BETSY ROCKWELL, Administrators LAW HOTTLE

THE subscriber proposes to attend to law business hereafter, on the following terms: He will try suits n the Common pleas, before arbitrators and justices, and will make no charge for service unless his client succeeds in the suit. From experience and observation he is of the opinion that if an attorney is sufficiently convinced of the justice and practicability of his client's cause to recommend a suit or defence, he should be villing to risk his fees on the result of the cause; and f in any cuse he is unwilling to incur the risk, he cannot consistently plunge his client into the expense and uncertainty of a lawsuit by his advice. Collections of every description will be attended to upon the same terms. Conveyancing and other kinds of office business done promptly and at reasonable charges. Office in the North end of brick Row over the Post office, west side of main street, Towards.
