PROFESSOR WEBSTER .- This unfortunate man who is to be executed on the 30th inst., one week from to-day, has made, it is said, another confes son, in which he acknowledges that the murder Paikman was premeditated. The document is in the hands of the authorities, but will not be made sublic until after his death.

sherifi Evelyn has alread issued his instruction to the witnesses who are required by law to be nes rent at the execution, but besides these, none will he admitted to the final scene. The religious care nonies will take place in the prisoner's cell.

The Boston Mail says: ---- "A paper has been cir-related during the past week, among the more reality of our citizens, to raise the sum of 320, not to be given to the wife and children of Prof. Webster, to provide for them and place them above want during life. The paper is headed by Mrs. George Parkman, widow of the murdered man, with the sum of $500. The subscriptions have already nearly, if not quite reached the proposed

This little emblem of innocence, while frolicking with childish glee among its toys, swallowed and istened in its wind-pipe an inch screw, and notwithcanding surgical aid was almost immediately at hand, and the screw-gotten out, death closed the scene. Its life was like the summer rose That opens to the morning sky. But s're the shades of morning closed 'Twas scattered on the ground to die.

Mothers, you may call this a sad occurrence, an accident, any thing you please, rather than Providenticl means employed by Deity to deprive you of veor darling babes. No no ! keep such things as buttons, screws, &cc. without the reach of your chileren, and my word for it, such calamities will be it Angels visits "few and far between."
