

Bradford Reporter. E. O. GOODRICH, EDITOR.

Towanda, Wednesday, August 9, 1848.

DEMOCRATIC NOMINATIONS.

FOR PRESIDENT, Gen. LEWIS CASS, of Michigan. FOR VICE-PRESIDENT, Gen. W. O. BUTLER, of Kentucky.

FOR CANAL COMMISSIONER, ISRAEL PAINTER, OF WESTMIDLAND COUNTY.

COMMITTEES OF VIGILANCE.—The Democratic Standing Committee of Bradford County, have appointed the following Committees of Vigilance for the several election districts of said county.

They hereby call a Convention of Delegates from the several districts of said county, to meet at the borough of Towanda, on MONDAY, the 21st day of AUGUST next, to elect delegates to the State Convention at Harrisburg, on the 30th of August, to nominate a candidate for Governor.

The Committees of Vigilance will call meetings in their respective districts, for the purpose of electing said Delegates to the County Convention, on SATURDAY, the 19th day of August next.

- Albany—Dyer, Ormsby, Joseph Meador; Amos—Robert Mason, Isaac Williams; Asylum—Elmer Horton, Francis Romet; Athens borough—J. E. Canfield, George Park; ...

We cannot impress too earnestly, the necessity of vigilance, on the part of the Democracy of Bradford. Two Conventions are to be held. The first, on the 21st of this month; the second, on the first Tuesday of September next, the usual time for holding our annual Convention for nominating a county ticket.

Free Soil Meeting.—In another column may be found the proceedings of the Free Soil Meeting held in this borough, on Saturday last. The meeting though held in the busiest time of the Farming, was respectable in numbers, and in character.

Free Soil Meeting.

Report to a well published in the Reporter, the friends of Free Soil, Free Labor and Free Speech, met at the Court House, in the borough on Saturday, Aug. 6, 1848, and organized by electing George H. Burr, as president, and appointing the following Vice Presidents and Secretaries:

Vice Presidents: David Brink, Earl Nichols, A. F. Elliot, Jeremiah Kilmer, C. G. Gridley, Thomas Motzert, J. Briddison, Wiley Brewster.

Secretary, Edward Grandall, Franklin Blackman. On motion, the following named gentlemen were appointed committees to report resolutions, expressive of the feeling and views of the meeting:

Resolved, That we rejoice in the conviction that our exertions in favor of contributing to the extension of free soil and the perpetuation of free labor will ultimately be crowned with success, and that we are impressed with the solemn truth that Congress has the power to legislate for the United States, to organize governments and to prescribe laws for the inhabitants therein in all matters of local or domestic concern, and the wide spread domain, consisting of Oregon, Upper California and New Mexico, embracing one thousand miles between the Rio Grande, shall ever be the abode of Free Men and Free Labor and that our exertions as freemen shall never cease until that is accomplished.

Resolved, That while we believe slavery to be a curse, a foul blot and a stain upon that sacred instrument, the Declaration of Independence, and that while we are impressed with the solemn truth that Congress has the power to legislate for the United States, to organize governments and to prescribe laws for the inhabitants therein in all matters of local or domestic concern, and the wide spread domain, consisting of Oregon, Upper California and New Mexico, embracing one thousand miles between the Rio Grande, shall ever be the abode of Free Men and Free Labor and that our exertions as freemen shall never cease until that is accomplished.

Resolved, That we rejoice in the conviction that our exertions in favor of contributing to the extension of free soil and the perpetuation of free labor will ultimately be crowned with success, and that we are impressed with the solemn truth that Congress has the power to legislate for the United States, to organize governments and to prescribe laws for the inhabitants therein in all matters of local or domestic concern, and the wide spread domain, consisting of Oregon, Upper California and New Mexico, embracing one thousand miles between the Rio Grande, shall ever be the abode of Free Men and Free Labor and that our exertions as freemen shall never cease until that is accomplished.

Resolved, That we rejoice in the conviction that our exertions in favor of contributing to the extension of free soil and the perpetuation of free labor will ultimately be crowned with success, and that we are impressed with the solemn truth that Congress has the power to legislate for the United States, to organize governments and to prescribe laws for the inhabitants therein in all matters of local or domestic concern, and the wide spread domain, consisting of Oregon, Upper California and New Mexico, embracing one thousand miles between the Rio Grande, shall ever be the abode of Free Men and Free Labor and that our exertions as freemen shall never cease until that is accomplished.

The Position of General Taylor in Relation to Free Territory.

Some Taylor papers at the North, with an undignified disregard of truth, represented in the months of past winter, enemies to represent General Taylor as a friend of the Wilmot Proviso.

Resolved, That we rejoice in the conviction that our exertions in favor of contributing to the extension of free soil and the perpetuation of free labor will ultimately be crowned with success, and that we are impressed with the solemn truth that Congress has the power to legislate for the United States, to organize governments and to prescribe laws for the inhabitants therein in all matters of local or domestic concern, and the wide spread domain, consisting of Oregon, Upper California and New Mexico, embracing one thousand miles between the Rio Grande, shall ever be the abode of Free Men and Free Labor and that our exertions as freemen shall never cease until that is accomplished.

Resolved, That we rejoice in the conviction that our exertions in favor of contributing to the extension of free soil and the perpetuation of free labor will ultimately be crowned with success, and that we are impressed with the solemn truth that Congress has the power to legislate for the United States, to organize governments and to prescribe laws for the inhabitants therein in all matters of local or domestic concern, and the wide spread domain, consisting of Oregon, Upper California and New Mexico, embracing one thousand miles between the Rio Grande, shall ever be the abode of Free Men and Free Labor and that our exertions as freemen shall never cease until that is accomplished.

Resolved, That we rejoice in the conviction that our exertions in favor of contributing to the extension of free soil and the perpetuation of free labor will ultimately be crowned with success, and that we are impressed with the solemn truth that Congress has the power to legislate for the United States, to organize governments and to prescribe laws for the inhabitants therein in all matters of local or domestic concern, and the wide spread domain, consisting of Oregon, Upper California and New Mexico, embracing one thousand miles between the Rio Grande, shall ever be the abode of Free Men and Free Labor and that our exertions as freemen shall never cease until that is accomplished.

Resolved, That we rejoice in the conviction that our exertions in favor of contributing to the extension of free soil and the perpetuation of free labor will ultimately be crowned with success, and that we are impressed with the solemn truth that Congress has the power to legislate for the United States, to organize governments and to prescribe laws for the inhabitants therein in all matters of local or domestic concern, and the wide spread domain, consisting of Oregon, Upper California and New Mexico, embracing one thousand miles between the Rio Grande, shall ever be the abode of Free Men and Free Labor and that our exertions as freemen shall never cease until that is accomplished.

Resolved, That we rejoice in the conviction that our exertions in favor of contributing to the extension of free soil and the perpetuation of free labor will ultimately be crowned with success, and that we are impressed with the solemn truth that Congress has the power to legislate for the United States, to organize governments and to prescribe laws for the inhabitants therein in all matters of local or domestic concern, and the wide spread domain, consisting of Oregon, Upper California and New Mexico, embracing one thousand miles between the Rio Grande, shall ever be the abode of Free Men and Free Labor and that our exertions as freemen shall never cease until that is accomplished.

Arrival of the Steamer America.

New York, August 2. The steamer America arrived about 2 o'clock, bringing dates to the 22d ult. The following is an abstract of her news: The America sailed on the 22d ult. The Hermann sailed from Southampton on the 20th.

General Taylor's Letter of Acceptance? Gen. J. M. Moorehead, Greenford, Guilford Co. N. C. Baton Rouge, July 12th, 1848. Dear Sir:—I have the honor to receive your communication of June 10th, announcing that the Whig Convention which assembled at Philadelphia on the 7th of that month, and of which you were the presiding officer, had nominated you for the office of President of the United States.

Resolved, That we rejoice in the conviction that our exertions in favor of contributing to the extension of free soil and the perpetuation of free labor will ultimately be crowned with success, and that we are impressed with the solemn truth that Congress has the power to legislate for the United States, to organize governments and to prescribe laws for the inhabitants therein in all matters of local or domestic concern, and the wide spread domain, consisting of Oregon, Upper California and New Mexico, embracing one thousand miles between the Rio Grande, shall ever be the abode of Free Men and Free Labor and that our exertions as freemen shall never cease until that is accomplished.

Resolved, That we rejoice in the conviction that our exertions in favor of contributing to the extension of free soil and the perpetuation of free labor will ultimately be crowned with success, and that we are impressed with the solemn truth that Congress has the power to legislate for the United States, to organize governments and to prescribe laws for the inhabitants therein in all matters of local or domestic concern, and the wide spread domain, consisting of Oregon, Upper California and New Mexico, embracing one thousand miles between the Rio Grande, shall ever be the abode of Free Men and Free Labor and that our exertions as freemen shall never cease until that is accomplished.

Resolved, That we rejoice in the conviction that our exertions in favor of contributing to the extension of free soil and the perpetuation of free labor will ultimately be crowned with success, and that we are impressed with the solemn truth that Congress has the power to legislate for the United States, to organize governments and to prescribe laws for the inhabitants therein in all matters of local or domestic concern, and the wide spread domain, consisting of Oregon, Upper California and New Mexico, embracing one thousand miles between the Rio Grande, shall ever be the abode of Free Men and Free Labor and that our exertions as freemen shall never cease until that is accomplished.

Resolved, That we rejoice in the conviction that our exertions in favor of contributing to the extension of free soil and the perpetuation of free labor will ultimately be crowned with success, and that we are impressed with the solemn truth that Congress has the power to legislate for the United States, to organize governments and to prescribe laws for the inhabitants therein in all matters of local or domestic concern, and the wide spread domain, consisting of Oregon, Upper California and New Mexico, embracing one thousand miles between the Rio Grande, shall ever be the abode of Free Men and Free Labor and that our exertions as freemen shall never cease until that is accomplished.

General Taylor's Letter of Acceptance?

Gen. J. M. Moorehead, Greenford, Guilford Co. N. C. Baton Rouge, July 12th, 1848. Dear Sir:—I have the honor to receive your communication of June 10th, announcing that the Whig Convention which assembled at Philadelphia on the 7th of that month, and of which you were the presiding officer, had nominated you for the office of President of the United States.

Resolved, That we rejoice in the conviction that our exertions in favor of contributing to the extension of free soil and the perpetuation of free labor will ultimately be crowned with success, and that we are impressed with the solemn truth that Congress has the power to legislate for the United States, to organize governments and to prescribe laws for the inhabitants therein in all matters of local or domestic concern, and the wide spread domain, consisting of Oregon, Upper California and New Mexico, embracing one thousand miles between the Rio Grande, shall ever be the abode of Free Men and Free Labor and that our exertions as freemen shall never cease until that is accomplished.

Resolved, That we rejoice in the conviction that our exertions in favor of contributing to the extension of free soil and the perpetuation of free labor will ultimately be crowned with success, and that we are impressed with the solemn truth that Congress has the power to legislate for the United States, to organize governments and to prescribe laws for the inhabitants therein in all matters of local or domestic concern, and the wide spread domain, consisting of Oregon, Upper California and New Mexico, embracing one thousand miles between the Rio Grande, shall ever be the abode of Free Men and Free Labor and that our exertions as freemen shall never cease until that is accomplished.

Resolved, That we rejoice in the conviction that our exertions in favor of contributing to the extension of free soil and the perpetuation of free labor will ultimately be crowned with success, and that we are impressed with the solemn truth that Congress has the power to legislate for the United States, to organize governments and to prescribe laws for the inhabitants therein in all matters of local or domestic concern, and the wide spread domain, consisting of Oregon, Upper California and New Mexico, embracing one thousand miles between the Rio Grande, shall ever be the abode of Free Men and Free Labor and that our exertions as freemen shall never cease until that is accomplished.

Resolved, That we rejoice in the conviction that our exertions in favor of contributing to the extension of free soil and the perpetuation of free labor will ultimately be crowned with success, and that we are impressed with the solemn truth that Congress has the power to legislate for the United States, to organize governments and to prescribe laws for the inhabitants therein in all matters of local or domestic concern, and the wide spread domain, consisting of Oregon, Upper California and New Mexico, embracing one thousand miles between the Rio Grande, shall ever be the abode of Free Men and Free Labor and that our exertions as freemen shall never cease until that is accomplished.

Resolved, That we rejoice in the conviction that our exertions in favor of contributing to the extension of free soil and the perpetuation of free labor will ultimately be crowned with success, and that we are impressed with the solemn truth that Congress has the power to legislate for the United States, to organize governments and to prescribe laws for the inhabitants therein in all matters of local or domestic concern, and the wide spread domain, consisting of Oregon, Upper California and New Mexico, embracing one thousand miles between the Rio Grande, shall ever be the abode of Free Men and Free Labor and that our exertions as freemen shall never cease until that is accomplished.