through their heads. The murder is said to have been committed on dig 28th ult. On that night a train of loaded wigons, escorted by 200 infantry and about the sanie number of horse, under the command of

Col. Matchell, of the 1st Ohio Regiment, encamped at Marin, which is about five miles from the scene of the murder. The mounted men were composed of the U. S. Dragoons and Texas Rangers, under the command of Capt. Graham, of the 2d Dragoons. Suspicion rests upon some part of this corps, though no due has yet been found to discover the guilty. The officers in command-gentlemen and rigid deciplinarians-ate using every means in their power to investigate the matter.

Gen. Taylor has got his steam up on the subject, and is determined to have hung every me who, it can be proved, has taken part in the murder. The town where these men were sulled is but a few miles from the place where the large train was captured and so many vagoners massacred on the 22d of February. Some 15 or 29 of the wagoners who escaped there is no evidence that they were engaged in be Guulopa murder.

I passed over the place of the massacre of the 22d February a few days ago, and the scene struly the most horrid and revolting that I the ever witnessed. The remains of the aurdered men, yet unburied, stripped of every particle of clothing, lay upon the plains, their desh devoured by Mexican wolves and buzzards and their bones bleaching in the sun. The tran was a very large and valuable one, and stretched out from three to four miles in length. the attack was made upon the escort, who were in the advance, by a large body of Lancers. The e-cort, 40 men, under Lieut. Barbour, of the Kentucky Legion, were all taken prisoners. and are now in the possession of Urrea. The Lancers charged down the train, and lanced athout mercy the wagoners as they ran for their lives to the chapparel.

More than three fourths of them, it is thought wire killed, and their bodies shockingly mutilated and disfigured. Those who passed the scene, a few days after, say that some had their learts jut out and suspended upon the bushes,

"WHO.BROUGHT ABOUT THIS WAR ?"-The Nashville Whig said, in May last, that the Mexicans had provoked this war. General Scott, a high authority in the Whig hurch, declares the same thing, when, in his proclamation of the 11th April, he says :

" Mexicans ! Americans are not your ene mies, but the enemies for a time of the mer who, a year ago, misgoverned you, and brought about this unnatural war between two great republics.'
