Opinion of a Regular Physician.

Exeter, Me., Sept. 30, 1945. This certifies that I have recommended the use of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry for diseases of the Lungs, for two years past, and many bottles to my knowledge have been used by my patients, all with beneficial results. In two cases where it was thought confirmed consumption had taken place, the Wild Cherry affected a cure.

The unparalleled & astonishing efficacy of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry in all the diseases for which it is recommended, curing many cases after the skill of the best physicians was unavailing, has affected a large and increasing demand for it. This fact has caused many unprincipled counterfeiters and imitators to palm off spirious mixtures of similar name and appearance, for the genuine Balsam.

Be careful and get the genuine DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY. None genuine unless signed by I. BUTTS. Address all orders to SETH W. FOWLE, Boston, Mass.

Dyspursta -This, distressing complaint is a weakness of the digastive organs, caused by impurity of the blood. The gas-tric, juce, a fluid peculiar to the stomach, when secreted from thad blood, is deficient in those solvent properties which are of such importance to digestion. Consequently the food, instead of being dissolved, often becomes spot ed or putrified in the stomach; hence bad breath, sour belching costiveness, pains in the stomach, colic, dysentery, and other dreadful complaints. Married.

By the Rev. Samuel Fisher Colt, on Wednesday, April 5th, Mr. WILNOT COBURN, of Springhill, to Miss Nancy A. Lewis, of Wyalusing.

Died,

At the residence of Burton Kingsbery, in this boro', on Monday morning last, of congestion of the lungs, MARY ANN GRANGER, aged 19 years.

At Athens, in this county, on Monday evening, the 10th inst., CLARENCE, son of the Hon. D. Wilmot. of this borough, aged 10 years, 6 months.

For one so young, the subject of this notice com bined in an unusual degree, all those endearing qualities which interest, engage and captivate the mind. Gentle in disposition, modest in deportment, and kind and submissive in his manners, he had, unconsciously and without effort won the affections of all who knew him. He was the favorite of his playmates, and the admiration of those ripened in years.

In the expansive brightness of his intellect, and the 4601 manly qualities of his young mind, his parents saw, in prospective, a field for consolation and joy in the society of the son, as he ripened into manhood, and hope and comfort from his protection in their declining years. But he is gone-cut down in an hour, like the rose-bud that expands in the morning and withers before the setting sun.

He had been placed, by his parents, at school, under the charge of the Misses Robb's, in a retired spot on the bank of the Susquehanna, a few-miles above the village of Athens, where be was believed to be more free from accident and danger than he could possibly be in the tumultuous and busy scenes incident to a village; and where he was enjoying the best advantages in the progress of his studies. But none can foresee or divert the inscrutable ways of Providence!! On the afternoon of the day on which he died, being permitted with his playmates to stroll into a field for a few moment's recreation they found and ate of the cicuta or poison hemlock the effects of which are known to be a deadly poison; convulsions ensued, and in less than three hours the spirit of little CLARENCE took its flight to

The sudden and awful manner of his death came with peculiar severity upon his parents—his father being at Washington, and his mother here—both resting in conscious security that their boy was as safe as the prudence of paternal affection could provide. The news was telegraphed from Owego to Mr. W., and he arrived here on Friday last, in time only to gaze upon the marble features of his son, and to be present when his remains were consign-

In Le Raysville, Bradford County, Ps., on Tuesday afternoon, April 4th, 1848, of Pulmonary Consumpnine months, Mrs. Margaret W., wife of Jesse E. Bullock Esq., in the 32nd year of her age. The deceased was born in Sharon, Conn., A. D. 1816, and in a little more than one year the family of which she was a member, removed to Bradford County, Pa.; where from her strict integrity and high moral worth, she gained the affection and esteem of all who knew her. About nine years since, she was hopefully converted to the Saviour. During her protracted illness, she had all the attention that kind friends and medical aid could bestow; but it could not do : death had marked her for his own. But for her he had no terrors.—The faith she had in her Saviour conquered all fear. In her death her husband has lost a faithful and affectionate wife; her child a devoted mother, and society a member whose loss cannot be repaired: but what is, loss to her friends and relatives, is her eternal gain. Another has been taken from earth—one more has been added to the bright hosts of heaven. Her virtues are her most exalted eulogy, and will be held in the in the most lasting and endearing remembrance.

One by one love's links are broken, One by one our friends depart. Voices that have kindly spoken, Heart that thobb'd to kindred heart.

Thanks to God, this parting, paining, Weans the heart from earthly ties: Life's night of sorrow, darkly waning,

Will break in morn beyond the skies. Weep not over hopes departed Seek not here the scattered band; Soul of mine, rouse up! look forward

To the glorious spirit land !" At Troy township, of the kick of a horse, on the 26th ult., CHARLES S. MORSE, son of Capt. Solonon Morse, in the 19the year of his age.

Pew deaths have produced a greater shock in this community than the death of this young man. He lived only about 30 hours after the accident happend. He has been a very remarkable young person for his industry, solviety, soundness of international contractions of the statement of the soundness of the statement of the soundness of the statement of the statement of the soundness of the statement son for his industry, sobriety, soundness of judg-ment, discretion, peaceable disposition, and respecful treatment of all with whom he associated. A better young man cannot be found in this country. His acquaintance may mitigate their sorrows by the remembrance of his virtues.

At Alba, Bradford county, on 25th March, Sally Maria, wife of Col Irad Wilson, in the 45th year

Mrs. Wilson was beloved by all who knew her and has left a kind companion and a large family to mourn their irreparable loss. May the remaining parent have grace and manly fortitude to sus tain his severe loss, and to train up his children in the fear of the Lord, that they may all meet again in Heaven. The funeral was attended on the folowing day, and a large consourse of friends and neighbors followed the departed christian to the grave, who deeply sympathise with the bereaved

HEMORRHOIDS OR PILES. INTERNAL AND EXTERNAL PREMARENTLY CURED By Dr. Upham's Vegetable Electuary, A A INTERNAL REMEDY, which, if used sccooling to directions, a cure for life is guaranteed.

A counting consequence of this effection is a kind of tenestues, or busing down seneration, as if is familiarly called; thate is also heat, 'emisor and throbbing in the part, varying from a moderate degree of these senerations to the most extensioning sufficing;—these are caused by the great flow of bleed to the parts. Sometimes the inner coat of the breefs protrudes at every evacuation, forming what is called Prolapses or falling of the bowels; this is the effect of long continued irritation and weakness of that organ. In some management tation and weakness of that organ. In some mutaners the patient experiences nervous pains, which are indiscribable, and known only to the sufferer, which comnence immediately after an evacuation, and continu from thirty minutes to several hours; these sensations are very atmoying and sometimes very distressing .-This disease, when of long continuance, is attended by pain and weakness in the back, irritation of the kidneys and bladder, and other organs in the ricinity, pain and numbress in the legs and feet, a sense of straightness about the chest, and unnatural fullness of the abdominal viscers, accompanied with pelpitation of the heart and oppression, individuals sometimes experience, previous to an attack of the Piles, symptons denoting great derangement in the circulation; there is a sense of weight and pressure in the abdomen, with a peculiar feeling of uneasiness in the bowels, constipution of perinsum, attended with pain in the back and foins, names, and slight pains in the stomach, pale countenance, confused sensations in the head, weariness, and irritable and discontented state of the mind, and a sense of fullness and oppression in the region of the stormech.— The circulation on the surface is feeble, and the current of blood determined inward and downwards. FOR ALL OF THE ABOVE DIBEASES AND COMPLAINTS

Houson, December 11, 1646. Genra. -- I have used Dr. Upham's Vegetable Pile Electuary which I purchased of you and find it one of the best medicines in use for the piles, and also for all billious affections, arising from arr impure state of the system. Yours, &c. E. A. Corz, Marble Desire.

UNITED STATES MESSICE'S CHITCE, 7

New York, Dec. 8, 1847. §

MESSIC. WEATT & KETCHAN—Gestlemen:—Unof Dr Uphen's Vegetable Electuary, for the cure of Piles, I have deemed it my duty to voluntees a recommendation in behalf of that invaluable medicine. I have been afflicted for many years with piles, and have tried various remedies but with no leneficial effects—I heren to consider my consider my consider my consider. began to consider my case sitterly hopeless. But about the first of September last, I was prevailed upon by a friend to make a trial of the above named medicine. I took his advice and rejoice that I am not only relieved, out, as I believe, perfectly cured. I most earmestly recommend it to all who may have the misfortune to be afflicted with that annoying and dangerous disease.

Very respectfully, your ob't an ant.

REMARKABLE CURE OF PILES!! THIRTY YEARS STANDING!! MOUNT WASHINGTON, Berkshire Co. (Mass.) Nov. 29, 1847. Munte. Wtarr & Kercuan-Genta: Por thirty years I have been afflicted with piles, general debility years the best amiced with price, general decirity and inflamation, catesing tamors and prolapsus of the bowels, and which had resisted all the medical freatment Dr. Chapman and others could give. The last three years of that time my sufferinge defy description. I was confined to bed, unable to help myself, and at last given up by my phisicians and friends in despair of ever gaining my health; in fact for three days before I was entirely speechless and my basis clothes were made. Dut under Provilence, and the sac of Dr. Upham's Electury, though an our was I have the pleasure of station the near to the made to the pleasure of station the near to the made to the pleasure of station the near to the made to the pleasure of station the near to the made to the province of station the near to the same of station the near to the same of station the same of station the same of stations the same of station the same of same ure of stating the reer to the public that my health is now good, and hope to live many years, if it is God's will, to make known the virtues of Dr. Upham's Electvary, and to recommend it to my afflicted fellow creatures. It helped me beyond the expectations of all that knew my case, and I only say to others that it is, in my opinion, the best medicine in the world for Piles, of any other disease of the bowels; and if they will use it ac-

in every case. Yours, with the utmost expression of thankfullness. CORNELIUS SPUR.
