Card from W. J. Brown, of Indiana.

To the Editor of the Union : Having spoken to-day in the House under much excitement, and, in the confusion which prevented excitement, and the ext report of my remarks will be presuming no cor. ext report of my remarks will be furnished. I ask, in Justice to myself that you put fish this communication,

After I had received 53 votes for Speaker, on Monday last, and after the House had adjourned I was sent for to go to the room of a member. When I arrived there, I learned that it was for the purpose of having a conference with Mr. Wilmol, of Pennsylvania, who soon after came into the room. He formed me that they were satisfied with the position of Mr. Potter, of Ohio, and had been ready to vote for him, if the time had arrived when their votes would have made a choice; that they were withing to vote for meil I would agree to give them fur committees on the District of Columbia, the Judiciary, and on Territories; that neither himself King) desired to be upon these committees : that all he and his friends asked was, that the ablest men of the different parties, and both sections of the Union. might be selected; and they asked that they should impartial and imprejudiced upon the question of slavery ; that their fears were, that I might so constitute these committees, as to stifle what he regarded as the rublic sentiment of a-maparity of the country. I stated to him in reply, that I regarded his request as reasonable, and that, if elected, I should constitute these committees of fair impartial men; that whatever might be my views upon any and all questions, I would not use my power as Speaker in such manner as to prevent any important question from being fully presented and discussed in the House. Mr. Wilmot appeared satisfied and left me. In a short time I received

DECEMBER 10, 1849.

Dear Sir: In the conversation which I had with you this evening, you were free to say, that if elect-ed Speaker of the House of Representatives, you would constitute the committees on Ferritories, the Indiciary, and the District of Columbia in a manner that should be satisfactory to myself and the friends with whom I have the bonor to acf: I have commu-nicated this to my friends; and if, in reply to this note, you can give them the same assurance, they will give you a cheerful and cordial support. Respectfully yours, D. WILMOT.

nem him the following note:

Hon, Wm J. Brown.

I knew the reason why I was interrogated. I had always been regarded as entertaining feelings more friendly to the South than a majority of the representatives from the North. As a member of the 28th Congress, I am alvocated the Texas bill, and had voted against the application of the Missour Compromise to the Texas bill, and had voted against application of the ordinance to the Oregon bill because it was north of that line. For four years I had been Assistant Postmaster General; and had neither voted at an election, nor been a inember of Congress, and had no opportunity of recording my vote upon these exciting questions 1 did not, therefore, object to placing my verbal declarations apon record. I immediately addressed to Mr. Wilmat the following note :

WASHINGTON CITY, Dec. 10, 1849. Dear Sir: In answer to yours of this date, I will state that, should I be elected Speaker of the House of representatives. I will constitute the commutes on the District of Columbia, on Territories, and on Judiciary, in such manner as shall be satisfactory to yourself and your friends. I am a representative from a free State, and have always been opposed to the extension of slavery, and believe that the federal government should be relieved from the responsibility. of slavery where they have the constitutional power to abolish it.

I am yours, truly. W. J. BROWN. Hon. David Wilmot.

If I had been elected, I feel confident that I should have organized these committees in such a manner as no Southern man. Democrat or Whig would have complained of. I intended to constitute them of the aid impartial men, who would have thoroughw investigated and reported upon all constitutional questions, without regard to sectional or party bias I was interrogated by a number of Southern men. wall of whom I said that I had always been opposed the Wilmot Proviso. I was a friend and suppor-'er of General Cass and in my canvass for Congress was opposed by a Wilmot Proviso Whig of the favlor school 'I was called a Calhoun Southern man-advocated the doctrines of the Cass Nicholson possessed But I was in favor of leaving the question of the institution of slavery to be settled by the people who might inhabit the territories. In other words : I was for non interference. Whilst these were my views, and while I was willing to let the peothe determine this question for themselves, under ocurcumstances could 1 vote for a territorial bill. having in it a provision to establish the institution o savery. I have repeatidly said, that although deemed the Proviso as unnecessary and aseless.] should have no objection to see a bill with its provas at the North he has been regarded as favoring the measure, and at the South opposed to it. I solved to several southern gentlemen, that my mind "as not clear as o the constitutional power to abol-1-h 8 avery in the District of Columbia. I was any uns, if that question was to be agitated this winter that a report might be made from an able commiltee of legal gentlement. Mr. Van Buren believ-ed that Congress possessed that power, and yet the South voted for him. I have slways taken the open ground that Congress should not interfere with the institution of slavery in the District of Colnmbia without the consent of the inhabitants. If ongress possesses the power to abolish Slavery strict, and the people consent no one should bject. The question of the power of Congress is indicial, and not a legislative question. In writ made no declaration to these men in relation to he committees, except that they should be fairly constituted. I made ng declaration togeouthern or porthern men but what will be fully sustained by the votes, if I have an opportunity before Congress aljourns. I have been consistent, and my future onduct shall prove it. I desire to see the House Tinized and am ready to vote for any democrat thout inquiring whether he lives in the North or "th-whether he is for or against the Proviso .he thing our southern democratic friends should member-that in the North the sentiment against e extension of slavery is almost universal; and it e are required to become the advocates of its exension, our places will be filled with whige. In s correspondence I consulted none of my friends. alone am responsible. I made no private pledges any one. My letter was founded on a verbal conversation with Mr. Wilmot, which is fully susmed by his speecd. W. J. BROWN. Washington Dec., 1846. THE TRACEDY IN MOBILE .- A letter from Mobile ves the following particulars of the dreadful home which took place in that city, recently : Four old acquaintance, Gen. Fallers to pay the Asserveriations on the ring the last session of the legislature, it, will be recollected, ways the Keystone, that Col. PAINTER, after a considerable contest, succeeded in getting he legislature to make, what was then supposed to be, sufficient appropriations to pay of all the old debts of former years, and to sustain a monthly system of cash payments for all labor and materi-als duting the fiscal year just closed. The propriey of this course so obvious, that the legislature, in the end, made the appropriations with great unan-imity; but notwithstanding this, the payments as designed by the legislature, have not been promptly made.

On the 30th of November last, the close of the fiscal year, there was in the treasury a large amount of unpaid appropriations for the expenses ol canals and railroads for the past year, while the creditors of the state, and persons employed in various capacities, remain unpaid, to the amount of more than then two hundred thousand dollars .--There remained in the treasury on the 30th Nocember last, to swell the aggregate balance in the treasury on that day, of the appropriations made for the Columbia railroad and Portage road, the sum of $178,599, which is due to the creditors of the commonwealth, and which should have been drawn and disbursed long since-to wit : $102,$95 belonging to the creditors of the Columbia mad, and $75,704 to those of the Portage road. In consequence of this gross and culpable negligence which must rest on some of the commonwealth's agents, the credit of the state, in the purchase of materials. has been seriously injured, and her laborers and creditors compelled, in order to secure the necessaries of life, to submit to the payment of extravagant prices and extortionate shaving. This disgraceful in the highest degree to the character Ein f the State, as well as prejudicial to her interests. The treasury, ever, since the payment of the in-Bio erest on 1st of August, has at all times, had an abundance of funds on hand to meet at all demands on it, promptly Why has it not been done ! Has the treasurer wilfully withheld the money Job Has the treasurer W which he ought to have paid out to the superin-We endents and surpervisors, to swell his balance at H the end of the year? Or have they been neglect- J H ing their duty, while the laboring hands and cred. GA itors have remained unpaid and been compelled to Phe make serious sacrifices to obtain the necessaries of CP life? This seems to us to be a matter worthy of serious enquiry, and ought to engage the attention Co of the legislature as soon as it meets. This we do know, that we have, during the past summer and fall, frequently seen supervisors and Job enperintendents who have stated that they had E come for money and could not get it. Their com-Ne plaints have been general and numerous. We have heard Colonel Excluse of the Columbia road. complain very often and recently, on this subject. It is due to the public that the suddle should be put on the right hore. If the state treasurer has im-properly, withheld the appropriations from their officers, it is the duty of the canal commissioners to ascertain the facts and to give them, in authens tic aud reliable form to the public, and if their own officers have been negligent of their duty, they E H should be promptly dismissed .----
