18 : "General Taylor is no Whig. if we may be here the assurances of individuals, who are familiarly acquainted with him, and possess his confidence—we mean no Whig, in the Bulletin sense of the word; he is no bank man ; no advocate for the resuscitation of the old United States Back; nor is he in favor of the Whig system of high duties for the protection of domestic manufactures. Should Gen Taylor be elected President, an event which is next to impossible in the present state of parties in this country, the Whigs will have caught a Tartar, whose modes of thinking and determined adherence to what he thinks the right mode of conducting the affairs of government, will prove a thousand times more annoying and fatal to them and to their policy than did the differences, with John Tyler, on another memorable occasion."

The New Orleans Picayune expresses 'ne little surprise to observe the name of General Zachary Taylor figuring at the head of a Whig paper as a candidate for the Presidency, subject to the decision of a whig national convennon, and very pertinently remarks:

"This appropriation of Gen. Taylor's name for party purposes we know is without the sanction of that distinguished commander and contrary to his wishes. It is not only against his wishes, but it is repugnant to the feelings and views of his peculiar friends; and in this calegory we include the immediate family of Gen. Taylor and such of his confidential associates as best know his purposes."

The Harrisburgh Telegraph, a leading

Federal paper, in Pennsylvania, is of the opinion that the Whig party leaders by committing themselves in favor of General Taylor may and themselves more mistaken in regard to tim than they imagine. The Telegraph says:

"We are probably as great admirers of the military achievements, qualification, and character of Gen. Taylor, as any one; but we greatly doubt whether a man who owns one hundred slaves will be found to avow himself opposed to the further extension of Slavery : and we are certain that no man who is not, will pereive the votes of the Northern States in 1848 ! and his friends who think that the halo of military glory around him will carry him salely through, should remember that the war slooked upon as one in which the arm of the strong is crushing the weak, because he is

Alluding to the course pursued by the Whig apers at the North in reference to General Taylor, the Charleston Mercury asks :

. " Are they not aware that he is a Southern man, a Slaveholder, a Cotton Planter? De they suppose him capable of lending himself to my scheme or proposition that would exclude tion the territory upon which their blood has been shed so lavishly, those gallant Southerners ho have aided him in acquiring it? to be so ist to self-respect as to endorse the Wilmut-Abolition Proviso, which by implication, demounces him and every other slaveholder as infrom and unworthy the association of citizens of the Free States? To include such a sup-Disition would be abursed—monstrous." The Mercury adds:

"As to General Taylor's opinions on Free Trade, or upon other political questions, we have no knowledge; but we venture the prefection that in this, as upon the Slavery queson, he will not be found arrayed against the interest of his section; and we would consider is nonmation by the Whigs as an acknowledge ment that a Protective Tariff, like a National Bank, was an " obsolete idea."

"And if Northern Whigs, heretofore so ultra in the subject of Abolition, Protection, Northern men. &c., surrender their sectional prejudices. and nut up General Taylor as the embodiment of their principles, what may not the South expect from the Northern Democracy, who are their "natural allies?" We venture the preon that their candidate for the Presidency will be in all respects acceptable to the South; and for the best of all reasons, that otherwise e will not receive their support, and without heir support he cannot be elected."

DESTROYED BY FIRE .- We regret to learn, hat the grist and saw mill, blacksmith shop, arn and some fifty thousand feet of lumber, tuate at the forks of Loyalsock Creek, (some miles above this place.) & belonging to Thos. lo'yneux & Sons, were totally destroyed by te on the afternoon of Friday the 16th inst. e are informed, that at some distance from he mill, a fire had been used for boiling sugar sater, but which was supposed to have been atinguished sometime previous. The wind eing fresh and the day warm, communicated he fire which was supposed to be extinguished with the rubbish on the mill, and in an instant inned it into a flame. All efforts to subdue it, gether, were enveloped in one general flame. But the destroying element did not stop here.-The blacksmith shop and barn, situated some birty rods distant from the mills, were also iso soon on fire, and utterly destroyed. All the tawed lumber, the fruits of a season's incative, shared the same fate. The dwelling of Mr. Molyneux, which was several times on tie, was the only building preserved—all the hop, and the lumber, were utterly destroyed. the loss of properity, must exceed twenty- the true for bundred dollars. We are not aware that perty. of part of it is covered by insurance.

GEN, LANAR CAPTURED .- Information has en received at Austin, Texas, that General amar, with his company of 80 or 100 men, empted to pass through from Loredo to join sen. Taylor; that after penetrating into some Grande, he was attacked by greatly supernumbers of the enemy, whom he fought till he it half his men, when he found himself comed to surrender. Gen. Lamar's object was to the relief of Gen. Taylor as soon as he beard the alarming news of his dangerous dation. We have heard the fact mentioned

THE RUIN POSTFONED.—Nor if the famine in Europe had not occurred to defeat the predictions of the advocates of protection, would it be quite time yet to witness their fulfilment. The new Tariff has been in operation less than six months. We should not expect to see the straitening effects of excessive importation under a year in any case, and it might be postponed for several years .- Utica Gazetle.

It will gratify the public to know, says the Albany Atlas, that the expectation of ruin founded on the prophecies of the Whig press, was thus premature. Still this consolation is not without its drawback, since as the day of produced, for it will doubless bear some proportions to the period of gestation.

But what a hopeful party the Whigs are.

Ruin was to commence with the third week in November '44; then it was deferred till the nauguration of a Democratic President, then ill the action of Congress in pursuance of his recommendations. Then every moment was to bring it. Then, when it fulled to come, it was put off for a little while, then again for six months, and now for a year-perhaps for three years-but we shall certainly be ruined at the end of three years !

This is the Millerism of partizanship-a fanatical delusion, founded in the extacles of hatred of bewildered politicians, persisted in after a hundred proofs of falsehood, and yet is strangest of all, half believed by the addled prophets, and clung to by their weak and redulous followers as an article of religious faith.

GREAT EXCITEMENT IN MILWAURIE-Constitutional Riot .- A letter written from Milwankie on the 6th inst., states that great excitement prevails there—that the whole city is in an uproar caused by the ardor or rather rancor of the parties for and against the constitution. On Monday evening the 5th inst., the riends of the Constitution assembled en masse in front of the United States Hotel, in accordance with previous appointments, to hear speeches and make arrangements for the grand hattle the succeeding day. The Anti-Consti-tution men formed a torch-light procession of fully half a mile long, preceded by a band of music, and marched through the assemblage of their opponents. This was done the first time without opposition, but on the second attempt the speakers (of the Constitution party) cried out "stop them !" and instantly a general fight ensued, in which several hundred were actively engaged, and which lasted for a ha' an hour, the combatants using their torch-light sticks which were an inch and a half in diameter, and some three feet long. Many were wounded, and one poor fellow had his skull broken, and it was thought he would live but

FROM TEXAS .- Mrs. Ann Maffit, former onsort of the Rev. John Maffit, died at Galveston on the 1st inst., after an illness of several weeks. It will be recollected that Mr M. was married a second time in Brooklyn. N. Y., on the evening of the 21st ult.

On the 27th ult., Samuel Grimmett, high sheriff of Montgomery county, whilst in the discharge of his official, duties, was shot and dangerously wounded by an individual named Goodman. The perpetrator has been arrested.

There were two Mexicans shot by some persons unknown at the Mission of Refugio, as we learn, a short time agn. It is supposed that this deed was perpetrated in retaliation for past injuries.

San. Antonio has been left without any protection, in consequence of which the citizens having organized themselves into a spy company of 20 men, one company of mounted riflemen and one of infantry.
