Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry in the Old Dominion. We extract an article from the New Era, published

Portsmouth, Va. and edited by A. F. Cooninghum, Esq. He speaks of himself, and here is the extract-(Dec 24 1846.) We have been for some days, sufering under severe in flammation of the lungs, produced by cold and irrnated by speaking in public so that throughout Sundry, and Monday till Tuesday, the symptoms of the disease s em d to mereas, and the suffering was intensa, without the least appet te for food The corgir was dry, and hard causing the most acute rains in the head and back. We had fairly given up hope of relied. when we thought of this Bolsain, and we sent round to our officerd. Hersish the agent, for a bottle. We took the first dose secording to directions, an almost instantly felt a glow of healthy warmth through the system-this was we o'clock-at nine another, and we soon of er detected a perceptible relief in the frequency of the spasms and violent pains that had before attended them . At three in the morning we took another dose and the philegm" though tough vellow and topy, was ejected from the lungs with comparative case. We feel grateful for the relief afforded, and recommended a trial of it by all who as we suffered. We have deemed it due to the medicine and to hun a city to give th's ausought test montal to the virtue of the Balsum , in our ense." The genuine signed I BUTTS on the wrapper.
