Democratic County Convention.

Pursuant to notice given by the Democratic Standard Committee of Bradford County, the delegates elected in the respective election districts, met in Convention at Towanda, on Tuesday evening, Feb. 8, 1848, and organized by electing H. N. SALESBURY, President; Dr. EDWARD CHANDLER and S. E. ALVORD, Secretaries.

The following named persons then appeared, presented their credentials, and took their seats, as Delegates: Albany—Merrill W. Wilcox, James Wilcox; Armenia—J. B. Morgan; Ashtabula—J. P. Dodge, A. J. Stone; Athens—Benjamin S. Mathewson, Thomas Huston; ...

On motion, the Convention proceeded to the election of Delegates to the 4th of March Convention. WM. ELWELL, DAVID WILMOT, W. E. BARTON, and B. LAPORTE, were placed in nomination.

On motion, Resolved, That a majority of the whole number of votes given be required to elect. Moved, That we elect the Delegates separately. The vote stood as follows:

For David Wilmot—Messrs. M. W. Wilcox, J. W. Wilcox, J. B. Morgan, Dodge, Stone, Gardner, John Ross, M. Keam, Thomas, Owens, Furman, J. C. Morgan, Laporte, Homer, Blake, Smiley, S. W. Shepard, C. D. Ross, G. W. Elliott, Park, Merrill, J. P. Smith, Salsburg, Gibbs, Farar, A. S. Smith, Candall, Squires, Webb, Cramer, Mann, Brink, Brock, Barton, Amos, Pierce, Quick, Leonard, Sagar, Black, Mercer, J. A. Smith, DeLong, Patterson, Platt, Barnes, S. E. Shepard, Stephen, Russell, Multer, James, Bowen, Mosher, Alvord, Sibley, Dunham, Biles, Harry Elliott, Brown, and Benedict—59.

For William Ellwell—Messrs. Constant Mathewson, Huston, E. S. Mathewson, Wolcott, Egan, and Stephens—16.

BARTHOLOMEW LAPORTE, was, on the second ballot, elected as the other Representative Delegate, by a vote of 59, to 5 votes for Wm. E. Barton and 1 vote for William Ellwell.

On motion, the Convention proceeded to the selection of a Senatorial Delegate, and Ulysses Marcus was chosen, having 60 votes; William Ellwell, 5 votes.

The Convention then proceeded to the election of Senatorial Delegates to meet Congress from Tioga.

D. V. BARNES, and JOHN F. MEANS, were there upon unanimously elected Coadjutors, vice vice.

The following resolutions were then read and adopted, without a dissenting voice:—

Whereas, The Mexican Government having failed to pay the instalments due to our citizens, for depositions committed upon their property—having declared without any just right, that the annexation by the Government of the United States, of an independent Republic, should be heretofore refused to designate any boundary between Texas and Mexico—having indignantly rejected a minister appointed by our government for the settlement of all difficulties—having itself appealed to the sword, thereby leaving no alternative for the settlement of difficulties between the respective countries, but resort to arms, and whereas, at the commencement of hostilities his defensive position of our country, was recognized and acknowledged by the Constitutional Convention of 1845.

Resolved, That it is the duty of every American citizen to stand by his country in this emergency; and by word and action, encourage and support the Government in its efforts to secure an honorable peace, and vindicate the National character.

Resolved, That it would be little less than treason, to withhold at this juncture, the necessary supplies of men and money, to retain the advantages of Mexico already secured by our victorious armies, and to vigorously prosecute the war until Mexico grants to us, full indemnity for the past, and certain security for the future.

Resolved, That the officers and soldiers of our army, have won for themselves and their country, imperishable renown by their splendid and unparalleled victories in Mexico; nor till the pulsation of the national heart shall cease, will their heroic deeds cease to be cherished in grateful recollection.

Resolved, That we have rendered, and will continue to render, our united and zealous support, to the Democratic measures of the National Administration. That we yield to none, in our devotion to Democratic principles and usages.

Resolved, That the splendid triumph of the Democracy of Pennsylvania at the late State election, was a deserved commendation of the faithful public servants, who had with honesty and signal ability administered the State government, especially our unsullied executive, Gov. Schunk, for his noble adherence to correct principle, and his constitutional rights of the people; that by his talents, integrity, and fidelity he has earned for himself a proud distinction, and to those Pennsylvania voters, who have supported him, the honor of a national triumph. May the Democracy of the Nation be as fortunate in the selection of a standard bearer in the coming Presidential election, for the State of Pennsylvania as our country.

Hon. David Wilmot, an able, fair, and patriotic statesman; and emanating as they do, from papers, prospectively reflecting the views and sentiments of those whose influence, power and patronage extend throughout the country, and who are so aptly apprehended a concerned attempt to buy their way to the halls of Congress, and to the halls of all who regard and assert the principles of justice and equity of speech.

Resolved, That the recent letter of the Hon. David Wilmot to the Post Master General, protesting against his appointment to the Tioga Eagle, in preference to the recognized Democratic papers of this Congressional district, reflects the sentiments of the Democracy of this county; that so far from regarding the subject of that protest, as a personal matter between Mr. Wilmot and any other person, we should have considered him as a citizen, whose duty, had he withheld it, that it might be a Democratic principle in every great and noble cause, to stand by the side of the oppressed, and to stand by the side of the oppressed, and to stand by the side of the oppressed.

Resolved, That the Independent Treasury, now in successful operation, is the only constitutional and legitimate method for the safe keeping and disbursement of the public money; that the federal predictions against it, like the predictions of all false prophets, are exploded. The sagacity and ability of that great statesman, Martin Van Buren, who originated this measure, clearly is, that when the whirlwind and the storm of federalism had passed by, "the sober second thought of the people" would vindicate it.

Resolved, That our convictions of the high merits of the Tariff of 1846, have undergone no change; that its admirable operation fully sustains it as a revenue measure; while its rates of duties necessarily afford equal protection to all branches of industry, and that the exemption of a debt of obligation to the Hon. George M. Dallas, for his firmness and honesty, in the trying crisis, when by his casting vote, he signified his devotion to the rights of the people.

Resolved, That we are opposed to any system of Banking, which seeks to establish any standard of ability, as the basis for the redemption of Bank promises, other than that which will render them a sure equivalent to the constitutional currency of the country.

On motion, JOHN C. KNOX, Esq., of Tioga, was requested to address the Convention, and responded to the call, in an able speech, which was received by the Convention, by repeated applause.

G. A. GROW, Esq., of Susquehanna, was then called for, and addressed the Convention, with a spirited and eloquent speech.

After some remarks by U. MEANS, Esq., it was resolved that the proceedings published in the Democratic papers of the State, and the Convention, of Tioga, be adjourned.

The Pennsylvania in order to screen Mr. Buchanan from the charge of insulating and outraging the Democracy of this District, says that the principal if not the only competitor of the Eagle, for the post office advertisement, was the Reporter. This is about on a par with the remainder of its article.

The Erie Observer was recommended by every Democratic member of Congress from Pennsylvania, excepting Mr. Wilmot. It too, is an anti-Proslavery paper, of standing, circulation and influence.

The Reporter was urged by Mr. Wilmot, strongly recommended by members of the State Administration, and its standing and location favorably noticed by Senator Dickinson. Yet a few weeks after the Eagle raises his name for the Presidency, Mr. Buchanan gives the Postmaster General to understand that it was especially worthy of its patronage.

Its only recommendation was that it was in the "line of safe precedents" and it succeeded better than Mr. Buchanan will, though he may fancy himself, as Mr. Clay did, in the same situation—hereafter, let no one presume to ask for the advertisement of the mail routes; it is to be continued with the Eagle. If Old Zack should be the next President, that paper with the utmost facility, would be a firm friend of "Rough and Ready," four years hence, in order that the advertisement could be continued with it.

We publish below, an article from the Northern Democrat expressing its opinion of the late issue, offered to the Democracy of this district, in countenancing and sustaining the treachery of the Tioga Eagle. The manly and independent tone of the editor's remarks, are in striking contrast with the yelpings of those who bark only when the Pennsylvania bids.

PROSCRIPTION—TREASON REWARDED.—Below will be found an article from the "Bradford Reporter" entitled "The Reward." Every word of which is predicated upon facts, (of which we have not the slightest doubt,) we confidently endorse, and which is worthy the attention and serious consideration of our readers. If it has come to this, that honest, steadfast Democratic journals, which have stood as true to the party and its principles, through good and evil report, as the needle to the poles, must be proscribed because they do not pronounce the shibboleth of a few individuals in power, or emblazon the name, accompanied with the most insidious and denigrating eulogies, of our aspirant for the Presidency, while others, rotten with the slightest doubt, we confidently endorse, and which is worthy the attention and serious consideration of our readers. Never will we assist to strike down the man who strives for constitutional freedom. That we are unwearied, as we trust he is, by the influence which are at work to proscribe him.
