Diseases of the Human Flesh.

TIME and experience have fully proved that that this L UNIVERSAL REMEDY has not not its equal on the list of popular medicines, having been more than 14 years before the public. Numerous are the unsulicited statements of patients hemselves, and others who have used the Oil, of cures which in themselves appear remarkable, that they at all interested in a pecuniary point, they could hardly have been credited.

The following diseases are smong many others in the curs of which this Oil has been completely successful and in which others had entirely failed:-Spavins, Sweeney, Ringhone, Windgalla, Poll Evil; Callous.
