ture of G. H. Morgan, headed " Address to the One. Term Democrats, and friends of the late Henry A. unberg," to which is appended the following sords, "I concur in the above statement, Augustus sprigman." Now I beg leave to ay that I never sw this Address of G. H. Morgan's until I saw it ublished in the North American of this morning, and I never gaveat my concurrence. The whole and I never gavest my concurrence. The whole bing, therefore, so far as I am concerned, is a for-erry. In regard to the affidavit purporting to be signed by me, also published in the North Ameri-can of this mornig. I desire to say, it is entirely inferent from the one sworts to by me before David Harris Esq. The affidavit made by me before Squire Harris was merely in regard to the identity of face papers, and had no reference whatever to the Hon. I esse Miller and Henry Petriken, as Mr. Harris will vell remember. Further than this, I desire to say, that to the best of my knowledge and belief, Messra, fuller and Petriken never wrote any of the articles for the Champion referred to by the North American of the 23d inst.

- AUGUSTUS SPRIGMAN. Harrisburg, September 37, 1647, | certify, that the foregoing statement was volununly made and signed in my presence by Augustus WM. KLINE, J. P. Sprigman: Harrisburg, Sept. 27, 1847. Dauphin County,

To the Editors of the Democratic Union : I have seen the affidavit as published in the North American of this date, signed by G. H. Morgan and Augustus Sprigman, purporting to have been taken before me on the 6th of August, 1847. and desire to say that it is entirely different from the one sworn to before me; additions have been made to it since it was sworn to. DAVID HARRIS, J. P. was sworn to. Sept. 27, 1847. Dauphin County.

Editors of the Democratic Union ;

GENTLEMEN.-I have Just seen the North Ameri ican of this day, (23 inst.) and on examination of the articles published therein, purporting to be ex-tracts; taken from the "Champion," published in this place during the wipter of 1843-44, that I received certain designated communications from Jesse Miller Esq., and Col. H. Fertiken, and handed them to the Editor of the "Champion" for publication. I pronounce the charge to be a base ie. I never received any communications from either of those gentlemen to be handed to the Editor athe "Champion," or any other paper for publica-tion or otherwise. Those who have stated that I did, have done so at random, and they are wanton and malicious liars. I am, dec., Harrisburg, Sept. 23, 1847. C. SELIER.

Further Falschoods.

The North American attempts to support its' in famy, by declaring that the affidavit in its posses-sion is in the hand writting of David Harris Esq.-This is not true, The affidavit was not in Squire Harris's writing, but was written before it was taken to the Squire's office ; was only five or six lines in length refering merely to two papers, having no re-ference to Messrs. Miller and Petriken, as Augustus Sprigman certifies. Sprigman farther says, that it was signed having a blank of two inches or more between the body of the affidavit and the signatures which space we presume has since been filled up to suit the purposes of Federalism.-Dem. Union.

Yet Another Clincher.

Since the above was written, E. S. GERMAN, Esq., one of the Editors of the Democratic Champinn, from its origin to its discontinuance, has placed the following complete and indignant refutanon of the above slander in our hands. He speaks by authority, and from the record. Mr. GEBMAN is how a resident of Philadelphia, and is one of our most intelligent and respectable citizens.

Testimony of Mr. E. S. German of

Philadelphia. To the Editors of the Pennsylvanian : Gentlemen—My attention was called to an artide in the North American and United States Gazette of the 23d inst. over the signature of Seth Salisbury marzing Hon. JESSE MILLER and HENRY PETRIKEN with the authorship of certain articles against Hon. HENRY A. MULENBERS, published the Democratic Champion, of Harrisbug, during the campaign of 1843-'44. I happened to be connected with the paper directly after it was first started, till us discontinuance, and know the authors of all the ucles published from that time forward; and I am seady now to testify that to my certain knowledge lisss MILLER and HERRY PETRIKEN, in their jet

If they are sincerely and truly the friends of the Settler, why this pretended anxiety for the election of candidates upon the federal ticket! If they honestly believe the settler is oppressed and persecuted by the Landholder and speculator, why are they so anxious to secure the election of E.R. Myer, who has no interest in common with, or sympathy for, the settler-who never paid for an acre of land in his life, and who has publicly expressed his disapprobation of the law, passed last winter exempting a poor man's oxen from sale on execution.

If they really desire a Representative to pass laws restricting the quantity of land to actual settiers, and to prohibit the forced sale of a man's homestelld, why so clamorous for E. R. Myer, who has added to the wealth he inherited, by selling the homesteads of his neighbors on execution.

We assure our Democratic' friends that the master spirit, and great actor in this movement is an enemy to the cause of Democracy, and in full concert with the Federalists to defeat the Democratic candidates and destroy the organization of the Democratic party, in the county.

One of the most scurrilous articles published in the "Harrisburg Champion," in regard to the late Hon. RENEY A. MURLENDERS, was headed "The Blooded Parson." This article," with others, has been charged by several of the witnesses of the North American, upon the Hon. Jesse Miller. The onginal manuscript of the production having fortuthat place, it was at once ide stified, and on being substay shown to him, he admitted it was us HAND-substay shown to him, he admitted it was us HAND-substanting. Now, what will an honest community say to the al attempt, on the part of the Editors of the North man who was literally slandered to his death ! An bonest and indignant community will not permit such conduct as this to go " unwhipt of justicc."
