

Free Soil, Free Speech, Free Men

Freedom for Free Territory

E. O. GOODRICH, EDITOR

Towanda, Wednesday, July 4, 1849.

Advertisements, &c., intended for publication, in the Reporter, should be handed in by Monday night, to ensure their insertion.

Our readers will find, on our first page the commencement of an excellent tale—the translation of Madame D'Arboville's 'Vie de Madame'.

The Communication of "Romero" is welcome. We shall be glad to hear from him upon the terms proposed.

We are requested to state, that the Rt. Rev. Bishop Kenrick, of Philadelphia, will deliver a discourse at the Catholic church, on Thursday evening, at 6 o'clock.

A Timely Hint. "It is most sincerely to be hoped, that the democracy of the several counties, will be careful in the selection of candidates, to represent them in the coming Legislature."

Sun-Stroke, or "Comp de Soleil." As many deaths have occurred during the extreme heat of the last few days, by what is commonly called "Sun-strokes," a few remarks upon its nature and treatment may be productive of beneficial results.

The Democracy of Bradford need no warning, like the above from the Harrisburg Keystone, to ensure from our County, Representatives of undoubted character.

The danger which the Keystone deprecates, is as much the fault of the Democrats of the state, as of their Representatives.

The Cholera. This fearful disease has lately commenced its ravages upon this continent. As yet kept within the bounds prescribed by science in the Atlantic cities, in the South and West it appears to have made fearful work.

As might be supposed, a thousand remedies are proposed for the Cholera, and as many nostrums vended for its prevention or cure.

LIBERAL DONATION.—James Buchanan has presented to the city council of Lancaster the sum of $4000, to remain a perpetual fund, the interest whereof is to be annually expended in the purchase of fuel for the use of poor and indigent women during inclement winter seasons.

Our citizens will do well to avail themselves of the visits of T. E. GARDNER, General Book Agent, to this place, to secure copies of such works as they may desire to order.

THE PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD is to be put in operation as far as Millertown, sixteen miles above the mouth of the Juniata, on the 15th of this month, and the entire line to Lewistown by the middle of August.

The Presidential Tour.—We understand that the President will leave Washington on his tour to the North, about the middle of August.

THE GREAT CREVASSE CLOSED.—The City of New Orleans is at last free from the destructive inroads of the Mississippi, the Saucie Crevasse having been closed on the 26th inst.

RUSSIAN PROCLAMATION.—The Russian General has issued a proclamation to the Hungarians, the purport of which is that they do not lay down their arms and submit to their fate with a good grace.

THE PRESIDENTIAL TOUR.—We understand that the President will leave Washington on his tour to the North, about the middle of August.

THE PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD is to be put in operation as far as Millertown, sixteen miles above the mouth of the Juniata, on the 15th of this month, and the entire line to Lewistown by the middle of August.

THE SISTER'S CALL

Brother, come home! you have wandered long the way; for a weary and a restless thought; You have gazed on scenes both grand and wild; You have been where the flower-decked prairie smiled;

Brother, come home! a sister would wish to see you; for a weary and a restless thought; You have gazed on scenes both grand and wild; You have been where the flower-decked prairie smiled;

Brother, come home! you have wandered long the way; for a weary and a restless thought; You have gazed on scenes both grand and wild; You have been where the flower-decked prairie smiled;

Brother, come home! you have wandered long the way; for a weary and a restless thought; You have gazed on scenes both grand and wild; You have been where the flower-decked prairie smiled;

Brother, come home! you have wandered long the way; for a weary and a restless thought; You have gazed on scenes both grand and wild; You have been where the flower-decked prairie smiled;

Brother, come home! you have wandered long the way; for a weary and a restless thought; You have gazed on scenes both grand and wild; You have been where the flower-decked prairie smiled;

Brother, come home! you have wandered long the way; for a weary and a restless thought; You have gazed on scenes both grand and wild; You have been where the flower-decked prairie smiled;

Brother, come home! you have wandered long the way; for a weary and a restless thought; You have gazed on scenes both grand and wild; You have been where the flower-decked prairie smiled;

Brother, come home! you have wandered long the way; for a weary and a restless thought; You have gazed on scenes both grand and wild; You have been where the flower-decked prairie smiled;

Brother, come home! you have wandered long the way; for a weary and a restless thought; You have gazed on scenes both grand and wild; You have been where the flower-decked prairie smiled;

Brother, come home! you have wandered long the way; for a weary and a restless thought; You have gazed on scenes both grand and wild; You have been where the flower-decked prairie smiled;

Brother, come home! you have wandered long the way; for a weary and a restless thought; You have gazed on scenes both grand and wild; You have been where the flower-decked prairie smiled;

Brother, come home! you have wandered long the way; for a weary and a restless thought; You have gazed on scenes both grand and wild; You have been where the flower-decked prairie smiled;

Brother, come home! you have wandered long the way; for a weary and a restless thought; You have gazed on scenes both grand and wild; You have been where the flower-decked prairie smiled;

Brother, come home! you have wandered long the way; for a weary and a restless thought; You have gazed on scenes both grand and wild; You have been where the flower-decked prairie smiled;

Brother, come home! you have wandered long the way; for a weary and a restless thought; You have gazed on scenes both grand and wild; You have been where the flower-decked prairie smiled;

Brother, come home! you have wandered long the way; for a weary and a restless thought; You have gazed on scenes both grand and wild; You have been where the flower-decked prairie smiled;

Brother, come home! you have wandered long the way; for a weary and a restless thought; You have gazed on scenes both grand and wild; You have been where the flower-decked prairie smiled;

Arrival of the Steamship Hibernia.

Revolutionary stirrings at France—Marital Law Provisions—Suppression of the Journals—Arrest of Arago and Ledru-Rollin—Insurrection at Rheims—Great Battle at Rome—The Romans still unconquered—Revolution active in South Germany—Hungarians still victors!

The steamer Hibernia, Capt. Snow, arrived at Halifax yesterday afternoon with 70 passengers for New York and 22 for Halifax. She left for New York at about 4 o'clock, and will be at her wharf at an early hour on Saturday morning.

ENGLAND.—The British Government repudiate all cognizance or sanction of the proceedings of the French in their treatment of the Romans.

THE REBELLION LOSSES.—In the debate in Parliament on the Canadian losses bill, Mr. Gladstone interposed a most furious opposition to the measure, and his remarks are said to have made a marked impression in the House.

FRANCE.—Attempted Insurrection at Paris.—On Wednesday an insurrection was attempted in Paris by about 25,000 of the Montain party, headed by M. Bismarck.

THE CHOLERA.—A committee of highly respectable Homeopathic Physicians in this city have issued a circular containing instructions with reference to the existing epidemic.

THE CHOLERA.—A committee of highly respectable Homeopathic Physicians in this city have issued a circular containing instructions with reference to the existing epidemic.

THE CHOLERA.—A committee of highly respectable Homeopathic Physicians in this city have issued a circular containing instructions with reference to the existing epidemic.

THE CHOLERA.—A committee of highly respectable Homeopathic Physicians in this city have issued a circular containing instructions with reference to the existing epidemic.

THE CHOLERA.—A committee of highly respectable Homeopathic Physicians in this city have issued a circular containing instructions with reference to the existing epidemic.

THE CHOLERA.—A committee of highly respectable Homeopathic Physicians in this city have issued a circular containing instructions with reference to the existing epidemic.

THE CHOLERA.—A committee of highly respectable Homeopathic Physicians in this city have issued a circular containing instructions with reference to the existing epidemic.

THE CHOLERA.—A committee of highly respectable Homeopathic Physicians in this city have issued a circular containing instructions with reference to the existing epidemic.

THE CHOLERA.—A committee of highly respectable Homeopathic Physicians in this city have issued a circular containing instructions with reference to the existing epidemic.

THE CHOLERA.—A committee of highly respectable Homeopathic Physicians in this city have issued a circular containing instructions with reference to the existing epidemic.

THE CHOLERA.—A committee of highly respectable Homeopathic Physicians in this city have issued a circular containing instructions with reference to the existing epidemic.

THE CHOLERA.—A committee of highly respectable Homeopathic Physicians in this city have issued a circular containing instructions with reference to the existing epidemic.

THE CHOLERA.—A committee of highly respectable Homeopathic Physicians in this city have issued a circular containing instructions with reference to the existing epidemic.

North Branch.

In the failure of this great work, we feel pain and sorrow: it is an act of injustice to the North and her interests that calls "trumped tongue" for redress.

Mr. Benton commenced his address by a reference to his late speech at Jefferson City, declaring that nothing was to be subtracted from it or to be qualified; and if anything in the present speech should be understood as varying from that in any particular, it would be a mistake.

Mr. Benton made nine points or propositions as reasons why the appeal should not be assigned, speaking to each fully in an address of two hours.

Mr. Benton made nine points or propositions as reasons why the appeal should not be assigned, speaking to each fully in an address of two hours.

Mr. Benton made nine points or propositions as reasons why the appeal should not be assigned, speaking to each fully in an address of two hours.

Mr. Benton made nine points or propositions as reasons why the appeal should not be assigned, speaking to each fully in an address of two hours.

Mr. Benton made nine points or propositions as reasons why the appeal should not be assigned, speaking to each fully in an address of two hours.

Mr. Benton made nine points or propositions as reasons why the appeal should not be assigned, speaking to each fully in an address of two hours.

Mr. Benton made nine points or propositions as reasons why the appeal should not be assigned, speaking to each fully in an address of two hours.

Mr. Benton made nine points or propositions as reasons why the appeal should not be assigned, speaking to each fully in an address of two hours.

Mr. Benton made nine points or propositions as reasons why the appeal should not be assigned, speaking to each fully in an address of two hours.

Mr. Benton made nine points or propositions as reasons why the appeal should not be assigned, speaking to each fully in an address of two hours.

Mr. Benton made nine points or propositions as reasons why the appeal should not be assigned, speaking to each fully in an address of two hours.

Mr. Benton made nine points or propositions as reasons why the appeal should not be assigned, speaking to each fully in an address of two hours.

Mr. Benton made nine points or propositions as reasons why the appeal should not be assigned, speaking to each fully in an address of two hours.

Mr. Benton made nine points or propositions as reasons why the appeal should not be assigned, speaking to each fully in an address of two hours.

Mr. Benton made nine points or propositions as reasons why the appeal should not be assigned, speaking to each fully in an address of two hours.

Mr. Benton made nine points or propositions as reasons why the appeal should not be assigned, speaking to each fully in an address of two hours.

Synopsis of Col. Benton's Speech at Knoxville, delivered 9th June 1849.

Mr. Benton commenced his address by a reference to his late speech at Jefferson City, declaring that nothing was to be subtracted from it or to be qualified; and if anything in the present speech should be understood as varying from that in any particular, it would be a mistake.

Mr. Benton made nine points or propositions as reasons why the appeal should not be assigned, speaking to each fully in an address of two hours.

Mr. Benton made nine points or propositions as reasons why the appeal should not be assigned, speaking to each fully in an address of two hours.

Mr. Benton made nine points or propositions as reasons why the appeal should not be assigned, speaking to each fully in an address of two hours.

Mr. Benton made nine points or propositions as reasons why the appeal should not be assigned, speaking to each fully in an address of two hours.

Mr. Benton made nine points or propositions as reasons why the appeal should not be assigned, speaking to each fully in an address of two hours.

Mr. Benton made nine points or propositions as reasons why the appeal should not be assigned, speaking to each fully in an address of two hours.

Mr. Benton made nine points or propositions as reasons why the appeal should not be assigned, speaking to each fully in an address of two hours.

Mr. Benton made nine points or propositions as reasons why the appeal should not be assigned, speaking to each fully in an address of two hours.

Mr. Benton made nine points or propositions as reasons why the appeal should not be assigned, speaking to each fully in an address of two hours.

Mr. Benton made nine points or propositions as reasons why the appeal should not be assigned, speaking to each fully in an address of two hours.

Mr. Benton made nine points or propositions as reasons why the appeal should not be assigned, speaking to each fully in an address of two hours.

Mr. Benton made nine points or propositions as reasons why the appeal should not be assigned, speaking to each fully in an address of two hours.

Mr. Benton made nine points or propositions as reasons why the appeal should not be assigned, speaking to each fully in an address of two hours.

Mr. Benton made nine points or propositions as reasons why the appeal should not be assigned, speaking to each fully in an address of two hours.

Mr. Benton made nine points or propositions as reasons why the appeal should not be assigned, speaking to each fully in an address of two hours.

Mr. Benton made nine points or propositions as reasons why the appeal should not be assigned, speaking to each fully in an address of two hours.

Mr. Benton made nine points or propositions as reasons why the appeal should not be assigned, speaking to each fully in an address of two hours.

Late from Texas.

By the arrival here, this morning, of the steamer Yatch from Galveston we have received the Citizens and Gazette and the News of that city of the 14th inst.

We regret to learn that the Indians in large numbers continue their depredations upon our most defenceless frontier.

On the 11th inst. Mr. J. B. M. Crook, a merchant of New Orleans, left San Antonio for Fort Lavaca. The Indians having been represented as ravaging the country on the Civilio river, about 40 miles of San Antonio, that gentleman was induced by the passengers in the stage, with whom he had fallen in on the route to join them.

From the West.—A gentleman who resides in this city returned from the Rio Grande on Tuesday evening. He left Monclova on the 23d ult. at which time the place was quite healthy, but the malarial fevers were in great dread of the cholera.

On the 11th inst. Mr. J. B. M. Crook, a merchant of New Orleans, left San Antonio for Fort Lavaca. The Indians having been represented as ravaging the country on the Civilio river, about 40 miles of San Antonio, that gentleman was induced by the passengers in the stage, with whom he had fallen in on the route to join them.

On the 11th inst. Mr. J. B. M. Crook, a merchant of New Orleans, left San Antonio for Fort Lavaca. The Indians having been represented as ravaging the country on the Civilio river, about 40 miles of San Antonio, that gentleman was induced by the passengers in the stage, with whom he had fallen in on the route to join them.

On the 11th inst. Mr. J. B. M. Crook, a merchant of New Orleans, left San Antonio for Fort Lavaca. The Indians having been represented as ravaging the country on the Civilio river, about 40 miles of San Antonio, that gentleman was induced by the passengers in the stage, with whom he had fallen in on the route to join them.

On the 11th inst. Mr. J. B. M. Crook, a merchant of New Orleans, left San Antonio for Fort Lavaca. The Indians having been represented as ravaging the country on the Civilio river, about 40 miles of San Antonio, that gentleman was induced by the passengers in the stage, with whom he had fallen in on the route to join them.

On the 11th inst. Mr. J. B. M. Crook, a merchant of New Orleans, left San Antonio for Fort Lavaca. The Indians having been represented as ravaging the country on the Civilio river, about 40 miles of San Antonio, that gentleman was induced by the passengers in the stage, with whom he had fallen in on the route to join them.

On the 11th inst. Mr. J. B. M. Crook, a merchant of New Orleans, left San Antonio for Fort Lavaca. The Indians having been represented as ravaging the country on the Civilio river, about 40 miles of San Antonio, that gentleman was induced by the passengers in the stage, with whom he had fallen in on the route to join them.

On the 11th inst. Mr. J. B. M. Crook, a merchant of New Orleans, left San Antonio for Fort Lavaca. The Indians having been represented as ravaging the country on the Civilio river, about 40 miles of San Antonio, that gentleman was induced by the passengers in the stage, with whom he had fallen in on the route to join them.

On the 11th inst. Mr. J. B. M. Crook, a merchant of New Orleans, left San Antonio for Fort Lavaca. The Indians having been represented as ravaging the country on the Civilio river, about 40 miles of San Antonio, that gentleman was induced by the passengers in the stage, with whom he had fallen in on the route to join them.

On the 11th inst. Mr. J. B. M. Crook, a merchant of New Orleans, left San Antonio for Fort Lavaca. The Indians having been represented as ravaging the country on the Civilio river, about 40 miles of San Antonio, that gentleman was induced by the passengers in the stage, with whom he had fallen in on the route to join them.

On the 11th inst. Mr. J. B. M. Crook, a merchant of New Orleans, left San Antonio for Fort Lavaca. The Indians having been represented as ravaging the country on the Civilio river, about 40 miles of San Antonio, that gentleman was induced by the passengers in the stage, with whom he had fallen in on the route to join them.

On the 11th inst. Mr. J. B. M. Crook, a merchant of New Orleans, left San Antonio for Fort Lavaca. The Indians having been represented as ravaging the country on the Civilio river, about 40 miles of San Antonio, that gentleman was induced by the passengers in the stage, with whom he had fallen in on the route to join them.

On the 11th inst. Mr. J. B. M. Crook, a merchant of New Orleans, left San Antonio for Fort Lavaca. The Indians having been represented as ravaging the country on the Civilio river, about 40 miles of San Antonio, that gentleman was induced by the passengers in the stage, with whom he had fallen in on the route to join them.

On the 11th inst. Mr. J. B. M. Crook, a merchant of New Orleans, left San Antonio for Fort Lavaca. The Indians having been represented as ravaging the country on the Civilio river, about 40 miles of San Antonio, that gentleman was induced by the passengers in the stage, with whom he had fallen in on the route to join them.

On the 11th inst. Mr. J. B. M. Crook, a merchant of New Orleans, left San Antonio for Fort Lavaca. The Indians having been represented as ravaging the country on the Civilio river, about 40 miles of San Antonio, that gentleman was induced by the passengers in the stage, with whom he had fallen in on the route to join them.