The County Ticket.

The Convention which met last evening, placed in nomination the gentlemen whose names we have placed at the head of our paper. We have only room to say, that the Democrats of this County have now in the field good and unexceptionable candidates, and they have only to exert themselves, to elect them triumphantly.

The Convention appointed Hon. RUBEN WILBER and D. Vandencook, Congressional Conferees, with instructions ununimously adopted, to use every exertion to re-nominate Hon. D. Wilmot.

Resolutions were adopted approving of the no mination of Morris Longstreth and Israel Pain-TER, and instructing our Representatives to support Hon. G. W. WOODWARD for U. S. Senator.

Congressional Conference.

The Conferces from Bradford, Susquehanna and Tioga, met at this place last evening and re nomi nated Hon. D. Wilson upon the first ballot.

The Democracy of this District will now have an opportunity to show how unyielding is their attachment to the great principle of Freedom with which Mr. Wilmot is identified, and of shielding him from the malicious attacks of its enemies -His triumphant re-election is certain, by an overwhelming majority.

Cass and Butler Meeting.

A meeting of the friends of Cass and Butler was the more sacred callings of the pulpit. holden at the Court House, in this borough on

The meeting was addressed at considerable length, by Hon. Stephen Strong, of Owego, whose political meeting: main endeavor was to convince the Democraev of Bradford of the unconstitutionality of the Pro-

A series of resolutions were then reported and adopted. A resolution offered by Col. D. M. Bull. was also adopted, after considerable debate.

Since the meeting, those who were particularly desirious for the passage of the Resolution, have openly declared it as positively intended as a rebuke of Mr. Wilmot. The design is as palpable, as the fraud is gross and wilful. Should those engaged in this scheme socceed, it will be only by that kind of mean and malicious trickery, which men practice, who dare not openly show their hand. This perversion of the resolution will be liberally circulated, with a design to have an effect for Democrats throughout the county, especially, on the delegates to the Democratic County Convention, prejudicial to Mr. Wilmot; and if possible, as has been publicly threatened to "stab him." This is no new movement. A concocted attempt to strike him down, has been concieved for years; the present, is seized, as an auspicious occasion for their work. An attempt was made by the same men in this county, to denounce him, because of his proposition in favor of free soil; failing in this. they now make another attempt; with no other object, if they succeed, than to proclaim abroad, that the 12th Congressional district repudiates the man and his "Proviso." This is the whole plot, and it is now useless to expect to conceal it. We do not mean by this that all who voted for the resolution in question, done so with an intention to denounce Mr. Wilmot: indeed many would have done otherwise, had they supposed any such construction of it, would be attempted.

In order to a full understanding of this resolution. it is proper to nive somewhat in fletail, what took place at this meeting. This we propose to do accurately; and appeal to every member, and especially the officers of that meeting, for the exact correciness of our statements.

A Committee was appointed to draft and report resolutions; the resolutions they reported were adopted. Immediately Col. D. M. Bull offered a resolution, substantially the same as the one alluded to, and precisely the same, except the last clause. Mr. Sanderson moved as an amendment to strike out all after the word "now." E. W. Baird, Esq., then made a speech against the amend ment, and in favor of the resolution. Col. Piollet then followed with a speech in opposition to the resolution, alleging that the resolution was intended by the mover of it, as an attack on Mr. Wilmot: and that it was descending too low for the meeting to be engaged in anacking private individuals. He then proposed to alter the part proposed to be stricken out; he did so-the resolution as altered by Col. Prollet was accepted as a modification by Col. Bull. To the charge made by Col. Piollet against Col. Bull, the mover of the resolution, Col. their septied, that he had no such intention. Col. Pinilet than begged the gentleman's paulon for having mails the charge. E. W. Baird then rose district, to make an explanation, declaring that he had not Wx. J. Tennert, See'y.

such intention. Col. Piollet then disclaimed any allusion to him, (Mr. Baird) in what he sald. Geo Sanderson, U. Mercurand F. Smith, addressed the meeting in favor of "striking out," contending that the alteration made by Col. Piolist was just as obnoxious, and that the enemies of Mr. Wilmot would as soon as it passed, put a construction on it to suit themselves; that they had to other object by the resolution than to strike at him. Col. Piollet then spoke in layer of the resolution, protesting against such a construction of the resolution to the prejudice of Mr. Wilmot; and that it was intended for Martin Van Buren only, and altered by him for the purpose of giving a special reference to him alone. D. Cash and Wm. Elwell also addressed the meeting in favor of the resolution, taking the same view of it that Col. Piollet had. These resolutions induced several, whom we know to be personally friendly to Mr. Wilmot, to vote for the resolution and against "striking out," and we know, that they now repudiate any construction, like that attempted to be put on it: and without whose votes. it could not have been carried. The discussion or both side was very warm and continued until midnight. By this time the meeting became reduced to about thirty who participated in it-several of these were transient persons, in the employ of Mr. Hayden, brought by him to the meeting and detained to vote for the resolution. We are not disappointed in the use that is now being made of the resolution. Passed as it was, only after the most solemn assurance that allusion was intended to no person but Mr. Van Buren; and this persisted in: we ask, what must be the julgment of candid men, upon the fraud now attempted to be palmed upon Democrats! It will be that, and that only, of scom; and contempt. When the time comes that Mr. Wilmot has not the confidence of the Democracy of Bradford, who doubts, but they will openly, and fearlessly declare it. They will not skulk under false pretensions, and with falsehood in their hearts assert one thing concerning him, and do another and they basely traduce the integrity of that Democracy, who now invoke it, for the purpose of aiding and abeting a scheme to gratify personal hatred, against Mr. Wilmot. We have spoken of this cowardly attack on Mr Wilmot, just as it is; and just as the circumstances demand. To say that the Democracy of Bradford dare not exercise their deliberate judgment only under the cover of falsehood, is villification, which they would resent with scorn: what less than this is done, by those, who, in the name of that Democracy attempt to denonnce Mr. Wilmot on the strength of those reso-Intions.

A Proper Sentiment.

There is one feature in the conduct of the officer of our Army and Navy, which distinguishes them from, and in truth we may say, elevates them above, those engaged in similar employments in every other country on earth. We refer to that wholesome and proper forbearance to mingle actively and personally in the political strifes and divisions of our people. Abroad, as a matter almost of course, an Epaulette is a badge of political servitude, as well as an indication that its owner is devoted to the military service of his country. If it be the will of the sovereign to stifle the progress of free opinions, his official minions are the natural and ready instruments for the work. Here, the case is widely different. We see amongst the life officers in the regular service, as few cases of obtrusion from their poper sphere into the political discussions of the day, as we do of desecration of

Whereas, it is a paramount duty of all delegate Conventions of the Democratic party, faithfully to regard the wishes of their constituents in the selection of candidates; and especially in times of deep and intense feeling, not to hazard success by un wisely resisting its current, where just and proper results are likely to be obtained; and in consideration of the peculiar position of our present Representative in Congress, as identified with the great question of "Free Soil,"—the assembled Delegates of the Democracy of Bradford County feel themselves entirely justified in urging at this crisis, the re-nomination for another term, of the Hon. Pursuant to the above call the Democratic citiens of Bradford county assembled in Towards on Tuesday Aug. 29th inst., when on motion of Ulyasea Mercur, Esq., Col. JOHN F. MEANS was appointed President, Doct. Ban's. HUSTON, JANATHAN STR-VESS Jr., Anilas Mead, D. L. Dodox, D. Vander-cook, Elias Matthuwson, Ina H. Strenens, Cinus Shunway, D. L. Scott, L. S. On motion, the Chair appointed the following named persons a Committee to draft Resolutions expressive of the cause of the meeting; Geo. Sanderson. P. C. Ward, Samuel McKean. A. L. Cranmer, Wm. Trout, H. C. Baird and Wm.

Menardi.
During the absence of the committee the meet ing was addressed by Francis Smith, Esq. urging upon the democrats the necessity of supporting the nominees of the Baltimore Convention.

The Hon. STREMEN STREME, of Owego, N. Y. being introduced, proceeded to address the meeting in his usual able and eloquent manner after which the committee reported the following resolutions which were unanimously adopted. Resolved, That the earnest and energetic action of the Democratic party will secure for its principles, in the present crisis, the same great-triumph over federalism, that has ever been, and must ever ontinue to be, the ark of our country's safety, and the harbinger of its future glory.

Resolved. That the usages of the Democratic par-should be adhered to with fidelity; not because of the men presented through themfor our suffrages but because of the principles of the party which are sustained by their election. Resolved, That Gen. Cass, in the field, and the abundant proof of his devotion to his country, and to those principles, which have since the days of Senate Chamber, has by long years of service given gag laws" and sedition laws, distinguished the Democratic from the Federal party, and that by his election, the hopes of our country will continue to be anchored on the rock of the Constitution.

Recoived, That the gallant Gen. Wm. O. Burten. leserved the distinguished position assigned him on our banner. Invincible in the field, his name was a terror to the foes of our country; magnanimous and just be was the admiration of friends and foes. His great talent and noble virtues in all his public life, as a Soldier and Statesman, one who guaranties that even lightest interest of the people, is safe in his hands.

Resolved. That we approve of the administration of James K. Polk. He has with signal ability carried out all the great measures of Democratic reform, for which he was pledged by the party that elected him, thereby advancing our country to an unparalelled degree of prosperity.

Resolved, That while our country has within its orders a federal party, there is no other alternative for the Democracy but to adhere with firmness to those principles of "justice and equality" which have ever been our -cloud by day, and a pillar of fire by night."

are by night."

Resolved, That we will give to the sominee of the State Convention for Governor that support, which will show that the Democratic host of Bradford, were marshalled as one man for the contest.

Resolved, That the office of Canal Commissioner is scarcely second in importance to any State office; and therefore that the name of Issael Park-TER of "old Westmoreland," our nominee for that ing, as we confidently do, that by his election, we shall have a sound democratic majority of the Canal board. Resolved. That we abate nothing, in our continued opposition to every attempt on the part of Congress to extend slavery into territory now free. The following resolution was then offered by Col.

D. M. Bull, for the consideration of the meeting and after an animated discussion in which Col. V. B. Piollet, Geo. Sanderson, E. W. Baird, U. Mereur. Wm. Elwell and David Cash, Esquires participated, was adopted,

Resolved, That the principles laid down by the Baltimore Convention are the same inscribed on the victorious banner of 1844, when shoulder to shoulder Democrats led on in unbroken columns to duty—to work—to victory—they were democratic then, are democratic now and although treason to the party may exhibit itself by men who are can-didates for high places, and who have been sustained by party organization, we still cherish the time honored principles of the Democratic party, and will again move onward with stout hearts and double victory over Whiggery and treason.

On motion Resolved, That the thanks of this neeting be tendered to Hon. Greenen Bruene for his able and eloquent address to this meeting. On motion Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting are signed by the officers and published in the Democratic papers of this Congressional dis-large number of delegates were present, together with a crowd of speciators of both parties, and from all parts of the State.

After the Convention organized, some preliminary business was gone through. A letter was then read from the Hon. James Cooper Attorney General under Gov. Johnson. The letter was write ten in a dignified and handsome style, and was to the effect, that, knowing his name would probably be brought before the Convention as a candidate for the nomination he deemed it proper to state he did not wish to be considered a candidate.

The letter went on to state that Mr. Cooper wa anxious that a spirit of harmony should reign over the proceedings of the convention and that to preventany cause of dissatisfaction so far as he was con cered he would beg leave to withdraw his name from the consideration of the Convention. A motion was then made to go into a nomina of a candidate of Governor, which was carried. A motion was made that William F. Johnston. Armstrong county, be unanimously declared the nominee of the Convention which was carried by acclamation with enthusiastic cheering.

Several speeches were then made all of which were well received. The Convention, then, after some further unimortant business adjourned.

The preparations for a meeting to ratify the nomnation are going on vigorously and there will p.o. bably be a large meeting.
