, str. sterility follows its path. Eastern Virin the gentality of its climate, with navigable mers and harbors unsurpassed in commercial importance, is this day but little, better than a barren woste. The free labor of the North has commenced the work of regeneration, and to this alone can Eastern Virginia look for redemption and renewed prosperity.

Sir, as a friend of the Union, as a lover of nev country, and in no spirit of hostility to the South, I offered my Amendment. Viewing slavery as I do. I must resist its further extension and propagation on the North American conunent. It is an evil, the magnitude and the end of which, no man can see. Mr. Walker in his celebrated Texas letter, urged the poliey of annexation, is a means and aid in the final abolition of slavery. By the annexation of Texas, he said, a frontier of two thousand miles in extent would be opened, bordering on Mexico, over which our slave and black population as it should press upon the country. could pass, and become mingled with the mixed races of Mexico and South America. Sir, I thought at the time, and still think, that there was much force in this argument. But if we tike the very country that was to be their refoge, and subvert it for slavery, what becomes at erresoning and argument of Mr. Walker ? Here the hour expired, and Mr. Wilmot was broken off in his remarks.
