EXCURSION TO LORDON AND BACK -A correspondent of the Boston Transcript suggests, that, as the great World's Fair in Loudon next June will probably attract more strangers to that city than were eter there before, at any, one time, there are many who would like to go, if they could accomplis the trip for about one hundred dollars. He has asrenamed from good authority, that provided on landred passengers can be obtained, the proprietors of a line of first class packets will agree to furnish a passage to Liverpool and back, and provide good accommodations and excellent fare, for the sum of sixty dollars each. It is intended to leave Boston about the middle of May, and arrive in Lor don somewhere near the fifth of June, allowing three weeks for the passage across, which is the usual time occupied. Passengers can remain in London three weeks, and make excursions to Gravesend, Woolwich, Greenwich, Richmond, Windsor, and other places in the neighborhood of the Great Metropolis; also visit the theatres and public gardens, and have a "good time," for the space of three weeks, when they again go on board the packet, bid adien to merrie England, and arrive in Uncle Sam's dominions about the first of August having been absent about ten weeks, and gained any quantity of useful information—and all for the sum of one hundred dollars. The visitor must of course content himself with plain accommodations while in London: the Transcript correspondent speaking from personal asstance, says they will be far superior to those quaintance, says they will be far superior to mose of any three dollar boarding house in Boston. In the course of a few weeks some definite proposition on this subject will probably be made. The idea Ba good one

The St. Louis Reveille states that a wellknown lemale of this city lately purchased a lotter dicket, which drew a prize of $2,500. She was not present at the drawing, but a friend repaired to the house, and in a jocular manner proposed to purchase her chance for a small sum, which he finally succeeded in doing for $100, thus clearing $2,400 by the operation.

Valuable Steam Mill & Land for Sale. THE subscribers offer at private sale. ONE HUN DRED ACRES OF LAND, well timbered, situate in the township of Smithfield, about four miles from the Susquehanna river. Upon said land is erected a large and new STEAM SAW MILL, capable of manufacturing 1,000,000 feet of Jumber per year. The let is surrounded by other well umbered lands, so that the mill can easily be supplied with timber for many years. The mill is in good running condition, and pre-sents every facility for the cheap and rapid manufacture of lumber, and would be a safe and profitable investment of capital. A portion only of the payment would be required at the time of sale.

For further particulars apply to the subscribers upon the premises.
