Agaricultural.

[From the Globe.] Work for the Month.

THESHING OUT GRAIN .- We beg to renew out injunctions of last month, to get through with this labor at as early a period as possible. The con siderations which we then urged are always safe to act upon; no man has more necessity then an agriculturist to be ready for the changes of the mar kel-no one is more liable to have his interestsported with by the agents of speculation-none where factitious circumstances, often coined for the occasion, are more likely to tax the profit due to his honest labors and toils. Thus liable to the tricks and witticisms of trade, it should ever be the business of the grain grower, to get out his crop at his earliest convenience, in order that he may be able to seize upon the propitious period for selling it, as he may rest assured that he can only protect himself from such impositions by unceasing vigilance.

Although we have watched the indications of the wheat crop with much solicitude-with much care and attention, we have, as yes, been unable to de cide with any degree of certainty, whether the aggregate crop of the whole country has been a lirge one, an aver ige one, or whether it is below the latter standard, though from present, evidence it would appear to have been a large one.

Orthography, Reading, Writing, Geogra-phy and Mental Arithmetic, The same, with Wells' Grammar, Adams' Arithmetic and Town's Analysis, Philosophy, Chemistry, Rhetoric, Logic, As-tronomy and Book Keeping, SWIRE .- Prepare your pens for the reception o the hogs you may intend to fatten, in order, that, so soon as the masts of the woods may have been consumed, they may be ready for them Each pen should have a rubbing post, its bottom should be covered with several inches, if depth, of marsh mud or other rough material, to absorb the liquid evacuations of the hogs, the which, as it may become saturated, should from time to time, be cleansed and replaced by fresh materials. When removed, it should be formed into compost hears. and mixed with plaster, or charcoal, to economise the ammonia. Hogs are most excellent manufactures of manure ; but, to render them 'efficient, you must furnish them with the rough materials to work with. Each hog in a pen, is capable, during the fattening season, of converting two loads of such materials into good manure. No animal voids more prine than the hog, and there are none voiding it of so rich a quality; it abounds in urea, albumen: common salt, muriate of potash, gypsum, chalk, and gluber's salts, while the solid evacuations, are supposed to be as rich, in nutritive elements, as are those of man. Substances so enriching, should then, most certainly be economised-should be made to perform their rightful offices in the improvement of the soil-in the nurture, elaboration, and perfection of the products of the earth. All hogs when first taken up for fattening, should receive two or three doses of flour of sulphur, and as many of copperas, it messes of bran or meal, say a table spoonful each dose, at intervals of two days apart. Their food for the first two or three weeks should be pumpkins, apples, and roots, or other vegetables, which should be boiled or steamed, made into mashes with bran or meal, the latter being increased from day to day, so that when they come to have corn or meal altogether, the change may not be injuriously left by them.

G. Townswsend, Big Stream-Woodworth & Post, Lodi-Hastings & Field, Geneva-Gray & Sweet, We hardly know, whether it would be prudent Waterloo-J. Miller, Senaca Falls-L. Bostedo, Mon-tesuma-H. L. Fish, Rochester-Niles & Wheeler, for us to remind our readers, that cooked corn meal will go further by 30 per cent, in fattening hogs, than will the unground and uncooked whole grain and that a saving of 15 or 20 per cert. may be affected by boiling the whole corn. However, let it be TACEYVILLE HOTEL ? prudent or otherwise, as we have told, them so, we will take the responsibility of asking them to try the experiment, and of personally superintending it. A arrangements for the accommolation of the Travel-ing Public, feels warranted in soliciting his share of Public Patronage. His Table shall be furnished with Many a barrel of corn that had been given out for fattening hogs, for want of personal supervision has found its way to a neighboring grogshop. Charcoal, Ashes, Rotten Wood, and Sult, should at all times during the periods of fattening, be accessi ble to the hors CATTLE YARDS .- Have as many loads of rough materials hauled as will cover your cattle-yards 12 inches in depth; fashion these basin-shaped, so as to prevent the escape of the prine. Occasionally spread plaster over your vards, after the cattle are confined therein ; adding as you can, other rough materials from time to time ; and our word for it by next Spring, all such materials will have been made into the most enriching fertilizers which you could desire

ORCHARD' TREES .- Examine these, eut off alt dead limbs into the sound wood, make a smooth surface to the wound, and paint it with a mixture made of equal parts of bees wax, rosin and tar; then brush the back of the tree with a hard brush, and paint with a mixture of soft soap, salt and sulphur, as prescribed last month. If the trees are covered with moss or ross, they should be scraped with an iron scraper, before the mixture is put on.

If not recently manured, or cultivated with a manured crop, you should treat your orchards to a dressing this Fall, such as we advised for young trees last month. Unfair fruit, and unproductive trees are the natural result of impoverished soils. A half-fed infant will be pony and diminutive, so will an apple ;--neither can be vigorously grown, withont pabulous fcod.

DRAINAGE .- We repeat our advice of last month, to drain your set lands : it is called for by your best interests.

MILCH Cows -In addition to the scanty fare of the pastures, milch cows should receive generous messes of succulent food, and hay at night,-and if you have not already provided warm stabling for their wiater accommodation, do so without delay. Young Stock should be provided with additional food of nights as it is important to bring them into winter quarters in good condition, -equally so is it, to keep them so.

Working Animals of all kinds should be treated well.

FENCES -- Examine and repair these. OUT BUILDINGS .- If not already done, these should be cleaned out and white-washed.

LINING OF LANDS .- From 20 to 25 bushels of lime per acre, is as much as should be put ou poor lands at one time-from 40 to 50, on lands in good heart ; but on strong lands well changed with vegetable matter, 100 bushels may be advantageodsly put on.

Twice these quantities of marl may be applied very advantageously.

Every thing ought to be realized that can feed a plant, tertilize the earth, or contribute to the necessities and comforts of man or beast,

Very Strange but true. A Gentleman of Utica, N. Y., has obtained from the Witch-basel, a simple remedy, which lays a more just claim to the name of " family cure all" than any Medicine we have ever before knows. Nothing is connected) with it but a little Alcohol to preserve it and yet it acis with great certainty in removing pain and all local inflamation, curing all sores, burns, brui-ses and lameness, rapidly. Piles, bowel camplaints, cholera-morbus, hemorrhage, ear ache, touth-ache, sore eyes, and all cervous affections. It is white as water and is barmless, and it is called "Pond's Pain Destroyer and Healing Extract."

None is genuine except " Pond's Extract" is blown in the bottle. Mr. Pond first introduced this medicine to the public and has expended a vast deal of time and money in bringing it to a high state of perfection, and we now warrant every bottle to give satisfaction.

A man by the name of Spencer has put forth an article called "The Coyle Extract" which claims to e from the Witch-basel. If from that shrub, its name s a perfect deception, and it is a very imperfect article; be not deceived, get a pamphlet and see. For sale at Montanye's & Co. Towanda, S. S. Hit

A SOVEREIGN BALM.

NO other medicine has ever been introduced to the public that has met with such unperalleled sucem, as Da. Sours's Oriental Sovereign Balm Pills. Having been but six years before the public, and the advertising small, compared with most other medicines, yet they have worked their way into every state in the Union early formation to reduce inflamation, the skill of mankind is challenged to equal Nature in it. It soother the Nervous System beals wounde, braises, sprain and all and as an application to reduce inflamation, the skill of mankind is challenged to equal Nature in it. It soother the Nervous System beals wounde, braises, sprain Union and Canadas. They have absolutely become he Standard Medicine of the day. They are purely vegetable and so admirably compounded that when taken in large doses they speedily cure the most delicate, nervous female, and have relied numbers from their beds after all other remedies had failed.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.

As there are sportous Pills in circulation called Ori-ental or Sovereign Balm, be sure to see before you buy that the name of " Dr. E. L. Soule & Co." is on the face of the boxes.
