The Democratic Governor of New nshire in his message, 1847, speaks of the motalid vote in favor of the Proviso. He says, nis vole has given form and substance to the ad desires of the people of these States-a deep ment in their hearts -and justly received, through minary assemblies, their cordial response and The proposition contained in this Provimindying as it does the determined will and true able of the American people, affords a pledge pitheir principles with be faithfully carried out au National legislation, which must give joy to r friend of the Union and national freedom." Dana, Governor of Maine in his message the ne reat says "The sentence of the free states is and, sincere and almost universal, that the inand of slavery upon productive energy, is like hight of mildews-that it is a moral and social Influenced by such considerations, the free will oppose the introduction of slavery into entiory which may be acquired." During the nevear Hon. John Wentworth said in his " Dem-"Thus we see that at the North all parties miling in favor of the great principles of the fund proviso. This is the only rock of safety Worthern Democracy. Indeed, nearly all Anti-Wilmot proviso Democrats have already aured for Gen. Taylor, as their favorite candifor the next President." But I have not space pultiply extracts. I trust the point is sufficientmabished to satisfy even the hard-to-be-con-North Pennsylvanian. Let us now recur which their strong convincing argument against appularity of the Provieo, " while such men as not were denouncing the principle of the war, manuary every possible obstacle in the way of vaporable termination." Be Editor undoubtedly, in this case thought to meld himself from the charge of misrepresentashrusing the word suck. But he fails in this, uch men as WILMOT would speak as he spoke trate as he voted. And WILHOT used the fol rag language, m the very speech in which he and his amendment to the two million bill."-He dragreed with some of his friends that this nean nanecessary war; he believed it to be a yeary and proper war ;" and in regard to an mable termination" he said "He trusted the stent was sincerely ready to negotiate for an able peace. mine it providing against the establishment of erers in territory which may be acquired." His estaroughout were to sustain the war, and bring an "honorable termination." We should be to be the North Penneyles ai in attempt to prove econtrary. But this is not all. The little Ward me sheet as it continues becomes quite excited talks more and more at random. "Who" ticlaims "is to blame for placing Pennsylvania mer Whig rule ? DAVID WILMOT ! His course imag the Gubernatorial contest was treacherous to tends and enemies." The remark of WILMOT as malice is blind and impotent" has never wil a better witness than the above sentencestil resurely if it were not so, such ridiculous charges l lepose in the brain that conceived them.-

In the same should ever remain free; and we of about fifteen lest square, raised a little higher than one's head, and a single beam over it as much higher. In the center of the platform was a trap door, surrounded with a raised joist frame. A rope was mn through two holes in the beam and fastened on the post. The noose was subpended over the trap, which was so adjusted that the executioner might let it fall by simply placing his foot upon a spring fixed in the floor immediately in front of he victim. At 7 3-4 o'clock the machine of death was fully completed and in that direction the dead. ly notes of preparation ceased.

The scenes around the jail, upon the tops of private dwellings were most revolting. From the windows and tops of about thirty houses on Lowell, Causeway and Leverett sts., the horrid spectacle was witnessed by men, women and children. On the top of house No. 3 Lowell-st., planks were arranged to accommodate about 100 persons The windows pfall the other houses north except noticed that the top of Mr. Neah Wyeth's house, 51 Leverett-st, was lined by men and some few vomen. We passed round to the front door, and found it guarded by a police officer. One man said, "I will give a dollar to go up, if I can see the execution. The officer opened his blind door and let him pass in. From his appearance, we should judge the man who so fooiishly parted with his money (for we heard it demanded of him) was as to enjoy years of comfortable health. Two of mont e country. To be more certain that Mr. Wyeth was speculating on views of a man killing, we stepped inside the door and asked him what he would charge us to go on top his house and see the execution. He came toward us, with a hand full of bank bills, and said, "One dollar sir?" 'We stepped back and made this record, which is only Ve learn that one of the honses closed was bio-ken into by the mob, so great was the anxiety to view the slaughter. They did great damage to the furniture. While in the house it was surrounded with a possie of police, who denied any of the party the party the privilage of coming out. How the matter will end we cannot say. The witnesses and officers began to gether about o'clock and continued to collect till about 9. There were about 125 spectators admitted to the jail yard by passes from the Sheriff, beside the ofcers in attendance.

The whole number of constables and police officers on duty was 125; 25 constables and 25 police were stationed at several points on the inside, and 75 were on the ground outside the prison. Rev. Dr. Putman arrived at the jail 7 1-2 o'clock and immediately proceeded to the prisoner's cell, where devotional exercises were held. Dr. Webster was in the further corner cell on the right, on the lower 'floor of the nouth-eastern building.

At 9 1-2 o'clock Sheriff Eveleth summoned to the rear office of the jail those gentlemen whom he had requested to be present as witness, and there read to them the order of what was to follow, together with the duties devolving upon his seven

Deputies, Among the names of the winesses were the fol Unitin Greely, L. H lowing:-B. F. Edmonds, Philip Greely, L. H. Wright, Isaac Adams, J. Put Bratlee, Robert Cowdin, Peter T. Homer, Wm. The Sheriff stated to the gentlemen present that they had assembled by invitation from him as lawful witnesses of the execution of John White Webster for the crime of murder, for which he had been convicted and sentenced. He detailed to them the order in which the proceedings would take place, and expressed his hope that the utmost quiet and good order be maintained, as consisten with the solemnity of the occasion. He hoped that he should not hear any loud talking, not a voice dring the progress of the proceedings. From the Jail office, the Sheriff, supported by Deputies Rugg and Freeman, proceeded to the prisonet's cell, followed by the witnesses and other deputies; where an impressive and eloquent prayer was ordered by Rev. Dr. Putnam, he being the only officiating clergyman present. No other services were held. The prisoner during prayer, was in his cell in a kneeling position. bery, of this place, aged 6 years 9 months, 9 days Died in Sheshequin on the 31st ultimo, Muss. GENORA Griffin, in the year of her age. The deceased had been several years a residen his borough, and by her virtues had secured a high place in the esteem of many friends, who foully hoped to have enjoyed her society many years. Bu He, who overrules in the affairs of men, had ordered otherwise. A severe attack of fever some years ago left her with health so impaired that it was never again fully restored. Early in the present season she suffered a partial paralysis accomplaned with excruciating bodly pain, which threatened immediate dissolution ; but by skilfull medical treat ment she was much relieved of the pain, and hope were entertained of her regaining so much strength three weeks before her death, she indulged the very natural desire to visit her parents and enjoy the quiet of that rural retreat; at the same time expressing a wish that if her health should not be restored nor he life prolonged, she might close her days among he friends in this place. She had been with her parent but a very few days, when her health began to de cline and she requested to be brought to Towands But sufficient strength for the ride did not remain

nor was it again restored and she cheerfully acqui esced in the divine will.

For some time past her mind had been deeply exercised on the subject of her spiritual interests, and for several months she lived in the lively 'en joyment of the christian's hope. Her purpose t make a public profession of her faith, by uniting with the church on earth was prevented by her sud den illness. To spend her last days in the society of those with whom she had enjoyed the comfort of the religion of Christ was doubtless one reason, for wishing to retorn to this place. But we trust she has gone to society more attractive and lovely than any on earth. Though she did not obtain a place among the recorded members of the visible church she has doubtless had "an abundant entrance into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord," and constitution tutes one of the invisible church who rejoiced be fore the throne of God and the Lamb forever.

Mizular as it may appear, we were assured by be others of the prison that they parted with the never see him again alive ! We saw them wher passed out of the prison and we are as fully ustied that such was the case, as we are of any thg within the compass of human judgment. ^{immedially} after they left, a guard was placed in ^{hst}cell, and continued with him until this morning. Prof. Webster was notified some days since by Putman that it was customary in such cases to Mace a guard over the prisouer the night before etecauon. He made no objection, but asked as a bror, if they did so that he might have the privi-¹⁰ of selecting Mr. J. C. Leighton, clerk of the ¹⁰ and Constable Edward J.
