Towanda, Saturday, November 30, 1850.

THE UNION IS SAFE NOW!—Many nervous, aged ladies have been accustomed to read the vapourings of Quibbleton, or the earth's warning of Northern dogface...

A like demonstration has been made in Faneuil Hall, at Boston, and we now hope the song is concluded, and we shall not be hereafter stunned and annoyed by the incessant din of those who labor to prove the "Union in danger."

THE NEW YORK ELECTION.—The Harrisburg Union has an article about the New York election, which contains a display of great intelligence, concerning the political affairs of that State.

But although Mr. Hunt has succeeded, he has done so and nothing more. His majority is small, and he owes its smallness to his connection with Greeley and Sewall, and his supposed taint of abolitionism and opposition to the fugitive slave law.

By what sort of logic this conclusion is arrived at, we cannot comprehend. Mr. Hunt is the only successful candidate on the Whig ticket, and the average Democratic majorities are about 6000.

The fact is Mr. Hunt owes his election to the very things which charge upon him. The haberdasher's gathering at Castle Garden, defeated the Democratic candidate for Governor, and gave SEWARD a triumph he before had not dared to hope for.

The North Pennsylvanian still sleeps in the quiet of the grave, the horn of its resurrection not having yet sounded. Rumor with her thousand tongues has been telling of new arrangements, by which the concern was to be galvanized, and tried again as good coin.

Queries for the Lawyers.—Are not the responsible publishers (if they could be ascertained) of the late concern, indictable under the statute for obtaining goods under false pretences, by those who have paid a year's subscription in advance.

We hope those who have been caught in that way, have got the worth of their money, for they stand about as good a chance of seeing the balance refunded, as they would of having a Towanda or Susquehanna bill redeemed.

The Wyoming Democrat treats us very cavalierly. However, we suppose WINDY has more lucrative business on hand just now. The Standing Committee of Wyoming county, at its late meeting, unanimously nominated JOHN BASSETT, Esq., of Tunkhannock, as the Wyoming candidate.

Loss of the U. S. Ship YORKTOWN.—The Queen Mab, arrived at Liverpool on the 31st of October, reports that the U. S. ship of war, YORKTOWN, was lost on the North part of St. Jago, Cape Verde Islands, on the 25th of September—crew saved.

Bradford Hotel.—This house is now occupied by the long and favorably known host, Wm. Baucus, whose name is a sufficient recommendation wherever known (and that is almost everywhere) without a word from us.

CUMBERLAND VALLEY RAILROAD.—The new track of this road is now complete from Chambersburg to Carlisle, and will be finished by the connection with the York and Cumberland railroad by the first of December.

Benton's Speech at St. Louis.

Col. Benton's late speech contains many things we should be glad to publish, but with certain reserves with the following, which is best calculated for this meridian. He is, in these remarks, paying his respects to the dishonest men who are snuffing up his path, at home.

"Anti-Benton's Anti-Benton party! A new mode of designating a political party, and more worthy of demons than of men! To characterize a party by their love for a man—their zeal in his cause, and devotion to his success—to give them his name, on that account, is natural and common, and may be as laudable, if not wise.

Neither whigs nor democrats should affiliate with them. Both parties will be stronger and clearer, without them. They were but about a dozen in the last General Assembly, and about the same number in this.

AGRICULTURAL IMPLEMENTS.—An establishment adapted to the wants of the Farmers of the flourishing county of Bradford, has been for a short time in operation at Athens, and we take great satisfaction in calling attention to Mr. WELLS'S advertisement in another column.

DEMOCRATIC STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE.—At a meeting of the Democratic State Central Committee, held at the Merchants Hotel, Philadelphia on Wednesday evening, 20th inst., JOHN HICKMAN, Esq., of West Chester, is the Chair and Dr. T. P. STOKES, of Philadelphia, as Secretary, the following Resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That a Convention be held at Harrisburg, on the second Wednesday in June, 1851, at 10 A. M., for the purpose of nominating Democratic candidates for Judges of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

Resolved, That the Convention for nominating a Democratic candidate for Governor and Canal Commissioner, be held at Reading, Berks county, on the 1st Wednesday in June, 1851, at 10 A. M.

Resolved, That the three cent piece, lately authorized by Congress to be coined, has been issued from the mint at Philadelphia. It is a beautiful coin, having on one side the words "United States of America," in which is a circular wreath, including the number "1851."

WE learn from the Greensburg Republican and the Greensburg Argus, that on Friday week before last, the Irish laborers on the Central railroad, got into a dreadful fight, which resulted in the death of three or four of the combatants.

THE STONE MONUMENT.—A meeting of the committee appointed to receive contributions towards the erection of a granite monument over the remains of the late Governor FRANCIS R. STURGE, will be held at the Tappan, Montgomery county, on Saturday evening, December 14th, at 8 o'clock, to adopt a plan for the monument, and take measures for its immediate erection.

THE CENSUS OF MINNESOTA.—The returns from the various counties in the territory represent the whole number of inhabitants before the 1st of June to be 5193. This is said to show an increase of nearly 50 per cent, of the last year's enumeration.

LOSS OF THE U. S. SHIP YORKTOWN.—The Queen Mab, arrived at Liverpool on the 31st of October, reports that the U. S. ship of war, YORKTOWN, was lost on the North part of St. Jago, Cape Verde Islands, on the 25th of September—crew saved.

Petitions are in circulation to prevent the establishment of Catholicism in England. The Pope's bull has occasioned much excitement and alarm among the Episcopal clergy. It is said the Queen is prepared to receive an address from her people, and to take measures to check the interference of the Legates of Rome.

GREAT LIVING.—The Calvary church, New York in addition to $3,000 salary, has given, it is reported, Dr. Hawley, its Rector, $15,000, furnished a parsonage house, and insured his life to the amount of $10,000.

Proceedings of the Bradford County Medical Society at its quarterly Session.

TOWANDA, Sep 5th, 1850. The society met at the "Ward House" in the borough of Towanda pursuant to public notice, and was called to order, by Dr. HORTON, President, at 7 o'clock P. M.

On motion of Dr. HORTON, it was resolved unanimously, that the thanks of this society be tendered to Dr. PATTERSON, Professor of Anatomy in the University of New York, for his attendance at this borough on yesterday, for the purpose of addressing them.

The society deeply regret the mistake in public print as to the day of their meeting, and cordially extend to him the invitation to meet with them a some future period and address them.

Resolved, That Dr. LADD & MASON, be a committee to transmit a copy of the above resolution to Professor PATTERSON, and ascertain at what time he will be able to favor us with an address.

On motion, Drs. Holmes & Porter, were admitted members of the society. On motion, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year. President—Dr. F. A. ALLEN, of Smithfield.

The society met pursuant to adjournment, and was called to order by the President, Dr. ALLEN. On motion of Dr. MASON, Dr. Rice was admitted a member of the society.

On motion Dr. Mason, Horton & Ladd were appointed a committee to examine the accounts of the Treasurer. On motion of Dr. Ladd, it was resolved that a tax of one dollar per year, be levied on each member to be paid quarterly.

Resolved, That Dr. Horton be directed to purchase the journals of the proceedings of the American Medical Association for the years of 1848, 49 and 50.

Resolved, That the motion of Dr. Allen be laid over until the next meeting of the society; and that it be published with the proceedings of this meeting.

Dr. Allen's motion is, that the clergy who sustain or favor Quakerism in any shape, shall not be favored with the gratuitous services of the regular physicians; but pay the regular fee as is customary with other sects.

The committee for examining the Treasurer's accounts report that they find correct and a balance to the Treasury of $4.00. On motion, the society adjourned to meet again at the "Ward House" (in the borough of Towanda) on Tuesday December 3d 1850 (the first week of court) at 7 o'clock P. M.

European Affairs.

The march of Austrian and Bavarian troops into the Electorate of Hesse-Cassel has been organized for the ostensible purpose of restoring the Elector recently driven out by a revolution. The real cause is the growing power and extension of Prussia, whose intervention in favor of a constitutional government in Hesse-Cassel is supposed to be merely a pretext for taking part in the affairs of the Electorate.

Having detailed the military preparations of the side of the Powers most opposed to the extension of the diplomatic aspect of which I may give a version different from that usually attempted, but one that prevails here in the best informed circles and apparently with good reason.

The Constitutional question in Electoral Hesse is not the stumbling block of Prussia, but the Prussian army, which is the real obstacle to the extension of the diplomatic aspect of which I may give a version different from that usually attempted, but one that prevails here in the best informed circles and apparently with good reason.

There are reports of an alliance between Russia and Austria in relation to this question, and it is said the Emperor of Austria has invited the Emperor of Russia to meet him at Warsaw to confer upon the subject, and that he has declined a proffered visit from the King of Prussia who intended to meet him at the same place.

The Unity of the Democratic Party.

We are gratified to preserve the unity of the party in each State, and to strengthen it by the adoption of those of similar sentiments. We have afforded too much in Pennsylvania by secessions, not to be aware that this is the only policy which can permanently secure the ascendancy of the Democratic Party.

The Anti-Masonic excitement, twenty years ago, revolutionized some of our strongest Democratic counties and the members of the Whig party in the interior, has been made up of those who, under the pressure of fanaticism, gave up the broad principles of Democracy for the narrow prejudices of Anti-Masonry.

The lesson of 1818 is too recent to be forgotten, and the harmonious and a prescriptive action of the Democracy of Pennsylvania, in its two last campaigns, has secured it two glorious victories, after the untimely defeat of our gubernatorial and Presidential candidates.

We have looked around us, and we behold the strongest evidence of the absolute necessity of such a policy at this crisis, in the great free States of the north and west, which must decide the next Presidential election.

General Cass neither voted for, nor advocated the Fugitive Slave bill; but we fear that the action at Washington has revolutionized the Congressional Delegation of this Democratic State, and entrusted its Presidential vote in the House of Representatives to Whigs.
