DISGRACEFUL RIOTS.—On Saturday and Sunday nights, our village, usually as orderly and quiet us any town in the State, was the scene of most brutal riots. Under this new whiskey impulse, groggeries have spring up and flourished among be, as though by enchantment; and our better citizens, oversived by their addacity have submitted to the nuisance in silence; until the evil, in its rankness and strength, as would seem, has turned upon itself, for its own destruction; and a civil war is raging among our groggeries and their customers. We gather the particulars from common report without roughing for their correctness, farther than relates to the damage done. The demonstration on Saturday night was upon Kelley's grocery on Franklin street. Late in the evening a gang of bloom attacked it with clubs and battering rams otherwise, hickory poles, slung endwise, demolished the doors and windows, above and below, (the upper part was occupied by Kelly's family,) destroyed the furniture and fixings; in short, completely gutted the building, leaving little else but the bare walls. The damage must have been some considerable: On Sunday night a like attack was emade on Landon's grocery, Centre Buildings, lower part of Court street, with similar results, but less clarabge to the building and property. In this attack, it is said that Kelley, who suffered the night before, was himself engaged; and we utiderstand that he is now under arrest. Scenes of outrage cannot be too severely condemned, and we trust that our authorities will see to it that they are not repeated, and that the actors are properly punished it cannot be disguised that the proper course would have been long since to have suppressed these nuisances. If we encourage or permit the growth of these volcanoes among us, we must expect an occasional explosion.

P. S.—Since the above was written, we under stand that Kelley, William McLeod, Lemuel Breed, Rufus Patterson and Nelson Gleason, have been ex-amined before Justices Boyd and Waterman, and bound over for trial, for participating in the riot of Sunday evening.—Binghamton Courier.

THE PARDONING POWER.—Governor Young of - New York stands a fair chance of acquiring an nneviable notoriety for his abuse of the pardoning hower. A list of pandons since he has been in of fice numbers one hundred and twenty-seven convicts, some of them the oldest and most determined reprobates living. In the list are no less than five murderers, eleven convicts of manslaughter in the first degree, eight of whom were sentenced for life and the balance made up of burglars, torgers, bigamists, robbers and thieves of every grade and deseription. This is a startling fact, and justifies the remark of the New York Courier, that the Governor would save time and trouble by opening the prison door at once. What is the use of the expense of prisons or police when the fear of either is removed by the almost certain exercise of misplaced executive clemency? This power, which was given wisely to be exercised only in doubtful cases, is mischieveously perverted when it becomes the in strument through which audacious rogues whose crimes have given them sufficient affluence to pnrchase pardons may be restored to society with all their civil rights.

GEN. TAYLOR seems determined to adhere to his resolution, not to visit any place but his own home during his leave of absence. 'He has just declined an invitation to visit the seat of government of Mississippi as the guest of that State. A committee of the Legislature waited upon him at his residence in Louisiana, and communicated the wishes of the Legislature. Gen. Taylor thanked the Legislature for its kindness, but declined the invitation, principally upon the ground that he obtained his leave of absence for the express purpose of visiting his family, from whom he had been tong seperated, and of attending to his private business, which had been much neglected. He also stated that he had reported himself to the Department at Wsahington, and that it would be improper for him to be absent himself long at a time, as important communications might be addressed to him in his absence.

MURDER IN POTTSVILLE.—About midnight on Sunday last, some sort of momentary collision occured between Jacob Garret and a young man, named Bertsch, in the street. It was but an instant and Garret was mortally stabled at the head of the spinal column or base of the brain. It was done so quickly, that two persons in company could not observe the act. The wounded man ran about one nd soon expired. Kiim and the beer shops, which have spread a pestilence in every direction, had something to do with this tragedy, as may be inferred from the midnight hours kept by the parties. The supposed perpetrafor was arrested and held to bail.

THE SHOE BUSINESS -The Haverhill (Mass) Banner has the following gratifiying statement as to the condition of the shoe business, in which is en-arged a good portion of the productive industry of Massachusetts: "Our manufacturers, and those who are employed in completing our staple com modity, have been exceedingly busy during a few months past, and a very large amount of shoes have been sent to market. We are told that 60,000 pairs of shoes were sent to Haverhill week before last, for the South and West, by order of patchasers, and large orders are continually filled by our manufact-

Cownming.-Two young men of Hyannis, had a falling out at an anti-slavery meeting in that place recently, and one of them having procured a covi-hide, gave the other a threshing. Having performed his work, he politely offered the cowhide to the flogged party that the latter might take his satisfaction in the same coin. The flogged, however, preferred making application to a magistrate who awarded him $10 smart money.

Horriere Munden.-The Cincinnati Chronicle says:-A gentleman from Millersburg informs us that on Sunday evening last, a young man, named Rankin, killed a Mr. Miller, his own nephew, by cutting his throat. Both the murderer and his victim were under the influence of ardent spirits when the bloody deed was committed. Rankin made his escape. We learn from the same source, that a Mr. Hibler was killed in Lexington, Ky., a few days since by a man whose name our informant rould not learn.

Consumption. The terrible disease is commonly attributed to our climate — But it the climate were to blame, the disease would have been inflicted on that, and not upon the people. We think the fault " in the the people and that if the people would keep the skins themselves and their children properly washed, and abstain rom gluttony, poison, and idieness for a generation or two conshiption would be no more known than is now, in good societhe disease for which cratching and sulphur are the princi

. However, consumption prevails as matters are, and picks off be best and prettiest of its. in our prime. In this state of things we must do the best we can, piece out and patch of the web of the, with journeys, voyages, and medicine. Of all the mediwies we know of, Dr. Wister's " Ba'sam of Wild Cherry" what we should first recognized. We have is our office a living proof of its efficacy, (who, but for it, would have been bethe sod long ago. The inventor of this medicine, Dr. Wistar was a fina of science of humahity, and undoubtedly prepared the remed) in its best form, and the public may rely upon Mr. Powle for the gengine article.
