THE MAINE "GOLD MINES."- Last week we stated that we had received a specimen of gold dug from a stream in Moscow. We have since been shown another specimen taken from the same place by Mr. James Whorft of Madison, weighing fifteen by Mr. James whom or mannern, weigning theen grains, and worth about eighty-three cents. We are informed by Mr. Hussy, the stage driver, that some sixteen more pieces, about the size of kernels of wheat, were taken out on Saturday morning iss. There can be no doubt of the fact that gold has been found in our country, whether of sufficient quantity to make it an object in working the mines can only be determined when the water shall fall sufficiently to allow of a more thorough examination.-Skowegan (Me.) New Hasteshee.—New Hampehire, it appears by the Governor's address, will, what is rate for it, to in debt, at the end of the ensuing year. $76,000, owing to extraordinary expenses of the late Conrention, &c. The ordinary revenues will extinguish this debt in from three to five years. The State Prison shows a surplus of $1,300 of earnings over expenses. An acknowledgment is made of the late Abiel Chandler's bequest of $25,000 to the Insane Asylum. The Governor sustains the Fugitive Slave

In the Circuit Court at Washington, June, 5th, the jury decided against the validity of the will of Kosciusco, of 1806, as his last will and testament. Consequently the foreign heirs, for whom Reverdy Johnson and Major Tochman appear, will be enti-ited under the will of 1816, to Kosciusco's entire estate, which is considerable, and suits will be inmitned for its recovery from the trustees here and their sureities.

A Foot Rice.-A foot race of ten miles, was run at St. Louis, on the 14th, for a purse of $400, between the American Deer Jackson, and the Buffalo indian, Coffee The race was won by Jackson, who made the ten miles in 58m. 34s; beating Col fee 1m. 21s, his time being 59m. 13s. Both, it will be seen, run the ten miles under an hour.

THE STING OF A LOCUST .- Near Westchester, Pa, sererely stung on the hand by a young locust, in consequence of which the arm soon became much swollen up to the shoulder, attended with considerthe pain. The general impression seems to be that the locust has no sting. The female, nevertheless, has a spiral sting, and some deaths have been ascribed to wounds inflicted by j.

THE MARYLAND REFORM ELECTION .- The returns the Constitution. The majority, in all counties but line, is about eleven thousands. Washington and frederick counties give each two thousands two handred majority. The entire majority in the State will, it is thought, be from 6,000 to 8,000.

PRICTICAL SATINE .- At Syracuse, N. York, on Salunlay, a fat negro women, rigged out in the new Turkish style, with a dress reachir g just below her knees, flowing trowsers and a gipsy hat, with alreaming ripbons, promensided the streets, attracting considerable attention. The dress was given her by some young gendemen of the city.

NATIVE AMERICAN STATECONVENTION .- The state Convention of the Native American party of Pennsylvania, will be held in Harrisburg, on Wednesday, July 23d, 1851, for the purpose of placing in nomination candidates to be supported by the party for Goremor, Canal Commissioner, &c.

SILVER IN PENNSYLVANIA .- A mine has recently been opened about two miles from Phoenixville Chester county, which yields about thiny three-cances of pure silver to the ton, and fifty percent of lead. The Westchester Jeffersonian says that the whole valley of the Schuylkill teems with mineral wealth, such as lead, copper, iron and coal.

. W llon. Timothy Ives, member of the State bende from the Potter district, has resigned his seat in that body, having concluded to accept an appointment on the Portage Railroad, tendered Republican him by the Canal Commissioners. Mr. Ives' term in the Senate would have expired this fall, so that Lady of the Leke, a new election, unless in case of an extra session Queen of the West, a new election, unless in case of an extra session of the Legislature, will not be necessary.

Samuel Hall, charged with the manslaughter of an Jenny Lind Par'er Stoves, inmate of a lunatic asylum, in England, in which he Cottage do was keeper, has been sentenced to twelve months' imprisonment. The prisoner was convicted on the evidence of a funatic patient, and the judges have since held that he was properly examined as a wilness.
