There is a habit which boys teach eachother the Acad. my or College.- a babite indulged in when by himself, in solitude, growing up with the boy to manhood; few of those who indulge in this pernicious practice-are aware of the consequences, until those find the nervous system shattered, feel strange and unaccoun-table feelings, vague fears in the mind. The individual becomes feeble, he is sinable to labor with sccustomed vigor or to apply his mind to study; his step is taily and weak, he is dull, irresolute. IF THE SOLITARY VICE. Is continued, the procreative power is destroyed, and marriage rendered impossible, a long train of nervous affections follow, the countenance is downcast, the sys without natural lustre, shamefacedness is apparent. THESE ARE STRFTONS WRICH SHOULD AWAREN the attention of those similarly afflicter. IF THE VICTIM

Be conscious of the cause of his decay, and quit it, he suffers under those terrible nocturnel and involuntary missions, which waken and shame him producing mental and physical prostration. If he emancipates, him-self before the practice has done its worst, and enters matrimony, his marriage is unfruitfal, and his sense tells him that this is caused by his early tolline. YOUNG MEN!
