Arrival of the Steamship Hibernia-State of the Markets-Reduction in the Rule of Interest-Improvenend in the Money Market -. Advance in Cotton-Decline in Grain-Additional Failures in Engloud and in Europe.

The intelligence by the Hibernia is one week laket than that received by the Sarah Sands. The Bank of England has reduced the rate of inicrest to four per cent.

A general insurrection has broken out in all the principal cities of Sicily and the troops were driven from Palermo by 20,000 citizens in arms. The hoicl of the British Consul was attacked, and the Engish colors torn down by the populace. There are - two frigates at Palermo for the protection of British

The King of Denmark did not die on the 19th, as reported but he was so bad on the 20th that he was not expected to survive many hours.

Espartero has returned to Spain, and was received with the most frantic demonstrations of applause by all the people. He has taken his seat in the Sen-

English intelligence is very scanty at present and is like to continue so until the sitting of Parli-

Little or no improvement can be noticed as having taken place upon the advices per Sarah Sands in the general state and prospects of trade, although the money-market has become still more easy, chiefly for discounts of a first class character, and the national securities continue to maintain an upward tendency.

During the past week, the value of breadstuffs thro'out the kingdom has further declined, and the demand from the interior been more than usually languid. Operations for a fortnight have been wholly confined to demands for immediate consumption; without the slightest disposition to enter upon anything approaching a prospective invest-ment or speculation.

The following, showing the latest quotations, inheates a further, though not material, decline in the value of wheat and flour, and in Indian corn and corn meal a somewhat amended feeling. The improving of these articles, at the same time, cannot be said to descend from superior qualities, while the general demand is by no means active.

, U.S. SENATOR FROM MARVLAND.—The Legisla-ture of Maryland, on Thursday, re-elected Mr. Pearce to to the U.S. Senate, Mr. Clagett then submitted the following order :

Ordered. That it be entered upon the journal (of the House) that Thomas $M_{\rm g}$ Clagett, a Delegate trom Prince George's county, protests against the rejection James A. Pearce the United States Senate.

Because he thinks the sentiments expressed by suid Pearce in a speech delivered in the U. S. Senate, January 17th, 1848, upon the Mexican war, are unpatriotic and against the feelings of a large majority of the people of the State.

Secondly, because, by his re-election, this Legis lature will endorse the opinions expressed by said Pearce in said speech; and thereby give aid and comfort to the enemies of our country.

FAMINE IN THE WEST OF IRELAND .- A letter written in the county of Slige, Ireland, on the 4th ult. says-

"It is a most merciful part that the good people of the United States are taking of the poor of this district. The people of this part of the country are really worse off than they were this time twelve months ago. Then there were large sums of money collect-ed for them, and yood purchased and distributed; but now nothing is done for them. The poor-houses are filled to suffocation, and thousands of creatures, half-naked, are running about, having nothing to eat but rare turneps, which they steat from the fields !--The very worst apprehensions may be conceived as the consequences of such food. We may well expect another season of fever and dysentery, and swedled limbs.

FIRES .- A fire broke out, on Sunday the 6th inst., in the residence of Miss Lydia Thompson, at Jersev Shore, and totally destroyed it, with most of imiture. Loss about $400. No insurance. the same place, on the morning of the 8th, the Arrade of Capt. R. Crayne, was discovered to be on nre, but it was soon extinguished without serious damage.

BUCKS AND LEHIGH COUNTIES .- Our Democratic

Consumption. There is, perhaps, no disease with which our country is strengthed, which sweeps off namnally so many victures as that feeded, which sweeps off namnally so many victures as that feeded, which sweeps off he human race-Consumption. Bay after Day, year after year, the insatigue mensue had victures to the por-uest of the cold and silent touch fresh added victures to its con-quest. No walk of life is sucred from its blighting influence. No mark is exceeded to the source of the source of the source middle aged and the young: all alike, ore food for this common energy of mankind. The boary patriarch, whose life of tem-perance has rendered his system impervious to the attacks of other ills, and whose good devis prepared hum for the enjoy-ment of life's calm evening, finds Consumption fastening its fange appen his vitals, and tearing him from sworld ever bright to minds which look complacently of days well spent. Is there ito help for the afflicted ? No preventive of tho dan-gers which best us in our changeable and fickle clime ? We think there is. And if the allegations of those who are at least entitled to veracity, may be believed there is a preventive and s remedy. With a Balaxm of Wild Change is a forced to a sufficiency. Consumption.

"Multed to verseity, may be believed users a suffering s remedy. Wistor's Balsam of Wild Cherry is offered to a suffering world as such. It needs not the "adventions sud" of a long string of factitions certificates to give it notoriety. Its true val-ue and intrinsic excellence are sufficient to entitle it to the confidence of the public and to "Wait on to fame" "he ware of its henefactor of his species.
