We have received by our special overland express, advices from New Orleans of the 11th inst., thirty-hours in advance of the mail. They contain further intelligence from General Scott, Comodore Perry and General Taylor. It is of considerable interest in the present uncertain state of affairs in Mexico.

According to the letters received in New Orleans by the James L. Day, there were reports affect that the Mexicans were melting their. gladly surrender to the Americans.

The report of the proffered surrender of the Capital was given-by Major Leonard to Gen. Pillow, a passenger in the James L. Dav .-It appears that a despatch from Gen. Scott had been received, stating that a deputation from the Capital had reached the American lines, offering to surrender the city without opposition, and asking protection to life and property. This was, of course, assented to by General Scott, In consequence, the citizens had discontinued erecting fortifications for its de-
