The perpetrators of this outrage are men aged The perpetrators of this outrage are men aged about wenty-eight and twenty-eight years. At the time of their arrest they were perfectly sober, the eldest laboring under some excitement in comequence of his acts. They were travelling in fine style, being provided with large wardrobes, and every necessary for comfort and ammement. Their trunks were searched yesterday evening, and Their trains were scattered yesterday evening, and found to contain nothing but gentlemen's paraphernalia and $1,455 in gold, in two separate bags.

They claim to be of a family of some distinction in France, the eddest of the two bearing the

The younger says that their father was killed in Paris, in the outbreak of last February, and in consequence of their connexion with the events of that period, and opposition to the republican Government, they were compelled to thee the country.

They arrived in the United States in June last, since which time they have been leisurely wending their way West, with a view of seeing the country and spending most of their time in hunting, a sport for which they manifest great fourness, and for which they are amply provided with the proper accoutrements. He says that his brother has several times, recently, displayed symptoms of insanity, and, but a few evenings since, while they were in the town of Alton, made a demonstration to attack some person, but was timely prevented by his

The elder brother appears to be sensible of his having done wrong, exculpates the younger brother from all blame, and claims that he alone should be made to suffer for the consequence of his act. He says that a powerful feeling, which he could not resist, took possession of him, and told him that he must kill two men: that while laboring under this feeling he seized a double-barrelled gun, rushed from the room, and fired at the first two men he saw; his brother followed for the purpose of preventing him from doing injury, but before his interference could be exercised, the fatal deed was consummated.

STARTLING DEVELOPMENT -On Thursday night, the 25th Oct. the house of James George, residing in Mercer County, Pa. was forcibly entered by gang of robbers, having their faces painted and otherwise disfigured for the purpose of avading detection. After having put the inmates under guard, they proceeded to search the house for money, using an axe in breaking open tranks, chests, &c and took from $800 to $1000 chiefly in gold. Previous to their leaving, they tied Mr. George in his bed, during which employment they used the most menacing and taunting language to their then unfortunate victims. Information having been made against those suspicioned of the crime, they were immediately arrested and committed, which led to tuther examinations in the neighborhood of Centreville, in the upper part of this county, where five galvanic batteries, dies, chemicals, and all the implements necessary for carrying on the counterfeiting business, were found, and arrests made upon the strength of the testimony and circumstances.-The arrests are still continuing to be made; and, migning from circumstances, they are only commencing. It is generally believed that a gang of rabbers and counterfeiters are associated together reaching from various parts of the State of New York, passing through Pennsylvania into the States of Ome and Virginia. We think that the matter can now be probed to the bottom and the whole gang be broken up; hat as further discoveries are being maie, we refrain from further detail for the present.-Butler (Pa) Democrat.

HRAM MIX'S

DRUG STORE ERECVECTO VECHO.

DRUGS AND MEDICINES, GROCERIES. LIQUORS. OILS & PANTS. Willew & Wooden ware, Glassware, Fishing Tackie, Panty Goods, Perfamery, &c.

He is agent for most of the valuable POPULAR MEDICINES of the day, which can be purchased of him with a certainty of procuring genuine articles.

He is also agent for the CANTON TEA COM-PANY of New York, whose Teas have attained a wide spread reputation for genuineness and their low price.

An examination of his stock, to which he invites the attention of the public, will satisfy every one that it has been selected with a view of procuring the best and most desirable articles, and purchased at the lowest rates, Towanda, May 1, 1849.

G. W. Merchant's Celebrated

Which is also a Universal Family Embrecation for Disenses of the Human Flesh.

TIME and experience have fully proved that that this UNIVPRSAL REMEDY has not not its equal on the list of popular medicines, having been more than 14 years before the public.

Testimony of the most disinterested character of its wonderful effects on the animal economy is almost daily presented to the proprietor. A young man in the town of Wilson, whose clothes were burnt off of him, was restored (without suffering) by the timely use of the Oil. Numerous are the unsolicited statements of patients themselves, and others who have used the Oil, of cures which in themsalves appear remarkable, that they at all interested in a pecuniary point, they could hardly have been credited The following diseases are among many others in the cure of which this Oil has been completely successful and in which others had entirely failed:-

Spavins, Sweeney, Ringhone, Windgalls, Poll Evil, Callous, Cracked Heels, Galls of all kinds, Lameness, Fresh Wounds, Sprains, Bruises, Sand Cracks, Foundered Feet, Scratches, or Gresse Mange, Rheumatism. CAUTION TO PURCHASERS.

Beware of COUNTERFEITS, and be sure the name the Sole Proprietor, GEORGE W. MERCHANT, LOCKPORT. N. Y., is blown in the side of the bottle, or in his hand writing over the cork. Don't be persuaded to take any thing else with the promise it is iust as goed, &c., &c. This is practised by those un principled desiers whose conscience will stretch like India R bber, and who are of a kindred spirit of those in our large cities, whose neferious practices have so re-cently been exposed to the action of Congress. Those who attempt to Counterfeit this article are referred to the law of New York, of May 1845, by which it will be seen that every person meddling in these counterfeits is subject to indictment, imprisonment, and rest when in the state, and also to be held as a witness against those he hought of or sold for. All Orders addressed to the proprietor will be respond-
