the moral integrity of Mr. K. as cashier of the bank. But the circumstances of the bank, the necessity of curtailing expenses, and the known and undisguised prejudices against Mr. K., entertained by some of the stockholders and customers of the bank, require that in a proper time and manner, the connexion of the cashier and bank should be dissolved. The mode and manner of accomplishing this delicate business, is submitted to the candor and good sense of Mr. K. and the board.

EXCITEMENT AT NEW BEDFORD.—We have a despatch from New Bedford, Mass., stating that considerable excitement exists in that place in consequence of the arrival there, on Sunday morning, of two gentlemen, by vessels from Boston in four hours, with a statement that a steamboat, with one hundred armed men, and some Deputy U. S. Marshals on board, had sailed from Charlestown Navy Yard on Saturday evening for New Bedford or the vicinity, for the purpose of capturing fugitive slaves. On the arrival of the two gentlemen at New Bedford at half-past four yesterday morning, they communicated with some leading citizens, and the bell at Liberty Hall was tolled in order to call out the citizens. A large assemblage gathered at Liberty Hall, and the information was communicated to them. A large meeting of white and colored citizens was held in the forenoon, which was addressed by Rodney French, Esq. There are between six and seven hundred colored persons in New Bedford, many of whom are fugitives, and they are loud in their protestations that they will allow no fugitive to be carried away from New Bedford. A new Deputy U. S. Marshal has recently been appointed for New Bedford—Mr. William Russell—who is stated to have declared that he will arrest any fugitive slave at the cost of his life. It is supposed the steamer was to be employed as a prison ship, but as she had not been heard of at New Bedford at the latest moment, the whole story of her sailing and mission may prove a hoax. A severe storm was, however raging on the coast during the day, which may possibly account for the non-arrival of the boat.—N. Y. Tribune.

ARCHBISHOP HUGHES A CARDINAL.—The New York Tribune says, though the elevation of Archbishop Hughes to the dignity of a Cardinal is not yet officially promulgated, yet it is expected soon to happen. The Archbishop will be the first Cardinal in America.

The title of Cardinal belonged originally to the higher officers of State under the Roman Emperor, Theodosius, who reigned in the IVth century.—Afterwards until the XIth century, it was the attribute of priests in the Christian Church, of whatever rank. From that time the Popes formed from among the higher clergy a sort of privy council, and the title soon became to be their special property. In 1160, under Alexander III, the choosing of the pope was made exclusively their office. Less than a century after, Innocent IV, gave them the precedence of the bishops and conferred the red hat upon them by way of outward mark of distinction. The right to wear the princely mantle was conferred on them by Boniface VIII, at he beginning of the XIVth century, and the title of Eminence by Urban VIII, in 1631. In 1562 Sextus V, fixed their number at 70. They are divided into three classes, namely, Cardidal bishops, Cardinal presbyters, and Cardinal-deacons. Their duty is to assist by their advice in the government of the church, and also to preside over such branches and departments of the same as they may be appointed to. They also elect the pope, always, of course, from their own number. The appointment and promotion of Cardinals depends altogether upon the Pope. The names of those he has chosen are read in the Consistory or assembled College, with the formula, Patres Habebitis and the elected are informed of it by receiving the red hat.

☞ The Minnesota Chronicle, of the 10th ult states that sad accounts have been received there from the upper Indian country. The Indians above Crow Wing were suffering extremely, and many had literally starved to death. It is estimated, adds the Chronicle, that within a short time past, from five to seven hundred of them have died in consequence of privations.

☞ COMMITTEES OF VIGILANCE.—The Democratic Standing Committee of Bradford County, have appointed the following Committee of Vigilance, for the several election districts of said County, whose duty it will be to call meetings in their respective districts, for the purpose of electing Delegates to the County Convention to be held at the court house in the borough of Towanda on Tuesday the 6th day of May next; which county Convention is hereby called for the purpose of electing delegates to the State Conventions to be held in June next, to nominate a candidate for Governor, Canal Commissioner; and Judges of the Supreme Court. And the further duties of said County Convention, will be to take suitable action in relation to securing to Bradford County a just representation in the Conference hereafter to be held for the purpose of placing in nomination a candidate for President Judge in the Judicial District; and generally to transact such other business as may be deemed conducive to the interest of the Democracy of this County.

The Standing Committee urge upon the Committees of Vigilance the importance of discharging their duties fully and impartially. The primary meetings should be called on Saturday the 3d day of May next, between the hours of 4 and 8, o'clock in the afternoon at the usual place for holding said meetings, or at some place most convenient for the democrats of the district. Great care should be used in giving notice of the delegate meetings so that every democrat may have an opportunity of attending.

Tavern to Rent.—Rome Springs.

THE well known and celebrated stand near the village of Rome, in Bradford co. The house and out-buildings, barns and stabling are in good repair. The House is large and commodious; and will accommodate a great many boarders, which can be had during the summer months by any one who will keep a good house, as the medicinal qualities of the water are so well known that more people have always been desirous of visiting them than could find comfortable entertainment.

The house has recently been fitted up, and is about 9 miles from Towanda, one from the village of Rome, and about 16 from the Waverly Depot. It is on the main post road from Rome to Athens, and if well kept would be found a pleasant retreat from the cities during the warm weather.

Reference for terms, (which will be liberal to the right kind of man) can be made to Edward Overton, Esq., of Towanda, who is authorized by the undersigned, the owner, to lease the same.
