WASHINGTON, Dec. 20." STATE-The Senate yesterday adjourned over till Monday.

Hotor.-Mr. Daniel F. Miller, of Jowa, was in induced by Mr. Vinton, qualified and took his seat. After some animportant business the House wer into Committee of the Whole on the state of the

The considerable debute, two private bills we parted, and the House adjourned till Monday.

Monday, Dec. 23, 1850. SEXATE .- Mr. DAWSON appeared in his reat the morning for the first time this accesion. Naturious petitions and memorials were pre settied. Athong them were several by Me Clay and Cooper, praying for a modification of the existing tariff.

Mr. BENTON introduced his bill to relinquish the folls on the Stock held by the United States in the Louisville and Portland canal. He entered into a lenghiv argument in support of the bill. Mr. Gwin moved that the bill to settle land claims in California be taken up, and the mo.ion was agreed to. In the course of some remarks he offered a substitute for the bill, which was adopted, and the further consideration of the subject was postponed until to-morrow.

On motion it was ordered, yeas 25-nays 19, that when the Senate adjourn, it be to Thursday

After a brief Executive session, the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE .- Mr. RICHARDSON arose to a personal explanation. He pronounced as an unmitigated false houd the charge of one of the correspondents of the New York Tribune, that he had suppressed from publication, an important letter, written by Secre-tary Ewing, in his own vindication, when a select committee was appointed to examine into the allegations against that officer.

Mr. RICHARDSON in the course of his remarks was very severe upon the public printer.

The bill regulating the manner of taking testimony in case of contested elections was taken up and debated at length.

After considerable debate the bill was passed. Mr. CADWELL of Ky., wished to introduce a joint resolution, providing that nothing 'n the Bounty Land Act shall be so construed to prevent the sale or transfer of certificates or patents, prior to the location of the same or the issue of the natent thereof.

Mr. ROBINSON said that the select committee appointed to consider the subject, were prepared to report in favor of such a measure. Without pro ceeding further, on motion, the House adjourned until Thursday.

RELEASE OF MR. CHAPLIN .- Mr. Chaplin was on Thur day last released from the jail of Montgome ry Co., Maryland, $16,000 bail having been entered for his appearance at Howard District Court, to stand his trial on the charge of having resisted the Washington slave hunters who tracked him across the Maryland line. He had previously given bail in the sum of $6,000 to appear for trial in the Distact of Columbia, on charge of aiding in the escape ul slaves. Mr. C. was in Philadelphia on Saturday evening on his way home, GANIZED upon the "mixed principle," Stock and Mutual, which combined features offer to insured members double the usual security, The Cash system of payments has also been adopted, thus avoid ing the heavy drawbacks created by unpaid premum notes. The table rates of premium, upon which its pe-licies are being issued, is the only scale experience has proven should be adopted, as affording requisite security to be insured, and an undoubted guarantee for the perpetuity of such institutions. An experimental lable may be found worthless, at the very instant a poli-cy should possess its greatest value. Life Insurance, instant a poliery properly, is accesting the attention of the world. The public however, in their commendable willingness to embrace and employ its wise and salutary provisions, should make altimate security the primary and most important object, which can only be attained by so adjusting the premiums as to anticipate unexpected losse es and fluctuations of every kind. It is the purpose of this company annually to credit, upon the polices of holders and books of the Company, such an amount of profits as shall not affect the stability, or impair the credness of its contracts. Premiums may, at the option of the insured, be paid annually, semi-annually, or quarterly, in advance.
