A little Logic and Common Sense

There are three things beyond dispute:—1st—If a msn page out much money, he must reveive as much.

2. If a msn's expenses in business are large, his profits must be large.

3. Therefore, the Grocery and Shoe Establishment at the corner of Main and Bridge sta, in a small plain store, at a cheap sent, can afford to sell boots & shoes, hats & caps, and grocesies, at lower prices, and of better quality than any other store in town. Now, if this is not sound logic, two and two do not

Dr. W. Wright—Dear Sir: There is a man going through the country with counterfeit Wright's Indian Vegetable Fills—he calls himself your agent, and says Vegetable Pill—he calls himself your agent, and says he had the pills from your office. Mr. Lunas Shalter, of Schnythill Bend Pa., took some from him, but after selling a few boxes found them miscrable counterfeits.—He laid them saits till the man came again, and then told him the pills were counterfeit, and that he must take them back. The man got very angry and refused. Mr. Shalter told him he would try the law, upon which the man took them back, and confessed that the received them from an equivocal establishment in Philadelphia.
