ATTACK BY AN ALLIGATOR .- Mr. S., living nes the Oclawaha, while crossing a bay gall or saw grass in company with his son, last Wednesday, was seriously injured by the attack of an Alligato The water in the gall was about knee deep, and when near half way across it, Mr. S. being in advance of his son, a large alligator struck him will his tail, the usual-mode of attack, and knocked him down. He fell on his back and his knee doubling. the alligator seized him through the thigh and leg. acerating him dreadfully. His son coming to the rescue, the animal moved slowly off. Had there been no one present there is not a doubt that Mr s, would have fallen a victim. When we last heard from him he could not be said to be recovering.-Ificato (E. F) Argus.

CHANGE OF POSITION .- No man can tell what " day may bring forth." How far, then, must the de reforments of nine calender mouths be beyond the the reach of mortal prescience ! Not more than nine months ago, says the Richmond Whig, the Richmond Enquirer, and the Washington Union. united their voices in denouncing the Southern Whigs who voted for Robert C. Winthrop as the Speaker of the House of Representatives : and what does the reader suppose was the ground of objection ? Why, that he had engrafted upon the Oregon bill of 1845, the precise Wilmot proviso which Mr. Polk has since signed in the very same bill !:

We are pleased to hear that revivals are going on at several places. The M. E. Church, at this place has just passed through a "gracious season," during which there were more than fifty conver sions. The Baptist Church here, is now carrying on a glorious work ; four were bapfized last Sunday. We also hear from our triends in the country, that they are likewise receiving blessings at the hands of the Father; at Meriwether camp meeting more than forty conversions. At Big Spring meetinghouse, in this country, an interesting season-num-ber of conversions not known.-[La Grange Repoller.

Beware of Counterfeits. The public are cautioned against purchasing spurious Pacific Ba'm, as I understand that pediars are circulating a medione which they have called Sovereign Balm and which they ADVICE TO THE AFFLICTED - When we reflect that most of the cases of consumption terminating fatally, have their origin in neglected colds, it is astonishing to witness the apptity disinved by those laboring under them Although they may be repeatedly warned by their medical' friends to guard against inc effects of sudden changes of the weather, which by checkng the insensible perspiration, occasions coughs, colds, &c., ner admonitions are often unheeded. The unfortunate subject, reeving no had effects arising from the slight cold, as he rmed it, is lufted into false security by the value hope that a orn of pleasant weather will remove all unpleasant sympons. But so far from being removed, the symptoms are ge-erally aggravated. "Me looks around him for that rehet which night easily have been obtained at an earlier period. But as' he is told by his physician there is no hope for him. Te hum then must he look for aid. Died.

At the residence of Edmund Saunders, in Pike town ship, at three o'clock Thursday morning Sept. 7th, from, rapture of a blood vessel, Miss Ansara Brazzas, daughter of Nathan Stevens Id, aged 25 years.

By this sudden and unexpected event this com munity mourns the loss of one of its brightest ornaments, and the parents and family, a daughter, sister and friend, that may never be restored to them. This dispensation of Divine Providence has thrown gloom and sadness over this whole community, that tells truly, the place which the departed had in affections of all with whom she was acquainted.-Kind, amiable and gentle, in her disposition and manners, constant and faithful, in the performance of all the relative and social dutics, she has left us nought but sorrow and grief, for our great and irreparable loss.

NOTICE .- The North Branch Association of Universalists will hold its annual session at Sheshequin on the 3d Wednesday and Thursday of September, 20th and 21st. Sermons may be expected both days, at the usual nours, from visiting clergymen; and the public are respectfully invited to attend. People from a distance will call at the church where they will find a Committee to direct them to places of entertain ment. 8. J. G.
