

mother pale and almost unable to support herseil, tather's return was a fortunate circumstance for and commence speculating. Look at our success. He soon perceived the spirit of insobordina- | he stopped, she beckoned him in. "Take this boy ful men and you will see where lies the secret of or slimag within me. I saw by his manner that | up stairs, and lock him in his own room," said she, distinated him, although for a few days he said and turned from me. Looking back, as she was soccess. You will find they never were above their entering her room, she gave me such a look-it mas an afternoon in October, bright and gold. | will forever follow me-it was a look of agony, hat my tather told mo to get my hat, and take | mingled with the intensest love-it was the last, with with him. We turned slown a narrow lane unutterable pang from a heart that was broken. mathe open field-a favorite play-ground for | In a moment I found myself a prisoner in my " " ben in the neighborhood. After talking own room. I thought, for an instant, I would flingit is on different topics for awhile, my tather myself from the open window, and dash my brains i me at i observed that huge shadow, thrown [out, but I telt afraid to die. I was not penitent ----1 mass of rocks that stood in the middle of the Athimes my heart was subdued, but my stubborn Imposit that I did. pride rose in an instant and bade me not to yield. Mr fate: owned this land;" said he. "It was The pale face of my mother haunted me. I flung Surground when a boy. That mek stood there myself on the bed and fell asleen I awoke at To me it was a beacon, and whenever I look | midnight, stiffened by the damp night air, and ter-""" a dark spot in my luie-an event to rified with frightful dreams. I would have sought this to datell open, that if it were not as a warnmy mother at that moment, for I trembled with tear, but my floor was fast. With the day light my a which should not speak of it. Listen, then, ar are wro and learn wisdom from your father's teriors were dusipated, and I became bold in resisting all good impulses. The servint brought my "Articher deal when I was a mere child. I meals, but I dul not taste them. I thought the day would never end. Just at twilight I heard a foottrongen deroted to her children, and beloved step approach the door. It was my sister, who called me br name.

No sooner was this done, than the finle canoe bounded off as swiftly and noiselessly as a deer; been ruinous to have continued the system. An every pore of his body, "BEHOLD & BRAST" Such the breeze was fair, and the water smooth as a artive "Chalia," assisted by his wife and child, a man may be seen in the streets of our cilies every mirror. If anything can transport one in imagina-where the about it.

is the par son. 'My mather was a gentle, foreven hale. I remember her pale beautil erer sweet affectionate smile her kind and or town In my childhool'I lovel her intenses aras never happy apart from her, and she, and that I was becoming too much of a baby, " ne to the high school in the village. After sorry. She longs to forgive you." arising a time with rade rough boys. I lost, in a 1"I won't be driven to school against my will," there, my hodaess for home and my reverence said I. white he is pestrain my imperiooas natifire. I said my sister pleadingly. to resist her an-TT a min feel penirent, although I knew my word more about it Tomputors that I was tied to my mother's again."

state me by plant on games and diversions for fat I did not know. by counter I saw all this but that not anai a 🗍

It are statement like the that as I was about It was my molber's. Voreen merrer and erening school in the street, A 2011 TT Taber Hill ber hand on my shoulder, the are a surger the Wir Life are the are the loss introduce over the light to beer by by my bolisite " The fiel of, till we reached the spot whole we

I by wild that here to blocked from 'my I thought I was pet dreaming, but I got up mo the stars to man and my guit forever.

"What may I tell mother from you?" she asked. "Nothing," I replied.

"O, Altred, for my sake, for all our sakes, say that you are sorry-let me tell mother that you are "To mode", and it became more and more dif. 4 But you will go if she wishes it, dear Alfred,

"No I won't," sail I, "and you needn't say a man subel ber. The epidet I most dreaded | "O, brother, you will kill ber, you will kill ber, rai cuider I could not bear to hear it said by and then you can never have a happy moment

And a 39 From a quiet, home loving child, 1 I made no reply to this. My keelings were on beaue a will restering boy. My dear meth- tooched, bot I still resisted their kind influence-" Most every personation to induce me to seek hap. My since called me but I would not answer. I The sable the provints of home. She exerted heard her footsteps slowly retreating, and again I met to make our threadle attractive, and my sis- thang myself on the bel to pass another whetched 27, 1983 and bet selesservicing example, sought and tearful night. O fool, how weekbed, how fear-

> Another focuses, slower and feetler than my sister's disturbed me. A raise called me by came

"Alfred, my son, shall I come in ? Are you ser ry for what you have done ?" she whed. I cannot tell what influence, operating at that and the training of and any second pop atomes, male me speak adverse to my sections the way and i wooht have mbelled, bet The gentle soice of my mother that thrilled through Attauine a ber manner a wed me. She pat co | me, metted the ire from my obdurate heart, and to the sai sai to me, " We will take a line keeped to throw mysell on her neck, but I did not The courses I followed ber insidence ; and as Bar my works gave the Le to my beart, when I "S ALS. 2 out the door, I observed one of my said I was not sorry. I beard her withdraw. I bratches, and fell to the ground with such visitence an annung ar me. My parte was area and the an an analy similar by followed an refer in this once be woold have avoid . When each party is then placed , and, at a strukt Rome rears ciler than myself, he exer- braing my name called loadly, and my siter food ed this accident. "What rale do you might in the men, to the number

"Get up, Athen! O, den't wait a midste! Get and the station of this base rock. ap and come with me. Mother is uping that would l'enchange wit that the pale and cold as marble, by mother. She had few hours at most I shall show he in beaven."

the beast, and borne secreters in her icom. No a the being firship in health, fal down and I cannot sell you my agony is I healted than ber ness, and never paid for the doing of job which they could just as well do themselves. We know a man worth from thirty to forty thousand dollars and no laborer works harder than he He never hesitates to take off his cost and do any kind of work about the premises. Such a man is not above his basiness; but we think he is too far in the other extreme. Of this we are sure; if all men will be prompt and punctual, sick to their business and not be too proud they will eventually succeed and become independent -D. C. Colesworthy.

8 · ·

HOOSTES COURTSHIP -Scene, a log cabin brasting a single room, one halt of which is occupied by two beds, one containing the "old folks" and " the baby :" the other, whose duy by day is to stand beneath the overshadows of its luftier mate, laden with five "rounger members," (Erekiel in a whisper)-" I swaw tow gosh, Sary, I for ye"-(Sary, in a higher key)-"Good ! Zeke, I'm glad on 1" Zekiel-" Will you her me ? that's what I want tew know." (Sary, looking astonished)-Her ye ! ten be sure I cal'late ten." Erekiel When will we get spliced ?" Sarr-" Wall, hoss, that's what I've been thinkin on : I telled dad tewday that ef so be he'd go tew mill ter-morter we'd get jined next day." Zekiel-" Ver dul ! Wall, then swap a bass with me" (Father, from the bed) -" There, now, varmints, el you've gos the biziness sealed, dew quit fur tew-night; ye make sich a rachei a feiler night as well sleep in beilam Geus or Thorant .- Time & charlos wheels make beir carriage-roads in the fainest face." A brilliant talker is not always liked by those rhom he has most amment. He that is choice of his time will also be choice of his company: and choice of his actions.

The passion of love makes almost every man a ratmer, though not a poet When ill news comes to late to be servicable to your neighbor, keep it to yourself. He who does his best, bowever licle, is always to be distinguishable from him who does nothing.

Beneficence is the most exquisite larner; and be good man, after all, is the genuine epicate. A Critic's head should be wise enough to form a right judgment, and his beaut free enough to pro in source it. A desire to say threes which no one has ever and, makes some people say things which as one compil to say. A man who had climed up a chestest tree, had by carelessaes mined his bold of one of the Le manues Systeme about the boase, and I heard ber groun. I longed to call her back, ent I as to break one of his tibe. A neighbor coming to by encipted, accompanies them to the spot append ais anistance, remarked to him, driv, that hal be el for the day section to which they march in good asked the other. "This," replied the philosopher of perturns two bandred, resh amongse the baches, ייבברבו ומרמשה קושב שלומר בשוני השוני לומי לי מי לי מי לי

Lorisa Denocre - Wie I an short'r to leave

oid brete ? 1 1 "Dobbins, Dotton," boundry growled the old galese canoe, with its beautifully-tranparent tail ail, fixating jannily amongs groves of wild, strange of tropical vivers; and, catch occasionally the gorgeous rais of the sun amidst the dark, clustering foliaze. The canal or river is as winding as a serpent. and in many places so narrow, that the bambop mast gave a passing greeting to clusters of flowermg shrads that blossomed on the cool banks.

The Lake of Negombo, a fine sheet of water was soon crossed, and landing at a little tope of cocoa ani trees, I procured one of the common bullock-hackenies of the country, and made the bert of my way to the gardens.

At first plance at the cianamon plantations at allerant showed the drainage had been well seen This is a very important matter, for, although heat and moista e are both essential to the full derelopment of the spice, stagnant water mines is flavour. The natives pay but latte attention to this nor to removing the wrag wicks before the bark thekens too much ; better the marked inferiority of all native-grown cinnamon.

Arrived at the superintendent's bangalow, breakins: of fish, eggs, and corry was soon served up and finished, with a bottle of Alleop's Pale Ale. for be it known that the dirty thick liquid served out as collee by the Cingalese, is not diskable br one European in a dozen ; although it might have been expected that the island which produces the berry in such abandance should also formish the beverage of fair quality. Breaklast over, I proceed. ed, with my bost, to inspect the " works," or "peel-

int houses " In former days, both under the Datch and Eng lish Governments, the collivation, as well as the after preparation of the spice, was exclusively carned on by one particular casts of Ciagalese, called Ghainas." who had head men, or peny chief, of various grades placed overthem, belonging to their own body. This system is now party changed, and the preparation of the barr, a alone carried on to the "Chahas " This being their bereditary orregionion, they are, as might be expected, semarkaby expert in their operations." Having spect two days amongst these perfers, I was enabled to watch the whole processol cropping. in the various stages, from the green stick to the beactifully yellow pipe of pression spice The "Chalias" are assembled at break of day overseer of field work, over each. All are arned with a sharp, fight billbook, or "came " and a Gost cond to be an the sicks when cat. The Emopean superimendent having seen each gang proper " core," is that, with bod shoets and cheers, and the write of destruction commercial in ford entrest. The periers are pail ecconing to the The bas rat a fark shalow over my chancelin, and belowed my easter. On the bel, you. The doctor tells me that I am to live but a grantity of spice the prepare; and it may, therefore the off works strange wit that the pate and cost as marke, by mount, cas as "What' you be a beater? Too! Too deet. good boule of sinks A singer seeing instance ines. the state and the this bage, anighty span to me, she was seend with a pulpituite of et be say posses beares than you are noting many and be physical fremshing their sharpy shining weapons above then beals, with ben her that han flasting pres The basis of the model in any start the basis of the second server have a like the chairs of the second server and the second server have a start of the second server have a like the chairs of the second server have a like the chairs of the second server have a like the chairs of the second server have a like the chairs of the second server have a like the chairs of the second server have a like the chairs of the second server have a like the chairs of the second server have a like the chairs of the second server have a like the chairs of the second server have a like the chairs of the second server have a like the chairs of the second server have a like the chairs of the second server have a like the chairs of the second server have a like the chairs of the second server have a like the chairs of the second server have a like the chairs of the second server have a like the second server have a like the second second server have a like the second second fling occupations are followed. The back having a natural tendency to carl ap, requires but late rolling; and when made up on Susting. the second day, the pipes are laid out singly, upon couls stretched across the upper part of the building. air, but carefully shellsred by cocos leaves from the Mann's Thoughts for Young Men. rava of the sca.

are weighed and paid for. Each party of " Chalias" keep their cuttings separate; and a good deal of emplation often arises amongst them as to who shall turn out the greatest quantity of the finest kind called " and port"

In the peeling home which I inspected, the bimost order and decorum prevailed, not a word was allowed to be spoken by the work-people .-The various heatimen chiel in long white robes, and with high combs in their hair, passed on from one peeler to another in silence, pointing with the finzer to any defective work. The only drawback to the agreeable features of the scene, was an old, gram Malay, with the moster on shoulder, who paced the length of the building in grim dignity, to enforce order, if necessary, and to prevent pullerme -Sill, altogeber, it was a pleasing sight and I could not but contrast the well-ordered, tesinesslike mole of work pursued bere, with the uproar and confision I witnessed the following day in the peeting house on a sative property, where all apneared to be masters

The ster-processes of assorting and taking, are carried ca in the Colombo establishmenti : as is also the distillation of constition from the buildings and rejected pieces of task.

TELE STANDIED OF MORALTET -- A man's morvirtues the evil he metely refrains from doing bot the getter, if these a coude to guide his course. by the amount of templation be overcamer. He as not to be juiged by his defeat alone, be: also by has victories. Many a man passes through the without in gauge of thirty, with a "Canhang," or saure a sport on his character, who berwithing mener stregted as bearely as he who fell and was die staced. The later may have called to his sil more pieripie, oresone mase evil, beine be greided, the Green Mountain Boy mined to his sumeous than the former, ether from circomitances or his lacters on and is stanz, and remarked . trical cossist in, was ever called to an, It woold be as guratural, it would require as great an see where the carmai thing mind war." effort for the coul phiegmain, and presentations be-

Fistary is tothing . & seperals upon the active of of the condict and in the oddsectmone. Greater be sama in the desial, then in a bunched view.

will prevare one bundred pounds of spice in one day if the he may be found in the exten month, which will produce him one pound seven. at the tables of the "Upper Ter." but surely to teen and suspence, or seven pounds for the season, every man of purity and honor, to every man whore if for four months. Upon this they will idle away wistom as well as whose heart is unbiemished, looking trees, which nearly always kinge the banks the rest of the year, though in some cases other Li- the wretch who comes cropped and bleeding from the pillory, and redolent with its appropriate perfames, would be a guest far less offenstre and dis-

> Now let the young man, rejoicing in his manity proportions, and his comliness. look on this picture There they remain two days, when they indering a and on that, and then say, after the likeness of little more rolling up, or " handling" and are placed which model be intends his own erect stature and on stands outside, exposed to the action of the hot sublime countenance shall be configured -Hore-

Three or foar days of this open-air drying will more to be pitied than one bowed down to the earth BE GENTLE-A man with an instable temper as generally suffice. The pipes are then piled op on the porenty. The faster evil can be ameliorated, while the former is a devil that makes havoe with all the finer qualities of heart and mind, taking the beim of reason, and ranning the possessor perpetaally against rocks and rough corners. Affetslant man, in a family of children. even of his own, is worse than the small por, from his influence on their young minds. The old alage-" As the old cock crows the young ones learn," is a grand truth ; we see it here illestrated. Those old tellows the: spotter and growl around their houses, are sure in be imitated faithfully by the little watchers for parental squalis, and a nest of homets is made where peace and harmony alone should tiweil -The fractions man should be consigned to valenan and peniteace, and kept by force from spreading his contegion. What right has a man to poison the happiness any more than the food of his family The text might be male to apply to all the relations of the where meery is cultivated, and grow :ing maie the order of all days. There are commonivies and parties where the old saw about " does with sore beals" would give but a faint inducation otheir condition of mind. We need a society for the promotion of good nature more than for any other pentantonic purpose -Borren Post.

A.VASSED TANE -- A crowd collected around a diapulated spectmen of hamanity in the of the Steets of Circulati, a few days ago to atorrain al wreth is not to be gradouted by his negative what is was in search of southis object in feeting "Ob, dam it, I've lost some shoney," was the

> One of the party who is ever realy to assat his fellow being when in distress, lost so time in parcoming a light Aber searching tor's long time to the water and sta that accurctates to our gathers, "I don't care, a fer for the cost , I por weated m

The Vankee escaped a severe thrashing only by ing to be vebenens, wild, and beallong, as lor the the the use of his legs, which have him up Man ever fery and temperations man to be quiet and emerion on Stath a & style that would have their to an salesore. `x.

The man who would ensure the with the geseralsbin cooler beavery, and lohier efforts may it set abort cheating a printer, wrahl commit bigh. way mothery spon a crying baby, and tob it of its singer bread ; take the last bit of hoe cake from a starting argre; mh & church of pennies; liet the to The following time was given it a temper. tater of a bed pego a "frier" - num adar 7 ?