But can any of these things be said of S. P. Town-end's interior arricle? This young man's liquid is not to be

And is it not northly to make and sell, and infinitely worse to use this SOURING, FERMENTING, ACID "COMPOUND"

BOURING, FERMENTING, ACID "COMPOUNDS OF S. P. TOWNSEND, and yet he would fain have it understood that Ole Iv. Jacob Townsend's Genuine Original Senseparille, is an initation of his inferior preparation!!

Heaven forbid that we should deal in an article which would part the inset desunt resemblances in S. P. Townsend's mickel, and which should bring down a non the Old lix, such a mountain load of complaints and cr.minations from Agents who have solid, and purchasers who have used S. We wish it understood, because it is the absolute truth that

We wish it under trend, because it is the absolute truth, that B. P. Townsend's article and Old Br. Jacob Townsend's Sermantilla are horren-wide spart, and infinitely dissimilar; that they are unlike in every particular, having notone single thing in common. in cummon.

As S. P. Townsend is no doctor, and never was, is no chemist no pharmaceutist—knows no more of medicine or disease thus any other common, unscendific, opposite simulations what guerrantee can the public have that they are receiving a particle securitie medicine, containing all the virtues of the articles used in preparing it, and which are incapable of changes which might render them the AGENTS of Disease instead of beauth.

which might render them the AGENTS of Discass instead of beatth.

But what else should be expected from one who knows noth ing comparatively of medicine or disease! It requires a person of same caperiner to cook and serve up over a common decent peal How much more important is it that the persons who manufacture medicine, designed for WEAK STOMACHS AND ENFREBLED SYSTEMS, should know well the medical properties of plants, the best manner of securing analyconventuring their healine virtues, also an extensive knowledge of the various diseases which nifet the human system, and how to adapt remedice to these diagnoses. It is to array francis upon the unfarturants, to pour belief into wounded humanity, as kindle hops in the despairing busion, to restore health and khoom, and vigor into the crushed and broken, and to broath infirmity that OLD DK, JACOS TOWNISEAU has SOUGHT and SULIND the opportunity and means to bring his
