The apprehensions which were entertained by some of our statesmen, in the earlier periods of the government, that our system was incapable of operating with sufficient energy and success over largetempted it would fall to pieces by its own weakness, have been dissipated by our own experience. By the division of power between the States and federal government, the inter is found to operate with as much energy in the extremes as in the centre. It is as efficient in the remotest of the thirty States which now compose the Union, is if wis in the thirteen States which formed our constitution. Indeed, it may well be doubted whether, if our present had been confined within the limits of original thirteen States, the tendencies to cen tralization and consolidation would not have been such as to have encroached upon the essential reserved rights of the States, and thus to have made the federal government a widely different one, particularly, from what it is in theory, and was intended to be by its fiamers. Bo far from entertaining apprehensions of the safety of our system by the extension of our territory, the belief is confidently entertained that each new State gives strength and an additional guaranty for the production sof the

The exchange of ratifications of the treaty with Mexico took place on the thirtieth of May, 1848.-Within one year after that time, the commissioner and survey on which each government stipulates to appoint, are required to meet 'at the port of San Diego, and proceed to run and mark the said boundary in its whole course to the mouth of the Rio Brave del Norte. It will be seen from this provis-ion, that the period within which a commissioner and surveyor of the re-pective governments are to eet at San Diego, will expire on the thirteenth of May, 1849. Congress, at the close of its last session; made an appropriation for "the expenses of running and marking the boundary line" between the two countries, butdid not fix the amount of salary which should be paid to the commissioner and surveyor to be appointed on the pat of the United Maies. It is desirable that the amount of compen-sation which they shall receive should be prescribed by law, and not left, as at present, to Executive Measures were adopted at the earliest practicable period to organize the "Territorial government of Oregon," as authorised by the act of the fourteenth of Angust last. The governor and mar-hal of the Territory, occompanied by a small military escort, left the frontier of Missouri in September last, and took the southern route, by the way of Santa Fe and the river Gila, to California, with the intention of proceeding thence in one of our vessels of war to their destination. The governor was fully advised of the great importance of his early arrival in the countro, and it is confidently believed he may reach Oregon in the latter part of the present month, or early in the next. The other officers for the Terrifory have proceeded by sea.

In, the month of May last, I communicated infor-metion to Congress that an Indian war had broken out in Oregon, and recommended that authority be given to raise an adequate number of volunteers to proceed without delay to the assistance of our fellow citizens in that territory. The anthority to raise | suits. such a force not having been granted by Congress, ras the necessary provision could be made Shortly before it was ready to march, it was arrested by the provision of the act passed by Congress on the last day of the last session, which directed that all the non commissioned officers, masicians, and privates of that regiment, who had been in service in Mexico, should, upon their application, be enti-tled to be discharged. The effect of this provision was to disturb the rank and file of the regiment and before their places could be filled by recruit, the season had so far advanced that it was impracticable for it to proceed until the opening of the next spring.

In the month of October last, the accompanying communication was received from the governor of the temporary government of Ocegon giving infor-mation of the continuance of the Indian disturban-ces, and of the destitution and defenceless condition of the inhabitants. Orders were immediately transmitted to the commander of our squadron in the Pacific, to despatch to their assistance a part of the naval forces on that station, to furnish them with arms and ammunition, and to continue to give them such aid and protection as the navy could afford, until the army could reach the country.

It is the policy of humanity, and one which has always been pursued by the United States, to cultivate the good will of the aboriginal tribes of this and to restrain them from making war. than by force. That this could have been done with the tribes in Oregon, had the Territory been brought under the government of our irriod, and had suitable means been gress, such as now exist in our inteother Indian tribes within our limi doubted. Indeed, the immediate and c. the existing bostility of the Indians of represented to have been, the long delay of t. ted States in making to them some trilling compansation, in such articles as they wanted, for the coun try now occupied by our emigrants, which the Indi ans claimed, and over which they formerly roamed, This compensation had been promised to them by the temporary government established in Oregon, but its fulfilment had been postponed from time to time, for nearly two years, whilst those who made it had been anxiously waiting for Congress to establish a territorial government over the country. The Indian's became at length distrustful of their good faith, and sought redress by plunder and massacre, which finally led to the present difficulties. A few thousand dollars in suitable presents, as a compensation for the country which had been taken posression of by our citizens, would have satisfied the indians, and have prevented the war. A small amount prope ly distributed, it is confidently believed, would soon restore quiet. In this Indian war out take the field in their own defence, have performed valuable military services, and been subjected to expenses, which have fallen heavily upon them. Jus-tice demands that provisions should be made by Congress to compensate them for their services, and to refund to them the necessary expenses which they have incurred. I repeat the recommendation heretofore made to Congress, that provision be made for the appointment of a suitable number of Imbian agents to re side among the tribes of Oregon, and that a sma sum be appropriated to enable these agents to culendly relations with them. If this be done, the presence of a small military force will be all that is necessary to keep them in check, and preserve peace. I recommend that similar provision be made as regards the tribes inhabiting northern Texas, New Mexico, California, and the extensive region lying between our settlements in Missouri and these possessions, as the most effective means of preserving peace-upon our borders, and within the recently acquired territories

The Secretary of the Treasury will present in his annual report a highly satisfactory statement of the

The imports for the fiscal year ending on the thirtieth of June has were of the value of one hundred and fifty-four million nine hundred and seventy-seven thousand eight hundred and seventy six dollars; of which the amount experted was twenty-one million one hundred and twenty-eight thousand and ten dollars, leaving one huidred and forty-nine thousand eight hundred and sixty-ix dollars in the country for domestic use.

The value of the exports for the same period was one hundred and fifty-four million thirty-two theu-sand one hundred and thirty-one dollars, consis-ting of domestic productions amounting to $132-901.121, and $21,128,040 of foreign articles.

The recepts into the treasury for the same period, exclusive of loans, amounting to $85,126.750, 50 of which there was derived from customs, $31,757,070, 96; from sales of public lands, $3,328; 642 56; and from miscellaneous and incidenta sources, $351,037 07.

It will be perceived that the revenue from cus icins for the last fiscal year exceeded by $757,070. 96 the estimate of Secretary of the Treasury in his last a mual report; and that the aggregrate receipts during the same period from customs, lands, and miscellaneous sources, also exceeded the estimate by the sum of $536,750,59—indicating, however, a very near approach in the estimate to the actual re-

The expenditures during the fiscal year ending on the 30th of June last, including those for the war, and exclusive of payments of principal and interest for the public debt, were $42,811,970,03. It is estimated that the receipts into the treasury the fiscal year ending on the 30th of June, 1849

ing the balance in the treasury on the 1st of last, will amount to the sum of $57,048,969, of which $32,000,000, it is estimated, will be derived from customs; $3,000.000 from the rales of the public lands; and $3,200,000 from miscellaneous and incidental sources, including the premi-um upon the loan, and the amount paid and to be paid into the treasury on account of military contri butions in public property rendered unnecessar for the use of the government by the termination of the war; and $20,695,435.30 from loans already negotiated, including treasury notes funded, which together with the balance in the treasury on the 1s of July last, make the sum estimated.

The expenditures for the same period, including the necessary payment on account of the principal and interest of the public debt, and the principal and interest of the first instalment due to Mexico on the 30th of May next, and other expenditures growing out the war, to be paid during the presen year, will amount, including the reimbursement of treasury notes, to the sum of $54,195,275.06 : leaving an estimated balance in the treasury on the 1st of July, 1849, of $2,853,694 84.

The Secretary of the Treasury will present, as required by law, the estimate of the receipts and xpenditures for the next fiscal year. The expenditures as estimated for that year are $33,213,152
73. including $3,799,102 18 for the interest on the public debt, and $3.540,000 for the principal and interest due to Mexico, on the 30th of May, 1850; leaving the sum of $25,874,050 35; which it is believed, will be ample for the ordinary peace expen-

The operations of the tariff act of 1846 have been such during the past year as fully to meet the pub-lic expectation, and to confirm the opinion beretofore expressed of the wisdom of the change of our revenue system which was affected by it. The receipts under it into the treasury for the first fiscal year after its enactment exceeded by the sun of 15,014,403,69, the amount collected during the last fiscal year under the tariff act of 1842, ending the 30th of June, 1846. The total revenue realized from the commencement of the operation, on the tst of December, 1846, until the close of the last quarter, on the 30th of September last, being tweny-iwo months, was $56,654,563 79-being a much arger sum than was ever before received from duties during any equal period under the tariff act of 1824, 1828, 1832, and 1842. Whilst by the repeal of highly protective and prohibitory duties the re-venue has been increased, the taxes on the people have been diminished. They have been relieved from the heavy amounts with which they were bur-dened under former laws in the form of increased prices or bounties paid to favored classes and pur-

The tempoary depression of a portion of our manufacturing interests in the effect of oreign causes, and is far less severn than has prevailed on all former similar occasions.

It is believed that looking to the great aggregra te of all our interests, the whole country was never more prosperous than at the present period, and more rapidly advancing in wealth and popu lation. Neither the foreign war in which we have been involved, nor the loans which have absorbed so large a portion of our capital, nor the commercial revulsion in Great Britain in 1847, nor the paralysis, of credit and commerce throughout Europe in 1818, have affected injuriously to any considerable extent any of the great interests of the country, and indulging in excesses, by mild means, rather or arrested our onward march to greatness, wealth,

Had the disturbances in Europe not occurred our commerce would undoubtedly have been still evertended, and would have added still more conal wealth and public prosperity. But sainding these disturbances, the operations revenue system established by the tariff act

1846 have been so generally beneficial to the giveniment and the business of the country, that no change in its provisions is demanded by a wise public policy, and none is recommended. The operations of the constitutional treasury established by the act of the 6 h of August, 1846 in the receipt, custody, and disbursement of the public money, have continued to be successful -Under this system the public finances have been carried through a foreign war, involving the neces sity of loans and extraordinary expenditures, and requiring distant transfers and disbursements, without embarrassment, and no loss has occurred of any of the public money deposited under its provi-sions. Whilst it has proved to be safe and use ful to the government, its effects have been most beneficial upon the business of the country. It has tended powerfully to secure an exemption from that inflation and fluctuation of the paper currency. so minrious to domestic industry, and rendering s uncertain the rewards of labor, and it is believed has largely contributed to preserve the whole country from a serious commercial revulsion, such as often occurred under the bank deposite system. In the year 1817 there was a revulsion in the business of Great Britain of great extent and intensity, which was followed by failures in that kingdom unprecedented in number and amount of losses.-This is believed to be the first instance when such lisastrous bankrapteies, occurring in a country with which we have such extensive commerce, produced little or no injurious effect upon our trade or currenry. We remained but little affected in our money

During the present year, nearly the whole continent of Europe has been convulsed by civil war and revolutions, attended by numerous bankruptcice, by an unprecedented fall in their public securities, and an almost universal paralysis of com-merce and industry; and yet, although our trade and the prices of our products must have been somewhat unfavorably affected by these causes, we have escaped a rovu sion, our money market is comparatively easy, and public and private credit

THIRTY YEARS STANDING!! MOUNT WASSINSTON, 3 Berkshire Co. (Mass.) Nov. 29, 1847. MESSES. WYATT & KETCHAH-Gents: For thirty years I have been afflicted with piles, general debility and inflamation, causing tumors and prolapsus of the bowels, and which had resisted all the medical pes-ment Dr. Chapman and others could give. The last three years of that time my sufferings defy description. I was confined to bed, unable to help myself, and at last given up by my phisicians and friends in despair of er-er gaining my health; in fact for three days before I was entirely speechless and my burial clothes were made. But under Providence, and the use of Dr. Upham's Electuary, though an old MAN I have the plea-ure of stating the FACT to the public that my health is now good, and hope to live many years, if it is Gode will, to make known the virtues of Dr. Upham's Elecuary, and to recommend it to my afflicted fellow crestures. It belped me beyond the expectations of all that knew my case, and I only say to others that it is, in my epinion, the best medicine in the world for Piles, or any
