Weekln Review of the Markets. Philadelphia Market.

FRIDAY, JUNE 25, 1847. FLOUR AND MEAL.—The Flour market has not been animated, and prices have further declined and the market closes dull. Sales of 10,000 brls. principally Western, at 58, including some parcels at 57, lined and delivered: 1700 bels. lined and delivered; 1700 brls. Brandywine at $7,181, and the balance Penna, at $7. To day sales of 1000 bris. at >6.75, part Western, and 1000 bils, a good brand Penna, at $7. Rye Flour-Sales of 500 brls at $5.50. Corn Meal-has declined. Sales at $4.621 and 1,50, and yesterday and to-day sales of 2300 brls at $4,371, $4.21 and 4,25, part lined and delivered. Grain-Wheat has been in fair request. Sales, of 20,000 bushels Ponn'a Wheat, chiefly white, at $1,60 in store; red and white mixed at $1.53\frac{1}{2} and red at $1,50 and 1.48: 6 and 9000 bushels Ohio red at $1,50 in store, and a lot at >1.43 to-day. Rye has declined. Sales of 2500 logshels at 95 dts. Corn—Sales of 5 and 6000 Penn a and Southern yellow at 95 and 944 cts. by New York Market.

The market for Flour was dull in the morning. but there was no disposition to force sales to any great extent. Some lots of Ohio and Michigan were picked up at $6.75 and 6.873, but at the close of business on Change the enquiry for export was letter, and the market stiffened to $7 for strait Michigan, and 87,124 for Genesee, with no great supply of Genesee at that. Sales to arrive next cueck were made at the same price as on the spot. The enquiry was mostly for export, partly for France. The aggregate sales were at least 20,000 bbl. In Southern the market is dull at $7,25 and 7.50—small sales. Meal is $4,62\frac{1}{2} and 4,75 for Western and 55 for Jersey, with moderate sides, Wheat very heavy, being even at present prices elaively higher than Flour. The enquiry was mited, except at some concession on previous A sale of 1000 bushels'red Illinois was made # $1.45, and 7000 bushels mixed Ohio good sold a $1.70 and $1624. For one extra parcel of prime enesce 1.00 was reported to have been bid. Com is heavier. Round Yellow sold as low as 96 and 97, but some parcels brought 98 and 100. The siles were 40,000 bushels. Mixed brought 85 and and that yellow 94 and 95. A sale of 7000 bishels Bailey was made at 75 ets. for export.that are enjet at 53 cts. Rye $1.10, and scarce,

WHELE IDAIRIUOIR MAGAZHIN T. HEADLEY, EDITOR.—The Magazine, for formerly under the case of D. Mead, commences its Fourth Volume under the editorship of J. T. Headley, author of "Napole on and his Marshals," "Washington and his Generals," "Letters from Italy," occasic. We burntal nothing in saying that this Magazine is destined to ful a large place in public estimation; that it will not only maintain its present enviable reputation, but earn to itself a far higher popularity, and become the compenion of many a circle to which it is now a stranger, gladdening by its presence, while it exerts an influence pure, elevating and healthful. The editor will bend his energies to make this the most popular Magazine of the day, and while availing himself of assistance from the lest writers, he will draw feely from his own exhaust-less store.

It will continue to maintain its high moral tone, and nothing will be admitted into its columns which will minister to the corrupt parsions and tendencies of youis, or which the author dving would wish to blut. The design is to offer the public a Magazine cor vining all the attraction and it a net of the lighter periodicule, while it moves in a different path, and is not in-posed to the same objection.

It is issued monthly, commencing with May, caraining 32 pages of original matter, printed on fine pager, in handsome covers, with a splended steel engraving, and colored flower, in cach number, with occasional music and is got up in every respect in the best style of its art. making a yearly volume of 394 page, full of choice illustrations, and forming an elegant of nament to the parlor table, or a rich and valuable present to a friend. Back numbers and volumes always on hand-

Price only $2 per year, if in advance. 3 copies for $5. 8 copies for $12.

The Press and the public are daily awarding as the very highest, testimonials of the editorial shifts of our Magazine, and the beauty and taste with which it is embellished, placing it in the very first rank in every respect, among the thousands of which we select the f. l-
