We could gather up from the Whig files of that year denunciatory articles, on this subject, sufficient to form a book, if we would devote time to it; but our readers will remember the fact, and we will con tent ourselves for the present with a sentence from the Telegraph, of this place, and which went the rounds of all the Whig newspapers and "the rest of Whig-kind:" "At length we see the humiliating spectacle of a Governor of this great Commonwealth neglecting the interests of the people, and mounting the stump to beg for vales." question is mere apathy. We do not think it necessary here to consider the robability of certain other circumstances which night somewhat vary the result-as, for example, whether any of the powers of Europe might not think proper to interfere, in order to put a stop to atrocities of this strife-or whether Spain might not yield to far to the desires of the people of Cuba as o grant them a provisional legislature, elected by their suffrages. The latter of these, considering the character of the Spanish government, which is both unenlightened and unyielding, we regard as wholly improbable, though it is obvious that it is the only true policy. It is enough for us to have shown that if the connection between Cuba and the mother country is to be served by the sword, there are consequences of the gravest nature involved in the event, to which it would be folly to shut our eyes. As lovers of political freedom, we cannot but de est the tyranny in which Cuba is held, and cannot but wish her a happy and early release. So bad a government, we suppose, cannot long endure-it certainly deserves not to last a day. But the im-mense population of slaves held by the white race, surround any stiempt to rid them of the Spanish yoke by violence with fearful difficulties which the planters of the island, we doubt not, see clearly .---

EXECUTION OF GEORGE PHAROAH .--- This unfor nate youth, condemned to death for the murder of RACHEL SHARPLESS, suffered the penalty of his bloody crime on Saturday last at about 2 o'clock, P. M., in the prison-yard at West Chester. The same gallows and the same rope that launched his uncle JABEZ BOYD, into eternity, were used for the mournful purpose. Many applications were made to the Sheriff for permission to witness the exect ion, which of course—and very properly—the law did not allow him to gratify. We learn from the Village Record, that Assor

SHARPLESS, the father of the murdered girl, visited George in his cell, on Saturday last. He said in reply to George's request to be forgiven, that it was the duty of all to forgive and forget injuries-that he freely lorgave while it was not possible to forget George was entirely cool and sell possessed. Atta asked George why he did the deed, and whether he had loaded the gun that morning, with the intertion of committing the murder. George said that he had no cause ; he had never been injured or m sulted by her, and that when he left home, he had no intention of shooting her. To another penon, a female friend, he said on the same day, he had loaded the gun that morning expressly for Rachel. George was not much moved by the interview.

The candidates are eminently qualified for the posts for which they have been designated, and their election will reflect honor upon the County.

It is to be expected that in the formation of ticket embracing so many important offices, that there should be some who may feel disappointed. There may be those whose personal preference have been for candidates who have not been placed in nomination. But amidst all the emulation which the contest for the nominations has evoked. we believe there has not entered a particle of rancor or ill feeling, and the disappointed contestants are prepared and ready to rally to the support of the whole ticket.
