ported rity of the delegates in each district, be adopted as delegates and electors. Mr LESLEY moved to strike out the foregoing and insert the following, "that the reports of the delegates and electors be considered separately by Congressional districts, commencing with the first and continuing in numerical order. Mr. LOWRY moved to strike out the amendment, and insert 14 that the report of the majority of each delegation be adopted and their choice of delegates and elector be confirmed." Atter considerable discussion in which Messrs, Lowry, Wilmot and M'Calmant participated, the Convention adjourned until 24 o'clock.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The Convention met again at 21 o'clock.

After discussion, in which Messis, Lealey, Low ry. Galloway and M Calmant participated. The amendment to the amendment was disa greed to-yeas 62, nays 66. Mr. WILMOT moved to strike out Mr. Lesley's amendment, and insert that those delegates and electors who are presented unanimously by the delegates from the respective Congressional districts be confirmed by the Convention, ' After a discussion in which Messre. Wilmot M'Clamant, Riley, Brewer, Lesley, Penniman and Hickman participated, the amendment of Mr. WIL-MOT, was agreed to yeas 70, mays 58. The amendment as amended was adopted, and the resolution as amended, agreed to. Mr. LOWRY moved that all the delegates repor ted by majorities of delegates be accepted as the delegates to the Baltimore, which was agreed to.

The following letter from the Hon. George M. Dallas was read, and on motion of Mr. LOWRY it was ordered to be entered on the minutes of the Convention.

WASHINGTON, Fcb: 26; 1848.

MY DEAR SIR :- The 4th of March, is close upon us. I have, heretofore, taken no part in prepara-tion made for the Convention to be held on that day scillarrisburg. It has, however, been impossible for me to avoid perceiving that much excitement prevaled; and I have supposed that under existing cir-cunstances, it would not be deemed intersive, if I ventured to address to you a few frank words on the subject.

The arrangements for party combination, can only be justified by the patriotic public objects at which they aim. They should be sternly kept sub-ings, in accordance with their own sense of right ings, in accordance whit their own setter of a setter and expediency. Of course, on a topic of public concern, like this I can have no desire to concert what this to feel and you are entirely at liberry to all this letter as you please;

you please, I am, dear sir, very smoorely, And most respectfully, Your friend and section, E. A. PENNIMAN, Esq. G. M. DALLAS. On motion of Mr. THOMPSON, Timothy, Ivers

The chair then appointed the following committee to superintend the publication of the proceedings of this Convention : Messrs. Penniman, Lesley, Jack, Whallon, and Gilmore

Mr. CURREN, on the part of one portion of the delegation from Lancaster-that delegation being equally divided presented their name of Sam I C. Stambangh, for delegate, and Henry Halder-man for elector for the Eight district.

Mr. JOHNSTON, from the other division of the delegation, presented the name of Christian Bach-man, for delegate, and Dr. F. A. Thomas, for elec.

tor for the same district. After a discussion in which Mesers. JOHNSON, STAMBAUGH, and FRAZER participated. Mr. STAMBAUGH willdrew his name, and nominated Christian Bachman, as the delegate for the 8th district.

Mr. LOWRY moved that Mr. Bachman be accepted : which was agreed to. Mr. JOHNSON withdrew the name of Mr.

Thomas, and submitted Henry Haldeman in his place.

Mr. HALDEMAN was then unanimodely elected Elector for the 8th district. Adjourned until 8 o'clock.

EVENING SESSION. On motion of Mr. LESLEY, a committee of fi-nance was appointed to collect funds to defray the expenses of the Convention.

Mr. HUTTER submitted the following resolution which was adopted : Resolved. That a committee of five be appointed to inform Isreal Painter, that he has been nominated by this Convention, as the Democratic candi date for Canal Commissioner: Whereupon Win H. Hutter, Samuel C. Stambaugh, C. Carmony, A. Smith M Kinney and John L. Dawson, were appointed said committee. Mr. WALTERS moved the following resolution Resolved, That committe of five be appointed to report to this Convention a suitable system of nominating State and county officers. Mr. LOWRY moved to lay the resolution on the table, which was agreed to. [The Resolutions and Address will appear in our next.] .

piecges himself are made in the most duruble, fashion-able, and workmanlike manner. The demand for his style of Clothing having increas-ed to so great an axtent, he has found it necessary to enlarge his business, and takes pleasure in saying to the bundreds who called upon him last year with the cash in their hands, and could not get the goods, (because they were all sold ahead) that now be has enough for them and for all. Those dealing in the article will find it greatly to their advantage to buy of this house, for they will be able, not only to sell their customers a well made, fash ionable, and gentrel garment, but at a price lower than they have been selling before, and leaving a lorge profit themselves.

to themselves. To those yead do not deal in the article, but sell the goods in the piece, NOW IS TOUR TIME. Already your Cloth sales is a dropping off, and soon they will entirely cease; and some one more wise than yourself, seeing which way the trade is going, will be selling CLOTHING. It MUST and WILL BE SOLD in EVERY VILLAGE IN AMERICA within two years, (for this reason) your customers can get a better and more genteel garment, ready made, than to measure: and at three fourths the price. You can now have the selling. N. B. Country Merchants all of you call and satis-

our country in our efforts to secure for it a government administered upon Democratic principles," It is this design which enobles every exertion; and we cannot lose sight of it, without incurring more pfless of danger and dishonor: because Democracy is pariotism ;-the Convention is created to unite, invigorate, and forward Democracy. Now it will not do, on light reasons, to permit this great purpose to be defeated. It is true, Pennsylvania is but one of thirty States, and the Harrisbirg Convention can do no more than to provide for our stuitable representation at the Baltimore Convention. But we know that the force of the Demogracy of Pennsylvania, on that occasion at least is indispensible to the Democracy of the Union.

Pliat a national overthrow is inevitable, if the State be disorganized, and that we virtually surrender what we esteem to be the cause of the people and the country, to its adversaries, when we fail to keep in full vigor and efficiency, our local ranks .---We must stand guard upon ourselves to prevent the whole from being lost. The fall of the Keystone, could never be more ruinous to the arch.

It is not my wish-neither is it in my power-to influence, in the slightest degree, the actual condi-tion of political preferenceing our Commonwealth. My, name was brought before the people of the Union, in a manner that places is entirely beyond my control; and it must accept, without the smallest interposition from me, one way or the other. whatever fate this wide-spread tribunal shall as-ign to it. But those of my fellow-citizens in Pennsyl vania, who, like yourselves, honor it with counter nance, will. I trust, look indulgently upon express-ing the sentiment, that bothing—at least nothing that can reasonably be anticipated, should for a moment, be entertained, as a justifying cause for any action by a part of the Convention, which might weaken, in the estimation of the general Democracy, the weight of its proceedings and recommendations. It is easy to find, flaws in the regularity of party action; and every day's experience proves how difficult, if not impractical, a thing it is to conform strictly to precedents and usages in matters of this kind.

Certainly it is most wise, most just, and most safe at times of animated competition, to follow, without deviation, a recognized bea en track ; but if this be not done-were there even obvious and ungenerous departures from modes of proceeding heretofore deemed safe-guards to pure and equal representation, (departures which it is almost ungenerous to imagine)-still, I am un willing that redress should be sought in separation and conflict. Such a remedy, however ligitimate and promising it may seem. is worse than the disease. A majority may do wrong, but it does not follow that the minority would therefore be right in exposing to imminent peril, for their, own immediate vindication, the steat cause of the country. Let that cause never be forkotton; let its vast importance override minor considerations; and let it triumph, whoever may be unimately, its standard-bearer. Let not your brethren throughout the contederacy have grounds to reproach you with ill-timed and latal pride cf opin-

I speak under lessons of experience. The evils of antagonist organization are always most serious, and its heart burnings seldom, if ever, cured. None of us should forget that the State has scarcely yet recovered from the last of these Democratic ruptures, which led difficulty to the re-charter of the Bank of the United States, a fierce Legislative inquisition, and an attempt to nullify the result of a general election, even at the risk of a civil war.-For my own part, I can see nothing more than this; and while f shall calmly abide the course of acti-n you may think it proper to pursue, yet do I feel it to be a duty imposed upon me by my relations to National, as well as to the State Democracy most-
