The leading purpose of this journal is, the discussion of the question of Slavery, and the advocacy of the main principles of the Liberty Party. Due attention is given to Social and Political Questions of general importance por are the interests of a Pure Enterature overloooked. It sime to preserve a faithful record of important events: of inventions or discoveries affecting the progress of Society; of public documents of permanent value; and, during the sessions of Congress, to present such reports of its proceedings; as will convey a correct idea not only of its action, but of its spirit, and policy. The debates on the exciting subjects of Slavery and the Mexican War, expected to arise in the next Congress, will occupy a large share of its columns.

Arrangements have been made for extending and ennching its already valuable Department of Home and Foreign Correspondence.
