The storm was terrific on Lake Ontario on that day. At 9 o'clock, A. M., of that day, the magnifi-cent steamer Niagara left Oswego for Rochester with 100 passengers, including a number of ladies. The gale rose, and continued to increase in violence until she got within about four miles of the pier at the mouth of the river, when the rudder of the steamer was carried away, and the boat became unmanageable. An attempt was made by force of steam to run the boat inside the pier, but there being nothing to steer with, it failed. By means of ropes, and chains, &c. a temporary rudder was con-structed, and a second and third attempt was made to gain the river, but without success; and the cap-tain then gave orders to put out into the Lake, in order that they might have abundance of sea-room. The wind was now blowing a perfect hurricane the boat rocking to and fro, and the waves dashing every instant over the deck. When the boat had got about 8 miles from shore, to increase their perils the smoke-pipe was carried away, and as a consequence the fire had to be put out. This was about 6 o'clock P. M. Without steam to propel or rudder to guide the boat, it will be readily supposed that the alarm on board was great, which was doubly increased by plunging of the boat, the rattling of the broken mirrors and dishes, the dashing back and forth of sofas, settees, chairs, tables, stands, &c., as the steamer rocked to and fro by the viodence of the wind, while the waves continued to pour an avalanche of water in at every aperture The situation was indeed one of extreme peril.— The passengers were enabled to walk with the greatest difficulty, and in most cases were obliged to go upon their hands and knees in passing back

The anchor was immediately thrown overboard. and for some three or four hours the boat continued to drift with the wind and waves, being driven towards the shore, until about 3 o'nlock yesterday morning, she grounded violently, about half a mile west of the pier and some fifteen or twenty rods from the shore, where she now lies almost a complete wreck. The passengers were kept upon the constant watch throughout the night, many of them suffering intensely from the water and cold. About sunsise yesterday morning they were all safety landed on the shore by means of a yawl, and proporly cared for by families residing near at hand.-For twenty-four hours they had not tasted a mouthful of food, and during a portion of that time had been drenched to the skin with water.

The Niagara was a magnificent craft, and one o the best, if not the best sea boat on the lake. She was built only three years since, and is valued at

A DARING OUTRAGE IN CHESTER COUNTY .- Early on Tuesday morning last, about three o'clock, three persons entered the dwelling of Zebulon Thomas, Esq., in Downingtown, Chester county, and pro-ceeded to the third story, where a colored woman and her daughter lodged and attempted to apprehend them. A scuffle ensued; the woman got loose from them, made her way down stairs into Mr. Thomas' chamber, and alarmed him. He immediately arose, and before he had finished dressing, heard scuffling in the entry. He went out and iscovered the men forcing the girl forward, she fighting and resisting with all her strength. He at-tempted to enterfere but was overpowered, by violence and threats, the men being armed, and they succeeded in taking the girl to a vehicle—(they had two) -and carried her off. Mr. Thomas completal dressing himself, got on a horse, started in pursuit, and came on as far this place, when he con-cluded that they must have taken a different route, probably down the Brandywine road. From what we have learned, we think it probable that the colored woman and girl are runaway slaves. It may be: that the persons who thus acted, were the owners or their agents. But, admitting all this, such a daring and outrageous invasion of a man's domicil. as they perpetrated, cannot be palliated or excused, and deserves the severest condemnation.—

DREADFUL MURDER IN SOUTH EASTON.—On Mon day, the 23rd instant, between eleven and twelve o'clock, James Craven and Richard Link, (both men of families) entered Mr. Depew's Hotel in South Easton. Zink called for something to drink at the bar, and at the same time drew several coins from his pocket, and held them loosely in his hand; Craven snatched the money out of Zink's hand and showed no disposition to return it atterwards. He finally gave it back, and said that Zink "ought not to get mad, they had always been good friends." Zink replied that if he was a friend should behave like one, and repeatedly told him to go away,-that he wanted nothing to do with him, and that if he did not, he would knock lum down. Zink approached Craven, when the latter walked out of the door, Zink gave him a blow with his fist, which stunned him, and he staggered and fell. Zink aimed a second blow. but missed and making a missistep, fell about two yards away. -He got up however, and jumped on Craven's body, then pounded him about his head, with his fists. Whilst in this bending attitude, Craven drew a pistol from his pocket, and discharged it contents into chest of Zink. The ball entered between the fourth and fifth ribs, shattering the fourth, entirely breaking the fifth, and injuring the sixth. It ledged under the skin of his back, over nine inches from the place where it had entered. After he had been shot, Zink still gave Craven several blows and when dragged away, said: "Let me go, he got my blood and I'll have his." The wound bled prousely from vessels in the cavity of the Chest, which could not be arrested by any surgical means, not-withstanding that Doctors Slough, Stout. Abernethy and Wagener were upon the spot in less than ten mutes after the wound had been received. He died at half past eight o'clock on the evening of the same day. Craveu has since been arrested and is awaiting his trial.

IRON WORKS IN JERSEY .- West Jersey is rapidadvancing in its iron business. There are now twelve furnaces, yielding 12,000 tons of iron per annum; and in Bergen and Morris counties sixtythree forges, which make annually 3,000 tons bloomery bar iron. Every year new improvements are introduced in the manufacture, which reduces the price, and, of course, adds to the con-

Dr. Fowle:—During the past year, my daughter was ack of a fever about two or three months: this left her in a low and feeble state, she then was attacked with a most violent and severe cough, raised daily large quantities of very bad corrupted matter, accompanied with considerable blood. She was affilieted with great pain in the side and breast—this continued for several months, until she was reduced almost to a skeleton. During this time she was under the care of good and skilful physicians, who done their best, but did not remove the symptoms, which appeared to be fatal Consumption, and which threatened every day to carry her off. At last, a friend who had been afflicted with a very lasd cough for several years, told me he was effectually cured with Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, and recommended my daughter to try it. Shed do so, and when she had taken a single bottle she began to improve. I then told her physician that my daughter was using Wistar's Balsam. He replied, very well. I think it a good preparation—keep on, it will not hurt her. She continued to use it until she was restored to good health. I believe it saved my daughter's life, and do not hesitate to recommend others who are afflicted as my daughter was, to try it. Richard Terraku.

No other medicine has ever been introduced to the public that has met with such unparalelled success, as Dr. Soule's ORIENTAL SOVEREIGN BALM PILLShaving been but six years before the public, and the advertising small, yet they have worked their way into every state in the Union and Canadas. They have absolutely become the Standard Medicine of the day.— They are purely vegetable, and so admirably compount ed that when taken in large doses they speedily cure acute disease, on the strongest constitutions, such as bilious diseases, and when they are taken in small doses they operate like a charm upon the most delicate, nervous female, and have raised numbers from their beds after all others remedics had failed. We here refer to but few of the many miraculous cures effected by the Spinal Affection.—Anna Wood, of Rutland, Jeff. co. N. Y., was cured, after she had been confined to her bid 5 years, with Spinal disease and Abcess of the Lungs. The bill of her regular physician, (Dr. Johnson, of Clay) had amounted to $600. See circulars.
