TRIAL OF DR. WEBSTER.

The Recent Fraces in Washington.

THE MURDER OF DR. PARKMAN BOSTON, March 19-10 A. M.

The prisoner, Dr. Joun W. WEIBSTER WRS brought in at precisely 9 o'clock A. M.

He who wore a composed and some what melan-choly appearance, but in other respects was much A few moments after, Chief Justice Shaw took his seat on the bench, accompanied by Assistant Justices Wikler and Metcalf. Sometime was occupied in calling the roll and excusing Jarors. The small gallery was densely crowded with apectators, but other parts of the court room, were not crowded, spectators having been admitted by tickets. The gentlemen of the Bai were present tickets. In genitement of the bal were present in full force. To prevent a crowd the Sherifi had taken the precation to barricade the corridors and station officers at the outside doors. The Council for the Government is J. A Clifford,

Fig. Attorney-General, assisted by George Bennis, Fig. Attorney-General, assisted by George Bennis, Fig. for the defence, Hon. Pliny Merrick and D Sobrier.

Fourteen Jurymen having been examined, there remained forty two present. At 12 minutes to 10 o'clock Mr. Clifford moved the Court to proceed to empannel a Jury in the case. Alter fourie en peremptory challenges of jurymen by the prisoner, ten of whom were set aside by the tourt, for having formed an opinion in the case, or for entertaining such opinions on capital punish-ment as to forbid conviction, a Jury was empannelled. About 11 o'cl 'ck the indictment was read. and

Mr C ifford, the Attorney-General, commenced his opening in a de berate and solemn manner, confing himself to a clear and succinct statement of facts in possession of the Government.

These facts, he averred, established two propo sitions:

First-That Dr. Geo. Parkman was murdered. Second-That Dr. John W. Webster committed Ale deed. Mr. Clifford also dwelt at great length on Dr

Webster's conduct during the time of his arrest, and contended that a great number of circumstanres would be found irreconcilable with the supponon of his innocence.

Mr Clitford concluded a few minutes past 1 o'clock, and on motion of Mr. Sobrier, the Court ordered all but the medical witnesses to retire. Witness for the Government-Charles M. Kings-

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The Court re-assembled at 31 o'clock .- Charles M Kingdry — This witness proceeded to give an account of what took place in their first search of admittance, were going down stairs toward the color, when Littlefield said Dr. Webster must cer- that dog runnin?." anly be there, and shook 'the door; in about two mates webster came and opened the door; saw

A difficulty arose, yesterday, in front. of the Istelligencer office, between Senators Foote and Bor-land, out of a conversation on Southern affairs --Mr. Foote dropped a few words about "servile followers" of Mr. Calhoan, which Mr. Borland con-struing to reflect upon himself, a scaffle ensued, in which Gen. Foote was struck in the face. He had but recently recovered from a severe attack of pleurisy, and was hardly prepared for a street fight. Mr. Borland, the moment the blow was struck, per-ceived, himself, the extreme impropriety and un-generousness of his conduct, and apologized for it ce in the manner which alone could atone for his rash conduct. The occurrence is the more to be regretted, as Messre. Forte and Borland have been friends, and Mr. Foote had. on a very recent occasion, defend-ed Mr. Boiland against the assault of his enemies. I am glad to add, that the unconditional apology offered by Mr. Borland, has since been considered personally satisfactory by Gen. Foote; and that, in all probability, Mr. Borland will this evening be introduced to the bedside of Gen. Foote, to shake hands with hurs.

After so grave an offence was committed, it was certainly an act of justice and respect for his own dignity, as well as for the dignity of the body of which Mr. Bortand is a member, to apologize, as he has done, to a tried and urue friend. After an error is committed, the best plan is to acknowledge it frankly; and not to aggravate it, by false pride that would add crime to rashness.-Baltimore Sun, March 16.
