PROFESSOR WEBSTER. - This Unfortunate man, so far as external appearances indicate, has become conciled to his fate. His demerner is that of a erson endeavoring to solve some great problemcaim and thoughtful. He reads much, and has recam and though the course to many books and newspapers. His familie visit him almost daily. It is to be regretted that some of our cotemporaries persists in circulating the most scandalous tabrications in relation to his tamily. They, at least, are entitled to sympathy, and should not be visited by additional torture. the statement in one of the penny papers, that a sugher of of Prof. Webster Had been rendered incane by the conviction and sentence of her father. s totally destitute of truth. No such calamity has etalien this afflicted family. They bear the terri-He trial which has come upon them with submissin patience and a Christian fortitude the furthes hie removed from that despairing anguish which produces insanity .- Boston Courier.

THE subscribers from long experience and observation, having satisfied themselves that's country retail business can be done more advantageous -both for the vendor and purchaser-for Cash, han on a credit, have concluded to close all predit, ransactions on the first day of April next, and there-have herewfore patronized them, will continue their patronage under the new arrangement, believing they can satisfy all such, that it will be for their interest to do so, and that very little argument will be necessary to contince all and every one that goods van be sold cheaper for cash than bu a credit. As some persons may think that the above is not lesigned to include them-att are dexired to distiactly understand that it means precisely what it reads and that THEY CAN SELL. NO GOODS ON A CREDIT TO ANY ONE, after the above closed, all those indebted will therefore see the necessity of paying up, with as Hitle delay as possi-ble. H. S. & M. C. MERCUR. Towanda, March 12, 1850.
